Discourse, Conversation and Argumentation: Theoretical Perspectives and Innovative Empirical Studies, volume III Antonio Bova, Carlo Galimberti, Francesco Arcidiacono, Lise Haddouk, 2024-10-30 This Research Topic is the third volume of Research Topic Discourse Conversation and Argumentation Theoretical Perspectives and Innovative Empirical Studies Please see the second volume here Also please see the first volume here As members of a social world within which interaction needs and communicative tools are intertwined in a series of situated relationships interactions between individuals but also between groups and between institutions emerges from the beginning of life Thinking about how we participate in an interaction through verbal and non verbal exchanges allows us to focus on explicit and implicit norms on personal and collective preferences on subjective and interpersonal theories and on social processes of construction of meaning that characterize the communicative interactions Although discursive conversational and argumentative interactions play an essential role in our lives there is no integrated area of psychological research on these types of communicative interactions A wide variety of works is available concerning the focus on the different roles played by social actors within the interactions symmetric asymmetric protagonist antagonist teacher learner as well as the interest for the constitutive aspects of the interactions emotional motivational cognitive or developmental factors skills competences knowledge However research on discourse conversation and argumentation is conducted in a number of separate research communities that are spread across disciplines and have only limited intertwinement We believe as necessary to create a space for open dialogue within the community of researchers interested in discourse conversation and argumentation from a psychological perspective

Blessed Are Those Who Mourn Eros Shaw, Mark Larrimore and Michael Clifton, 2022-11-24 Eros opens up how the Good News of Jesus Christ contains amongst its many many implications the possibility of openness and truth telling about love between people of the same sex These are part of the one same communication of grace and mercy coming towards us from God The friends and colleagues who Eros has brought together here show us something of what it looks like to have found yourself forced by love to stand your ground and how the wolf deflates when it is faced with such faith James Alison Theologian priest and author In this book another revolution is underway in gay Christians Describing faith in the light of their sinful sexuality is part of the transformative revolution of the gospel itself As you read this book I hope you will see what I mean by hearing what these writers say Regardless of your own sexual preference if your faith is not deepened by seeing how their faith became more authentic as a result of their existential and social ordeals please read them again Laurence Freeman OSB Director World Community for Christian Meditation In this book you will find stories which reflect the great variety of gay Catholics experiences stories of hurt but also of healing stories of hiding but also of courage to speak the truth stories of conflict between personal experience and official teaching and attempts to bridge that gap I pray that this book will have a wide readership and that all who read it will grow in courage to speak their own truth and to help the Church develop its ministry in this important area Mgr Keith Barltrop Diocese of Westminster chaplain to LGBT people This is a profoundly important book which gives voice to Chinese LGBTQI Catholics living inside and outside of China These testimonies are hugely insightful into the heartfelt desires and hopes and anguishes of Chinese men and women The struggle of coming out of the closet to live an open and authentic life as a gay person is an ongoing battle Their stories which we can all identify with to some degree makes for compulsive reading I cannot recommend this work by Eros highly enough Ruby Almeida Co chair Global Network of Rainbow Catholics The stories in this book may challenge people to look at themselves and their faith in new ways While that may be difficult it is a good thing and should be looked on as a gift from God It is through these sharing of stories that our Church and our faith develop May these stories help to bring light to our Church and to our world Francis DeBernardo Executive director New Ways Ministry The Emerging Christian Minority Victor Lee Austin, Joel C. Daniels, 2019-02-07 An increase in secularization throughout the Western world has resulted in Christian communities finding themselves in a new context emerging as a minority group What does this changing landscape mean for existing Christian communities Are there biblical or historical precedents for this situation What should we expect in the future These were the issues taken up by the speakers at the 2016 conference The Emerging Christian Minority sponsored by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Contributors David Novak William T Cavanaugh Paige Hochschild David Novak Kathryn Schifferdecker Anton Vrame Joseph Small From Word to Book Nancy R. Heisey, 2024-03-27 From Word to Book addresses questions that the author's students frequently raised about how the Bible was inspired written and passed down through the millennia From the first storytellers to contemporary researchers working with digital technologies the Bible's story reveals fascinating interactions between the divine and the human The book's chapters offer insights both for those who find the Bible central in their life of faith and for those who are skeptical about its claims or even wonder why the Bible matters Brief illustrative texts from readers and scholars ranging across generations and geography enhance understandings about how the Bible as we know it was shaped Beautiful Feet Sadiri Joy Tira, 2024-06-06 Beautiful Feet Following Christian Missionary Footsteps by Dr Sadiri Joy Tira allows you to dive deep into a compelling philosophy of global missions using engaging missionary stories to guide you to a greater understanding of how impactful missions work can be when done well The Oxford Handbook of Dionysius the Areopagite Mark Edwards, Dimitrios Pallis, Georgios Steiris, 2022 This handbook brings together forty chapters on the antecedents the content and the reception of the Dionysian corpus a body of writings falsely ascribed to Dionysius the Areopagite a convert of St Paul but actually written in around 500 A D Giving One's Word Michael Joseph Higgins, 2025 St Thomas Aquinas is rarely invoked as a patron of such a social approach to the Trinity Aquinas's Trinitarian theology after all revolves around the immanent processions of a Word and Love within the unity of the divine essence Many have assumed that this psychological analogy is removed from or even incompatible with interpersonal knowledge love and self giving Some have concluded that

