Los Ochos Locos: Past Participles

2 dice. The sum of the dice determines which square you can fill in. You need to write the past participle of the verb in the box. Each player needs to write with a different color. If you can't answer anything, you lose your turn. If you rolled within 30 seconds, or there are no boxes available with the number you rolled, you lose your turn. If you roll an 8, you can choose any square to fill in. When all squares are filled, check your answers with the key and the player with the most number of correct answers wins!
