DIVINITY NOTES FOR TANZANIAN HIGH SCHOOLS

BY BRO. RIKARDO MARIA, UNWA (2015 EDITION)

ATTENTION, PLEASE! YOU HAVE BEEN SENT A "BIBLE BANGER"...

You may say: "I am too tired".
But the Lord says: "I will give you rest" (Mt 11:28).

You may say: "I cannot go on".
But the Lord says: "My grace is enough for you" (1Cor 12:9).

You may say: "I cannot figure things out".
But the Lord says: "I am the way" (Jn 14:6).

You may say: "I am not able".
But the Lord says: "God is perfectly able to enrich you with every grace, so that you always have enough for every conceivable need" (1Cor. 9:8).

You may say: "I cannot manage".
But the Lord says: "Give, and there will be gifts for you" (Phil 4:19).

You may say: "I am not smart enough".
But the Lord says: "You exist in Christ Jesus, who for us was made wisdom from God" (1Cor. 1:30).

You may say: "I am afraid".
But the Lord says: "Every hair on your head has been counted. So there is no need to be afraid" (Mt 10:30-31).

You may say: "I am always frustrated".
But the Lord says: "Don't worry about tomorrow" (Mt 6:34).

You may say: "I cannot forgive myself".
But the Lord says: "My child, your sins are forgiven" (Mk 3:3).

You may say: "I feel all alone".
But the Lord says: "I shall not fail you or desert you" (Heb 13:5).

You may say: "Nobody really loves me".
But the Lord says: "You must love one another just as I have loved you" (Jn 13:34).

You may say: "It is impossible".
But the Lord says: "Things that are impossible by human resources are possible for God" (Lk 18:27).

Divinity Notes Apostolic Age Zimsec:

The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes, Toyin Falola, 2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world's most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa

Prophets, Profits and the Bible in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Masiwa Ragies Gunda, Joachim Kögler, 2014-04-17

Religion-Regime Relations in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram Tarusarira, 2023-08-01 This book explores religion regime relations in contemporary Zimbabwe to identify patterns of co operation and resistance across diverse religious institutions Using co operation and resistance as an analytical framework the book shows how different religious organisations have interacted with Emmerson Mnangagwa's Second Republic following Robert Mugabe's departure from the political scene. In particular through case studies on the Zimbabwe Council of Churches, Zimbabwe Catholic Bishops Conference and Pentecostals, African Traditional Religions, Islam and others, the book explores how different religious institutions have responded to Mnangagwa's new regime. Chapters highlight the complexities characterising the religion regime interface, showing how the same religious organisation might co-operate and resist at the same time. Furthermore, the book compares how religious institutions co-operated or resisted Mugabe's earlier regime to identify patterns of continuity and change. Overall, the book highlights the challenges of deploying simplistic frames in efforts to understand the interface between politics and religion. A significant contribution to global scholarship on religion regime interfaces, this book will appeal to academics and students in the field of Religious Studies, Political Science, History and African Studies.

Religion and COVID-19 Vaccination in Zimbabwe Tenson Muyambo, Fortune Sibanda, Ezra Chitando, 2023-10-17 This book analyses the role of religion during the COVID-19 pandemic and vaccination rollout in Zimbabwe. Zimbabwe was listed by the World Health Organization (WHO) as one of thirteen African countries to have fully vaccinated more than 10% of its population against COVID-19 by the end of September 2021, but the country fell far short of the government's own target for achieving 60% inoculation by December 2020. This book analyses whether religion played a role in explaining why the government's pro-vaccine stance did not translate into high vaccination rates. Drawing upon various religions, including African indigenous religions, Christianity and Islam, the book considers how faith actors demonstrated vaccine acceptance, resistance or hesitancy. Zimbabwe offers a particularly interesting and varied case for analysis, and the original research on display here will be an important contribution to wider debates on religion and COVID-19. This book will be useful to academics, researchers and students studying religious studies, sociology, health and well-being, religion and development.

Regime, Religion and the Consolidation of Zanu-PFism in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, 2023-12-14 This collection focuses on the role of religious leaders and religious institutions in supporting or resisting the democratization process in Zimbabwe. It scrutinizes the actions of religious leaders such as Andrew Wutawunashe and Jeremiah Mutendi, who were prominent in the political scene and participated as enablers of the undemocratic regime. The contributors to this volume employ a variety of methodological approaches to understand the operational dilemma of the second republic under Emmerson Dambudzo Mnangagwa, commonly referred to as Zanu-PFism. It is an empirical study to determine the impact of religious leaders as regime enablers and assess the effects of such an approach in terms of social development, democracy and social transformation as espoused in the rise of the second republic. In order to balance the narrative, the book highlights and offers critique of religious leaders and institutes who are the resisters of the regime. It specifically explores the Zimbabwe Catholic Bishops Conference, Evangelical Fellowship of Zimbabwe, Zimbabwe Council of Churches, Talent Chiwenga and Shingi Munyeza. This is a critical study of decoloniality in a religious context that documents characters such as Shingi Mayeza, Bishop Mutendi Mapostori, who seldomly appear in scholarship despite their great impact, either positive or negative, on the lives of the people of Zimbabwe.