Aquinas is therefore unable to accommodate a social Trinity Others have argued that he is open to a social Trinity but that his psychological categories need to be complemented by a more overtly social framework This study however shows that these psychological categories themselves are shot through with interpersonal knowledge love and self giving Provided by publisher

A Prophet Mighty in Deed and Word Jeff S. Kennedy, 2024-08-06 Did Jesus the revolutionary figure who changed the world struggle to read a scroll A growing number of scholars think so Luke's account of Jesus reading in the synagogue Luke 4 16 30 is routinely challenged today in academia The claim is that Luke either fabricated the account outright or relied upon a mistaken social memory of Jesus reading in the synagogue Accordingly Jesus has been recast as an illiterate peasant or semi literate artisan unable to read and teach the way Luke portrays In A Prophet Mighty in Deed and Word Jeff Kennedy offers a fresh perspective He contends that Luke's reading Jesus wasn't an attempt to appeal to the cultured sensibilities of his Greek audience who preferred literate philosophers over illiterate carpenters Instead it reflects Jesus self understanding as Israel's prophet sage anointed to read and proclaim the year of Yahweh's favor Jesus announces a shocking and provocative message for unbelieving Israel and he does so with a singular authority This incident sparks escalating tensions between Jesus and his countrymen resulting in Christ's glorification through suffering And Luke tells us that suffering began in Jesus hometown of Nazareth

The Work of Christ John S. Hammett, Charles L. Quarles, 2024-09-01 In The Work of Christ John S Hammett and Charles L Quarles examine Christ's service for his people especially his atoning work on the cross

Going to School in Oceania Craig Campbell, Geoffrey Sherington, 2007-10-30 The history and current practices for school systems in the countries of the Oceanic region depend on the economic political and cultural circumstances of their countries Divided into four chronological sections pre nineteenth century nineteenth century twentieth century and present times each chapter traces the factors that have impacted educational philosophy and goals for each country Identifying available options for students of all economic backgrounds each chapter also includes a Day in the Life feature that shares with readers what a typical student in that country will experience at their school Australia Fiji New Zealand Papua New Guinea Samoa

Living in the Family of Jesus William Longgar, 2016 With its myriad people groups Melanesia has much to teach the rest of the world about what happens when Christ encounters local culture This collection begins with a look at specific case studies of the Gospel's encounter with local culture in Melanesia itself before turning to broader themes particularly raised by the Melanesian context Case studies from Asia and the wider Pacific then throw further light on the incarnational process of encounter demonstrating that there is much for the rest of the world to learn from the Melanesian experience The book concludes with some penetrating analyses of the dynamics at work when the Gospel encounters human cultures for the first time The process of critical contextualization of the Gospel is never complete and is inevitably the product of conversation and experimentation As such it is a communal process This set of essays models one such conversation while at the same time enabling the rest of the church to listen in on important insights

