Det Grade 11 Question And Memo 2014:

Our Enemies in Blue Kristian Williams, 2015-08-03 Let's begin with the basics violence is an inherent part of policing The police represent the most direct means by which the state imposes its will on the citizenry They are armed trained and authorized to use force Like the possibility of arrest the threat of violence is implicit in every police encounter Violence as well as the law is what they represent Using media reports alone the Cato Institute's last annual study listed nearly seven thousand victims of police misconduct in the United States But such stories of police brutality only scratch the surface of a national epidemic Every year tens of thousands are framed blackmailed beaten sexually assaulted or killed by cops Hundreds of millions of dollars are spent on civil judgments and settlements annually Individual lives families and communities are destroyed In this extensively revised and updated edition of his seminal study of policing in the United States Kristian Williams shows that police brutality isn't an anomaly but is built into the very meaning of law enforcement in the United States From antebellum slave patrols to today's unarmed youth being gunned down in the streets peace keepers have always used force to shape behavior repress dissent and defend the powerful Our Enemies in Blue is a well researched page turner that both makes historical sense of this legalized social pathology and maps out possible alternatives

Flight Risk Forrest L. Marion, 2018-10-15 From the 1920s Afghanistan maintained a small air arm that depended heavily upon outside assistance Starting in 2005 the United States led an air advisory campaign to rebuild the Afghan Air Force AAF In 2007 a formal joint combined entity led by a U S Air Force brigadier general began air advisor work with Afghan airmen Between 2007 and 2011 these efforts made modest progress in terms of infrastructures personnel and aircraft accessions and various training courses But by 2010 advisors increasingly viewed AAF command and control C2 as a problem area that required significant improvement if a professional air force was to be built In the spring of 2011 major institutional changes to AAF C2 procedures were being introduced when nine U S air advisors were killed The attack was the worst single incident loss of U S Air Force personnel in a deployed location since 1996 and the worst insider attack since 2001 From the day of that tragic event the cultural chasm between Afghanistan and the West became more apparent This dilemma continues with no end in sight to an air advisory mission of uncertain long term value