Decolonising Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) in an Age of Technocolonialism Nhemachena, Artwell, Hlabangane, Nokuthula, Matowanyika, Joseph Z. Z., 2020-03-02

Positing the notions of coloniality of ignorance and geopolitics of ignorance as central to coloniality and colonisation this book examines how colonialists socially produced ignorance among colonised indigenous peoples so as to render them docile and manageable. Dismissing colonial descriptions of indigenous people as savages, illiterate, irrational, prelogical, mystical, primitive, barbaric and backward, the book argues that imperialists/colonialists contrived geopolitics of ignorance wherein indigenous regions were forced to become ignorant, hence containable and manageable in the imperial world. Questioning the provenance of modernist epistemologies, the book asks why Eurocentric scholars only contest the provenance of indigenous knowledges, artefacts and scientific collections. Interrogating why empire sponsors the decolonisation of universities' epistemologies in indigenous territories while resisting the repatriation/restitution of indigenous artefacts, the book also wonders why Westerners who still retain indigenous artefacts (skulls and skeletons) in their museums, universities and private collections do not consider such artefacts and skulls to be colonising them as well. The book is valuable to scholars and activists in the fields of anthropology, museums and heritage studies, science and technology studies, decoloniality, policymaking, education, politics, sociology and development studies.

Women, Religion and Leadership in Zimbabwe, Volume 2 Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, 2023-04-12

Zimbabwe has invested in women's emancipation and leadership while articulating a strong Pan-Africanist ideology, providing a valuable entry point into understanding the dynamics relating to women's leadership in Africa. It is also characterised by radical religious pluralism, thereby facilitating an appreciation of the impact of religion on women's leadership in Africa more generally. This volume reflects on the role of Zimbabwean women in religious/cultural leadership with a specific focus on roles within religious organizations. It begins by examining Zimbabwean church women's leadership roles in long-established faith communities. The chapters then hone in on the emergence of churches or ministries founded by women in Zimbabwe, starting from the pre-colonial era and advancing through the last forty years of independence. Hence, the book offers a comprehensive assessment of the challenges and opportunities women in leadership face in religious institutions in the country, before exploring the impact of the pandemic on the ability of women to lead. It will make a major contribution to the advancement of scholarship on gender and leadership in emerging markets.

Popular Politics in the History of South Africa, 1400-1948 Paul S. Landau, 2010-09-20

Popular Politics in the History of South Africa, 1400-1948 offers an inclusive vision of South Africa's past. Drawing largely from original sources, Paul Landau presents a history of the politics of the country's people from the time of their early settlements in the elevated heartlands through the colonial era to the dawn of Apartheid. A practical tradition of mobilization, alliance and amalgamation persisted, mutated and occasionally vanished from view; it survived against the odds in several forms: in tribalisms, Christian assemblies and other seemingly hybrid movements, and it continues today. Landau treats southern Africa broadly, concentrating increasingly on the southern

Highveld and ultimately focusing on a transnational movement called the Samuelites He shows how people's politics in South Africa were suppressed and transformed but never entirely eliminated

History of African Independent Churches in Southern Africa 1892-1992 Denis Basil M'Passou, 1994

The Art of Mbira Paul F. Berliner, 2019-12-24 Growing out of the collaborative research of an American ethnomusicologist and Zimbabwean musician Paul F. Berliner's The Art of Mbira documents the repertory for a keyboard instrument known generally as mbira At the heart of this work lies the analysis of the improvisatory processes that propel mbira music's magnificent creativity In this book Berliner provides insight into the communities of study performance and worship that surround mbira He chronicles how master player Cosmas Magaya and his associates have developed their repertory and practices over more than four decades shaped by musical interaction social and political dynamics in Zimbabwe and the global economy of the music industry At once a detailed exposition of the music's forms and practices it is also an indispensable historical and cultural guide to mbira in a changing world Together with Berliner and Magaya's compendium of mbira compositions Mbira's Restless Dance The Art of Mbira breaks new ground in the depth and specificity of its exploration of an African musical tradition and in the entwining of the authors' collaborative voices It is a testament to the powerful relationship between music and social life and the rewards of lifelong musical study performance and friendship

The Prosperity Gospel in Africa Marius Nel, 2020-06-15 Africans' prevailing interest in the prosperity gospel is not only connected to the influence of American prosperity teachers reaching a worldwide audience through their imaginative use of the media but is also related to the African worldview and African traditional religion and its lasting influence on contemporary Africans and the way they think about prosperity as well as their interest in prosperity in post-colonial Africa The research from a classical Pentecostal perspective about the impact of the prosperity message on Africa is necessary timely and relevant because of its influence in the African Pentecostal movement and its potential to harm the faith of believers leading to the potential disillusionment of Christian believers who put their trust and money in formulas and recipes that seemingly only work for others especially the prosperity leaders who lead by example with incredulous riches and wealth

Multiple Secularities Beyond the West Marian Burchardt, Monika Wohlrab-Sahr, Matthias Middell, 2015-02-17 Questions of secularity and modernity have become globalized but most studies still focus on the West This volume breaks new ground by comparatively exploring developments in five areas of the world some of which were hitherto situated at the margins of international scholarly discussions Africa the Arab World East Asia South Asia and Central and Eastern Europe In theoretical terms the book examines three key dimensions of modern secularity historical pathways cultural meanings and global entanglements of secular formations The contributions show how differences in these dimensions are linked to specific histories of religious and ethnic diversity processes of state formation and nation building They also reveal how secularities are critically shaped through civilizational encounters processes of globalization colonial conquest and missionary movements and how entanglements between different territorially grounded notions of secularity or between local cultures and transnational secular arenas unfold over time
