challenges of consciousness research in light of the variations of conscious experience Christopher Gutland, Kelin Li, Marcela Venebra, Sucharit Katyal, Alexander Nicolai Wendt, 2024-02-29 An Honest Faith Keith Mascord, 2025-02-06 An Honest Faith tackles the thorny question of whether Christian faith is compatible with the questing and questioning spirit of philosophy The author argues that a mutually productive friendship between Athens philosophy science and Jerusalem theology faith is possible and in fact necessary given that various forms of the faith resist questioning and therefore end up holding onto outdated unsupported and damaging beliefs for example on matters of gender and sexuality The author draws upon his own experiences in the conservative Anglican Diocese of Sydney and his teaching career in philosophy to issue a challenge to Christians to have an honest faith and not hold back from the quest for answers which lies at the heart of religion philosophy and science The book's first half which can be characterized as an exercise in faith deconstruction lays out a number of the more serious challenges to historic or traditional Christian faith while noting its rapid demise in Australia the US the UK and throughout the Western world The book's second half recommends a careful reconstruction or reformation of the faith Boys' Love, Cosplay, and Androgynous Idols Maud Lavin, Ling Yang, Jing Jamie

Zhao, 2017-06-01 Chinese speaking popular cultures have never been so queer in this digital globalist age The title of this pioneering volume Boys Love Cosplay and Androgynous Idols Queer Fan Cultures in Mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan already gives an idea of the colorful multifaceted realms the fans inhabit today Contributors to this collection situate the proliferation of often online queer representations productions fantasies and desires as a reaction against the norms in discourses surrounding nation states linguistics geopolitics genders and sexualities Moving beyond the easy polarities between general resistance and capitulation Queer Fan Cultures explores the fans diverse strategies in negotiating with cultural strictures and media censorship It further outlines the performance of subjectivity identity and agency that cyberspace offers to female fans Presenting a wide array of concrete case studies of queer fandoms in Chinese speaking contexts the essays in this volume challenge long established Western centric and Japanese focused fan scholarship by highlighting the significance and specificities of Sinophone queer fan cultures and practices in a globalized world The geographic organization of the chapters illuminates cultural differences and the other competing forces shaping geocultural intersections among fandoms based in Mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan This important collection complicates our understanding of fan practices showing how national and regional factors play an important role in how media texts and identities are understood It also shows how the Chinese speaking world is home to dense and often conflicting modes of audience reception of cultural texts deriving from Sinophone Japanese and Western contexts Mark McLelland University of Wollongong An exciting anthology by a talented group of emergent scholars whose vibrant studies offer fresh insights on the diverse practices and transregional flows of queer fandom in the Chinese speaking world Local in its specificity and transnational in its scope this book highlights the creativity of queer fan practices while critically locating them within the political and social structures that produce them Helen Hok Sze Leung Simon Fraser University

Drunk in China Derek Sandhaus, 2019-11-01 2020 Gourmand Award in Spirits Gold Medal winner in the Independent Book Publishers Awards China is one of the world's leading producers and consumers of liquor with alcohol infusing all aspects of its culture from religion and literature to business and warfare Yet to the outside world China's most famous spirit baijiu remains a mystery This is about to change as baijiu is now being served in cocktail bars beyond its borders Drunk in China follows Derek Sandhaus's journey of discovery into the world's oldest drinking culture He travels throughout the country and around the globe to meet with distillers brewers snake oil salesmen archaeologists and ordinary drinkers He examines the many ways in which alcohol has shaped Chinese society and its rituals He visits production floors karaoke parlors hotpot joints and speakeasies Along the way he uncovers a tradition spanning more than nine thousand years and explores how recent economic and political developments have conspired to push Chinese alcohol beyond the nation's borders for the first time As Chinese society becomes increasingly international its drinking culture must also adapt to the times Can the West also adapt and clink glasses with China Read Drunk in China and find out
