EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning Achieving quality for all

UNESCO,2014-02-04 The 2013 2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education

Latino Immigrant Youth and Interrupted Schooling Marguerite Lukes,2015 This book provides an accessible and academically rigorous commentary on immigrant young adults educational experiences With a particular emphasis on Latino immigrants this book is the first of its kind to present research on dropouts from this community as a unique subgroup making it relevant to policy makers academics and practitioners

Quality Teaching and the Capability Approach Alison Buckler,2015-04-24 This book provides an analytical exploration of the condition of teachers working in expanding school systems across the world with a particular focus on the lives of women teachers in rural Sub Saharan Africa Drawing from award winning research it looks beyond the official portrayals of teachers lives in order to better understand the reality of the contexts in which teachers live and work Positioning Amartya Sen s capability approach at the heart of the study each chapter considers documentary evidence alongside ethnographic research from rural remote and under resourced schools in Ghana Nigeria Kenya South Africa and Sudan Interweaving rich narratives from teachers in a variety of contexts the book proposes a concept of professional capability and examines female teachers agency to pursue and achieve this in their classrooms This key examination challenges existing notions of quality education and reveals insights into the broader purpose of schooling for rural communities Quality Teaching and the Capability Approach will be of value to researchers academics and postgraduate students in education particularly those concerned with gender development and teaching as well as educationalists and policy makers concerned with education and development

International Yearbook for Research in Arts Education 2/2014 Larry O'Farrell,Shifra Schonmann,Ernst Wagner,2014 Building on earlier discourse the current yearbook volume continues to focus on questions of research in the field of cultural and arts education from a global perspective This year s volume opens with a review of important contributions to the World Summit in Arts Education held in Wildbad Kreuth Germany in 2013 It continues with the topics of evaluation mapping and monitoring introduced in the first volume Theoretical and practical applications of the key foundations of work in the International Network for Research in Arts Education INRAE are also explored at length Most notably new approaches aimed at linking arts education to peace education and the application of these approaches to education for sustainable development ESD are introduced and explored OECD Economic Surveys: Latvia 2015 OECD,2015-02-25 This OECD Economic Survey of Latvia examines recent economic developments policies and prospects Special chapters cover improving public sector efficiency and raising productivity The Struggle for Teacher Education Tom Are Trippstad,Anja Swennen,Tobias Werler,2017-04-20 Reform of teacher education is en vogue worldwide today due to the widespread belief that teacher education has the power to change traditional modes of schooling educating new teachers who will be capable of improving the knowledge standard of children and boost the economic power of nations The Struggle for Teacher Education brings together conceptual comparative and empirical studies from Australia England Finland The Netherlands Norway South Africa and South America to explore the ways in which professional education has been positioned in a reactive mode The contributors discuss how teacher education is a contested division in higher education and look at how current reform efforts may limit the potential and work of teacher education highlighting why this point needs more attention Moreover the collection reveals how teacher education s authorship on teacher professionalism may be weakened or strengthened by current reform drives and offers alternative models on how to rethink reforming teacher education Resources in Education ,1995-04 Accountability in education: meeting our commitments UNESCO,2017-10-30 The second edition of the Global Education Monitoring Report GEM Report presents the latest evidence on global progress towards the education targets of the UN Sustainable Development Goals With hundreds of millions of people still not going to school and many not achieving minimum skills at school it is clear education systems are off track to achieve global goals The marginalized currently bear the most consequences but also stand to benefit the most if policy makers pay sufficient attention to their needs Faced with these challenges along with tight budgets and increased emphasis on results oriented value for money countries are searching for solutions Increased accountability often tops the list The 2017 8 GEM Report shows the entire array of approaches to accountability in education It ranges from countries unused to the concept where violations of the right to education go unchallenged to countries where accountability has become an end in itself instead of a means to inclusive equitable and high quality education and lifelong learning for all The report emphasizes that education is a shared responsibility While governments have primary responsibility all actors schools teachers parents students international organizations private sector providers civil society and the media 0 3 have a role in improving education systems The report emphasized the importance of transparency and availability of information but urges caution in how data are used It makes the case for avoiding accountability systems with a disproportionate focus on narrowly defined results and punitive sanctions In an era of multiple accountability tools the report provides clear evidence on those that are working and those that are not Back cover Education pour tous 2000-2015 UNESCO,2015-04-13
