Reading the Funnies Donald Phelps, 2001-05-01 The comic strip has been a staple of American newspapers for nearly a century It is a creation unique to cultural life and in addition to entertainment has commented on the way we see and view ourselves From its high culture influence on Pop Art to its low culture appeal to children of all ages the comic strip has had a lasting hold on the imaginations of generations Noted writer Donald Phelps provides essays on popular classics such as Chester Gould's Dick Tracy E C Segar's Thimble Theatre which produced Popeye and Frank King's Gasoline Alley His keen eye discerns the sublime qualities of this most American art form with wit and refreshing candor Reading the Funnies offers an elegant and eloquent look into this fascinating slice of American popular culture

Menus for Movieland Richard Abel, 2015-09-01 At the turn of the past century the main function of a newspaper was to offer menus by which readers could make sense of modern life and imagine how to order their daily lives Among those menus in the mid 1910s were several that mediated the interests of movie manufacturers distributors exhibitors and the rapidly expanding audience of fans This writing about the movies arguably played a crucial role in the emergence of American popular film culture negotiating among national regional and local interests to shape fans' ephemeral experience of moviegoing their repeated encounters with the fantasy worlds of movieland and their attractions to certain stories and stars Moreover many of these weekend pages daily columns and film reviews were written and consumed by women including one teenage girl who compiled a rare surviving set of scrapbooks Based on extensive original research Menus for Movieland substantially revises what moviegoing meant in the transition to what we now think of as Hollywood

America's Great Comic-strip Artists Richard Marschall, 1997 A treasury of outstanding graphics and rare and beautiful comic art this book is also a history of the art form itself as seen through the work of 16 of the finest cartoonists of the last century including Al Capp Charles M Schulz Walt Kelly and Chester Gould Marschall's fascinating text portrays the life and times of these artists demonstrating their influence on American art and society 250 illustrations many in full color

Creating Writers James Carter, 2010 This unique and comprehensive text offers an original approach to teaching creative writing by exploring ideas giving advice and explaining workshop activities and has many contributors from some of today's most popular children's authors including Jacqueline Wilson Roger McGough Philip Pullman Malorie Blackman and David Almond Creating Writers is a practical writing manual for teachers to use with upper primary and lower secondary level pupils that covers poetry fiction and non fiction

Women in STEM Education Lisbet Rønningsbakk, Karen Blackmore, 2023-12-05 We are delighted to present the inaugural Women in Education series of article collections At present less than 30% of researchers worldwide are women Long standing biases and gender stereotypes are discouraging girls and women away from science related fields and from pursuing a career in academia and in different professional environments especially when linked to STEM fields Science and gender equality are however essential to ensure sustainable development in all disciplines In order to change traditional mindsets gender equality must be promoted stereotypes defeated and girls and women should be encouraged to pursue academic careers Therefore Frontiers in Education is proud to offer this platform to promote the work of women scientists educators and professionals across all fields of STEM Education Female representation still needs to be improved in key roles in the field and the way in which an equitable education contributes to fairer and less biased academic and professional environments worldwide should be more investigated The work presented here highlights the diversity of research performed across the entire breadth of STEM Education research and presents advances in theory experiment and methodology with applications to compelling problems

The Digestive System Jason Viola, 2021 An engaging graphic novel introduction to the human gastrointestinal tract discusses the science that underlies digestion counseling students on subjects ranging from saliva and nutrient processing to illness and friendly bacteria