Tenacious

Solidarity Walter Brueggemann, 2018-11-01 Tenacious Solidarity features essays and new writings from 2014 to 2018 As all of Walter Brueggemann's writing is the chapters are deeply biblical while also concerned with the identities practices and obligations of religious communities in contemporary contexts within the United States Brueggemann consistently attempts to weave the biblical texts vested as they are with the authority of a storyteller into the deep contours of his readers experiences in order to foster a tenacious solidarity that might overcome both the psychic numbness cultivated by a 24 hour news cycle as well as the anxious possessiveness nurtured by so many privatized spiritualities Brueggemann brings the transformative potential of the biblical texts to bear on critical contemporary contexts including but not limited to economic disparities racial injustice and white supremacy climate and care for creation and the power of memory and mentoring He delves deeply in the Psalms which he says provides a foundational script for living into the fullest and deepest realities of human existence And he draws from the Prophets his foundational concept of totalism which he defines as automated fragmentation of social life such that we habitually and callously disregard our relations with others The Spirit of Matter Peter Pels, 2023-07-14 A range of meaningful objects exhibits of human remains or live people fetishes objects in a Catholic Museum exotic photographs commodities and computers demonstrate a subordinate modern consciousness about powerful objects and their life The Spirit of Matter discusses these objects that move people emotionally but whose existence is often denied by modern wishful thinking of mind over matter It traces this mindset back to Protestant Christian influences that were secularized in the course of modern and colonial history Exegetical Crossroads Georges Tamer, Regina Grundmann, Assaad Elias Kattan, Karl Pinggéra, 2017-12-18 The art of interpreting Holy Scriptures flourished throughout the culturally heterogeneous pre modern Orient among Jews Christians and Muslims Different ways of interpretation developed within each religion not without considering the others How were the interactions and how productive were they for the further development of these traditions Have there been blurred spaces of scholarly activity that transcended sectarian borders What was the role played by mutual influences in profiling the own tradition against the others These and other related questions are critically treated in the present volume A Doctor's Quest Gretchen Roedde, 2019-02-16 A doctor grapples with the challenges of mother and child health in the developing world Recounting medical missions in one third of the forty five countries in which she has worked for the past thirty years in Africa Asia and the Caribbean and the South Pacific Dr Gretchen Roedde shares the grim reality of world politics and bureaucratic red tape on the front lines as a doctor in mother and child health and HIV AIDS This second edition updates the progress in reproductive maternal newborn child and adolescent health RMNCAH with additional studies in Afghanistan Laos South Sudan and Nigeria It tells the stories of the hopes of village women struggling to give birth safely of their often corrupt leaders and of countries trying to bring evil despots to justice Roedde analyzes the encouraging momentum in global maternal health while maintaining a focus on equity disparities within and between countries Re-Imagining Short-Term Missions Forrest Inslee, Angel Burns, 2022-03-10 This book is for those who suspect that current practices of short term missions are in need of serious reform It is a book for those who recognize that in this decade of global upheaval and in light of the cultural political and demographic shifts affecting churches everywhere now is the time for change The essays here are intended to equip and inspire any who want to advocate for change but may not yet know what change looks like This book offers honest perspectives from people who care about the purposes of short term missions STM yet know that we must figure out better ways of achieving them Nearly all contributors are actively engaged in STM and many write from the perspective of those who host STM teams in places all over the world This book is a platform for visionaries who are calling for better ways for the church to engage the needs of the world In sharing their experiences they hope to promote critical rethinking and creative reimagination about the ways that the global church might learn to collaborate on a new basis of coequality and mutual respect for the good of the world and the glory of God

Ancient Prophecy Martti Nissinen,2017 Ancient Prophecy Near Eastern Biblical and Greek Perspectives is the first monograph length comparative study on prophetic divination in ancient Near Eastern biblical and Greek sources Prophecy is one of the ways humans have believed to become conversant with what is believed to be superhuman knowledge The prophetic process of communication involves the prophet her his audience and the deity from whom the message allegedly comes from Martti Nissinen introduces a wealth of ancient sources documenting the prophetic phenomenon around the ancient Eastern Mediterranean whether cuneiform tablets from Mesopotamia the Hebrew Bible Greek inscriptions or ancient historians Nissinen provides an up to date presentation of textual sources the number of which has increased substantially in recent times In addition the study includes four analytical comparative chapters The first demonstrates the altered state of consciousness to be one of the central characteristics of the prophets public behavior The second discusses the prophets affiliation with temples which are the typical venues of the prophetic performance The third delves into the relationship between prophets and kings which can be both critical and supportive The fourth shows gender inclusiveness to be one of the peculiar features of the prophetic agency which could be executed by women men and genderless persons as well The ways prophetic divination manifests itself in ancient sources depend not only on the socio religious position of the prophets in a given society but also on the genre and purpose of the sources Nissinen contends that even though the view of the ancient prophetic landscape is restricted by the fragmentary and secondary nature of the sources it is possible to reconstruct essential features of prophetic divination at the socio religious roots of the Western civilization Filipino

Religious Psychology Leonardo N. Mercado,1977 Thinking Through Revelation Robert J. Dobie,2019-01-09

Navigating the seemingly competing claims of human reason and divine revelation to truth is without a doubt one of the central problems of medieval philosophy Medieval thinkers argued a whole gamut of positions on the proper relation of religious faith to human reason Thinking Through Revelation attempts to ask deeper questions what possibilities for philosophical thought did divine revelation open up for medieval thinkers How did the contents of the sacred scriptures of Judaism Christianity and Islam put into question established philosophical assumptions But most fundamentally how did not merely the content of the sacred books but the very mode in which revelation itself is understood to come to us as a book sent down from on high as a covenant between God and his people or as incarnate person create or foreclose possibilities for the resolution of the philosophical problems that the Abrahamic revelations themselves raised
