Ensuring Quality in Professional Education Volume II Karen Trimmer,Tara Newman,Fernando F. Padró,2019-01-11

This book examines quality teaching in professional education in the fields of engineering and international knowledge structures The second of a two volume series the editors and contributors structure the book around case studies which highlight the elements constituting good practice within professional education While there is no one specific route to prepare well qualified professionals this volume explores the decisions the academics responsible for delivering this education make to ensure quality curricula Ultimately the key to effective preparations rests with the value employers place on the focus emphasis and balance between the academic and practical in relation to their own expectations for skills that graduates must have The second volume in this collection will appeal to students and scholars of professional pedagogy and engineering pedagogy more specifically Word Concordance of the Tanakh Or the Hebrew Bible (Hebrew Old Testament) Muhammad Wolfgang G. A. Schmidt,2017-02-24 This book lists all the words and variant word forms of the original Hebrew Aramaic Old Testament text or Tanakh Jewish Bible with their respective instances of occurrences in the entire text body of the Hebrew Old Testament It also includes references to biblical book names chapters and verses The relevant text corpus of this word concordance is based upon scholarly respected text editions like the Westminster Leningrad Codex Since text concordances of original texts in original biblical languages are hard to find this book tries to fill a part of that gap

Christian Theology and the Secular University Paul A. Macdonald, Jr.,2017-02-24 If the secular university by definition is non sectarian or non denominational then how can it accommodate a discipline like Christian theology Doesn t the traditional goal of theological study which is to attain knowledge of the divine fundamentally conflict with the main goal of secular academic study which is to attain knowledge about ourselves and the world in which we live So why should theology be admitted or even care about being admitted into secular academic life And even if theology were admitted what contribution to secular academic life could it make Working from a Christian philosophical and theological perspective but also engaging a wide range of theologians philosophers and religious studies scholars Christian Theology and the Secular University takes on these questions arguing that Christian theology does belong in the secular university because it provides distinct resources that the secular university needs if it is going to fulfill what should be its main epistemic and educative ends This book offers a fresh and unique perspective to scholars working in the disciplines of theology philosophy and religious studies and to those in other academic disciplines who are interested in thinking critically and creatively about the place and nature of theological study within the secular university Nineteenth-Century Lutheran Theologians Matthew L. Becker,Günter Frank,Ute Lotz-Heumann,Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer,Johannes Schilling,Günther Wassilowsky,Siegrid Westphal,Tarald Rasmussen,Mathijs Lamberigts,Bruce Gordon,David M. Whitford,2015-12-09 This collection of essays a companion volume to the book Twentieth Century Lutheran Theologians Vandenhoeck Ruprecht 2013 examines important nineteenth century figures from the perspective of contemporary European and North American scholars Each essay provides an overview of the life and central ideas of a key Lutheran Protestant theologian who has had a significant impact on theological reflection down to the present The focus here is on those thinkers who were active between 1799 the year when Schleiermacher's Speeches appeared and the First World War These are individuals who deserve repeated examination whose insights are still worth pondering today and whose theological positions help us to understand better where contemporary theology has come from Karl Barth All of the essays were initiated by the journal Lutheran Quarterly in order to assess our theological heritage as we move further into a new millennium The goal of the authors each a leading theologian has been to describe a given thinker's life and vocation and how that person's work continues to impact theology today

The Eusebian Canon Tables Matthew R. Crawford,2019-05-06 One of the books most central to late antique religious life was the four gospel codex containing the Gospels of Matthew Mark Luke and John A common feature in such manuscripts was a marginal cross referencing system known as the Canon Tables This reading aid was invented in the early fourth century by Eusebius of Caesarea and represented a milestone achievement both in the history of the book and in the scholarly study of the fourfold gospel In this work Matthew R Crawford provides the first book length treatment of the origins and use of the Canon Tables apparatus in any language Part one begins by defining the Canon Tables as a paratextual device that orders the textual content of the fourfold gospel It then considers the relation of the system to the prior work of Ammonius of Alexandria and the hermeneutical implications of reading a four gospel codex equipped with the marginal apparatus Part two transitions to the reception of the paratext in subsequent centuries by highlighting four case studies from different cultural and theological traditions from Augustine of Hippo who used the Canon Tables to develop the first ever theory of gospel composition to a Syriac translator in the fifth century to later monastic scholars in Ireland between the seventh and ninth centuries Finally from the eighth century onwards Armenian commentators used the artistic adornment of the Canon Tables as a basis for contemplative meditation These four case studies represent four different modes of using the Canon Tables as a paratext and illustrate the potential inherent in the Eusebian apparatus for engaging with the fourfold gospel in a variety of ways from the philological to the theological to the visual

Ways of the Word Sally A. Brown,Luke A. Powery,2016-05-19 Preaching and the discipline of preaching is at a crossroads The changing realities of church and theological education the diversity of our classrooms and our increasingly complex community contexts leave us in search of tools to help train a rising generation of preachers for a future whose contours are far from clear The questions are immense How to support preachers in contexts that are diverse religiously culturally and ethnically both inside and outside the church How to help students take varied contexts seriously as they are formed as leaders In Ways of the Word a dynamic team of master preachers brings much needed help Different in race gender age and tradition both Sally A Brown and Luke A Powery speak with one voice their belief that preaching is Spirit empowered event an embodied vocalized actively received here and now witness to the ongoing work of God in the world They aspire to help students and preachers alike to reflect on a journey of learning by doing They aim to help preachers to become more attuned to the Spirit more adept in preaching's component skills and more self aware about all that is at stake in proclaiming the redemptive work of God in specific contexts

Joel, Obadiah, Micah Daniel Epp-Tiessen,2022-08-30 Although each is quite different the books of Joel Obadiah and Micah are all survival literature All three address the community that survived the crushing Babylonian destruction of Judah in 586 BCE And all three seek to help this community cope by giving voice to its disorientation trauma anxiety and rage Each book insists that God will wrestle a positive future out of catastrophe granting both physical and spiritual renewal No matter how dire the circumstances Israel can trust in the gracious God who will never abandon the faith community In this thirty fifth volume in the Believers Church Bible Commentary series Old Testament scholar Daniel Epp Tiessen explores the diverse yet related content of these three prophetic books always paying attention to how they might speak words of grace and healing into the disorientation exile and challenges of our own time He also confronts the theologically problematic features of these books especially their conviction that the salvation of God s people requires that God obliterate their enemies This volume explores how we might read Joel Obadiah and Micah in light of the larger biblical story of God s saving purposes that reach their fulfillment in Jesus Christ

Maximus the Confessor and Evolutionary Biology Andrew P. Jackson, 2024-11-04 This book brings Maximus the Confessor s logoi doctrine into dialogue with modern day evolutionary biology It explores the extent to which the logoi as described by Maximus exhibit features that are concordant with evolution before going on to consider more discordant aspects that cannot be ignored The author addresses the curious resonance between the logoi and evolution in a systematic way through a close reading of primary textual material allied with a deep understanding of both the classical Darwinian and extended evolutionary syntheses The study joins with other Maximian interpreters in attesting to the incarnational and theophanic nature of the logoi but seeks to extend this distinctively Eastern Christo cosmology into the problematic territory of biological evolution a territory historically dominated by Western scholarship The book will be of interest to scholars of religion and science as well as Patristics and the Eastern Orthodox theological traditions
