Higher Education Financing in East and Southern Africa Pundy Pillay,2010 This nine country study of higher education financing in Africa includes three East African states Kenya Tanzania and Uganda five countries in southern Africa Botswana Lesotho Mozambique Namibia and South Africa and an Indian Ocean island state Mauritius Higher Education Financing in East and Southern Africa explores trends in financing policies paying particular attention to the nature and extent of public sector funding of higher education the growth of private financing including both household financing and the growth of private higher education institutions and the changing mix of financing instruments that these countries are developing in response to public sector financial constraints This unique collection of African country case studies draws attention to the remaining challenges around the financing of higher education in Africa but also identifies good practices lessons and common themes Getting Skills Right: South Africa OECD,2017-07-10 This report identifies effective strategies to tackle skills imbalances in South Africa Scholarship Models around the Globe - Embracing Diversity, New Trends and Opportunities Katherine Meltzoff,Elsa Justino,Ines Casquilho-Martins,2025-05-14 Scholarship Models Around the Globe Embracing Diversity New Trends and Opportunities offers a comprehensive exploration of global higher education funding systems and their impact on students academic journeys and career trajectories With a focus on equity inclusion and the challenges faced by historically marginalized groups this volume provides insights into diverse scholarship models across different regions By examining the interplay between financial support and access to higher education the book highlights both the successes and limitations of various funding initiatives It explores social mobility fosters sustainable development and addresses systemic inequalities while offering policy recommendations for more inclusive and effective programmes Engaging with comparative case studies from Africa Latin America the Middle East and beyond this volume is an essential resource for researchers educators and policymakers seeking to understand the evolving dynamics of higher education funding Rich with diverse perspectives this book highlights emerging trends and innovative practices making it an essential part of the ongoing conversation on educational equity and the future of global scholarship programs ETDP SETA Scarce

& Critical Skills Guide 2010/11 , OECD Economic Surveys: South Africa 2020 OECD,2020-07-31 The COVID 19 outbreak is worsening an already fragile economic outlook Since 2013 growth has been modest and unemployment has been rising Policy uncertainty has been the main driver of low confidence and subdued investment Following a sharp fiscal deterioration in recent years the crisis also heightened debt sustainability challenges Electronic Government and the Information Systems Perspective Andrea Kö,Enrico Francesconi,Adeleh Asemi,Gabriele Kotsis,A Min Tjoa,Ismail Khalil,2023-07-28 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 12th International Conference on Electronic Government and the Information Systems Perspective EGOVIS 2023 which took place in Penang Malaysia during August 28 30 2023 The 8 full papers presented together with 1 short paper were carefully reviewed and selected from a total of 17 submissions They were

organized in topical sections as follows e Government strategy artificial intelligence The Youth Dividend Jan H. Hofmeyr,2012 From School to Higher Education? Michael Cosser,Jacques Du Toit,2002 This substantive report is essential reading for those involved in higher education planning and policy making Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K. Ralarala,Salochana Lorraine Hassan,Rajani Naidoo,2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulacy informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society Student Politics in Africa Luescher, Thierry M.,Klemencic, Manja,2016-05-12 The second volume of the African Higher Education Dynamics Series brings together the research of an international network of higher education scholars with interest in higher education and student politics in Africa Most authors are early career academics who teach and conduct research in universities across the continent and who came together for a research project and related workshops and a symposium on student representation in African higher education governance The book includes theoretical chapters on student organising student activism and representation chapters on historical and current developments in student politics in Anglophone and Francophone Africa and in depth case studies on student representation and activism in a cross section of universities and countries The book provides a unique resource for academics university leaders and student affairs professionals as well as student leaders and policy makers in Africa and elsewhere Youth and Higher Education in Africa. The Cases of Cameroon, South Africa, Eritrea and Zimbabwe Donald P. Chimanikire,2009 Student activism in Africa at least since the early 1990s has been preoccupied with popular struggles for democracy in both their respective countries and institutions of higher learning The changing socio economic and political conditions in many African countries characterized by the decline in economic growth and the introduction of multi party politics among several other factors have had different impact on students and student political organizations in African universities This book recounts the responses of students to these changes in their attempt to negotiate better living and studying conditions The four case studies contained in the book Cameroon South Africa Zimbabwe and Eritrea clearly reveal the very important aspects of the situation in which African students find themselves in many countries and underscores the need to understand the character and development of higher education on the continent Ministries of Higher Education Vice Chancellors Deans of Students Student Unions and parents will find this book very useful in terms of understanding the tensions that often arise at institutions of higher learning and why solutions seem to be elusive

Higher Education in Regional and City Development: The Free State, South Africa 2012 OECD,2012-02-14 This publication explores a range of helpful policy measures and institutional reforms to mobilise higher education for regional development in the Free State of South Africa Higher Education ,2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world s economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Perils and Promises The State of Online Education Goals and Challenges of Online Learning and Innovations in the Age of COVID It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic Juta's Statutes of South Africa South Africa,2004 The Oxford Handbook of the South African Economy Arkebe Oqubay,Fiona Tregenna,Imraan Valodia,2021 This Handbook provides a detailed and wide ranging coverage of the key economic questions in South Africa concentrating on the more recent economic challenges facing the country Handbook of Public Management in Africa Gerrit van der Walddt,2023-12-11 This forward thinking Handbook provides a thorough and comprehensive guide on the positive prospects for public management and governance across the African continent Exploring best practices learned by public management and governments in the region this book examines Africa s ability to leapfrog developed nations in the adoption and adaptation of managerial models techniques and applications for government Breaking a Rainbow, Building a Nation Rekgotsofetse Chikane,2018-10-01 Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation is a first hand account of the university protests that gripped South Africa between 2015 and 2017 widely better known as the FeesMustFall Chikane outlines the nature of student politics in the country before during and after the emergence of MustFall politics exploring the political dynamics that informed and drove the student protests and the effect that these MustFall movements have had on the nature of youth politics in the country Chikane looks at how the current nature of youth politics is different from previous youth upheavals that have defined South Africa specifically due to the fact that the protests were being led by so called coconuts who are part of the black elite Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation poses the provocative question can coconuts be trusted with the revolution Organisational Communication in Africa Sam Erevbenagie Usadolo, Blessing Makwambeni, Queen Emwenkeke Usadolo, 2024-11-09 This book delves comprehensively into organisational communication in Africa in the digital age alongside other organisational changes This makes it a valuable resource for scholars practitioners and students in organisational communication corporate communication public relations and development communication both within Africa and across the globe Through diverse perspectives and evidence based insights the book equips readers with the knowledge and tools needed to navigate the ever changing organisational landscape and achieve success in our rapidly evolving world Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country s developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy In Pursuit of Epistemic Healing in South African Universities Wanelisa Xaba, 2025-09-30 This book demonstrates the epistemic challenges in the South African education system and asks readers to think critically about the university s role in a decolonial future Wanelisa Xaba reveals how Western colonial educational models severed indigenous ways of knowing and learning across the Global South and settler colonial contexts Presenting narratives capturing ongoing histories of violence this book shows how Black South African students navigate intersecting identities of race class gender and spirituality within university settings It shows how racial discrimination from fellow students academics and staff coupled with discriminatory language policies financial exclusion and violent colonial curricula affects Black students wellbeing on university campuses Xaba argues that these intersecting colonial violences mirror spiritual violence hinder their holistic citizenship in South African universities and result in psycho spiritual disease By centring Black students voices this book provides crucial insights for educators policymakers activists healers and institutions committed to creating affirming academic spaces and epistemic healing It is an insightful read for scholars researching decoloniality in higher education as well as students of feminist studies decolonial
