Distance Learning Technology, Current Instruction, and the Future of Education: Applications of Today, Practices of Tomorrow Song, Holim, 2009-12-31 Distance Learning Technology Current Instruction and the Future of Education Applications of Today Practices of Tomorrow provides present and prospective directions of online education from various research fields reporting on discussions from students faculty members researchers and practitioners E-Learning and Islamic Studies: Proceedings of the 2014 Conference Organised by The Islamic College and Middlesex University Mehdi Aminrazavi, Isa Jahangir, Shayan Doroudi, Ali Paya, Nehad Khanfar, Mahboubeh F. Sadeghinia, Fatema Kermalli Walji, Mohammad Mesbahi, Islam Uddin, Zahir Walji, Morteza Rezaei-Zadeh, 2017-01-01 Prophet Muhammad writes Mehdi Aminrazavi in his introduction to this volume was one of the first students of distance learning He learned about revelation from God through the medium of Gabriel Drawing a symbolic correlation between the Prophet and twenty first century students participating in a new age of enlightenment offered by Internet technology Aminrazavi and the contributors to this book explore the pearls and perils of introducing new technologies into Islamic Studies Originally presented at the International Conference on Islamic Studies and E Learning organised by The Islamic College and Middlesex University in London in 2014 the essays within E Learning and Islamic Studies explore the interrelationship between Islamic Studies and e learning from three different perspectives the emerging issues presented by this new frontier how technology can be used effectively within Islamic e learning and the importance of pedagogy and procedures in Islamic e course delivery While distance and e learning can pose immense challenges the contributions to this important and timely collection show that although dissemination of knowledge can bring with it contention dissension and conflict Islamic embracing of the internet and mass communication is to the contrary a fulfillment of the Prophetic command to acquire knowledge from the cradle to the grave The Palgrave Handbook of Crisis Leadership in Higher Education Jürgen Rudolph, Joseph Crawford, Choon-Yin Sam, Shannon Tan, 2024-06-04 This handbook provides a frame of reference for the global challenges facing higher education leadership today Focusing on recommendations and directions for the future rather than simply a recap of measures taken during the COVID 19 pandemic the contributors also delve into contexts such as the climate crisis issues of diversity equity and inclusion digitalisation funding and marketisation the war in Ukraine and China Taiwan and Hong Kong tensions They collate a systematic global view of higher education systems during the pandemic and beyond and explore possibilities for the future providing recommendations for the new normal With contributions from across six continents the book will be of interest to students and scholars of higher education and governance university leaders government and accreditation bodies and anyone else interested in reflecting on the past few years in higher education and the road ahead Achieving Sustainable E-Government in Pacific Island States Rowena Cullen, Graham Hassall, 2017-02-17 This book analyzes the common set of obstacles to the development and integration of government

Information and Communication Technology ICT projects and effective e government initiatives in developing countries It draws on the expertise and experience of more developed states in the Pacific notably Australia and New Zealand both highly rated in global rankings for e government and active in a variety of e government development projects across the region There has been a general failure to identify priorities and align projects with local needs in ICT e government projects Small Island Developing States or SIDS present a unique problem in terms of e government Not only do they suffer from a common set of barriers to ICT development such as their remoteness geographical dispersion moist tropical climates largely rural populations and lack of ICT capacity and infrastructure but are also dependent on external agencies for investment and must negotiate with powerful donors who have conflicting agendas E government is widely regarded as transformational increasing efficiency productivity accountability economic growth and citizen involvement But while the governments of SIDS are committed to harnessing ICTs for effective government and economic development they face major challenges in establishing successful e government initiatives due to the problems outlined above coupled with a lack of HR capacities and appropriate strategies and policies Drawing on the experience of the states mentioned above as well as regional quasi governmental bodies nongovernmental organizations NGOs aid agencies and the private sector the book will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of e government public administration political science communication information science and social media

Corporate and Foundation Grants, 1992 Education in Languages of Lesser Power Craig Alan Volker, Fred E. Anderson, 2015-02-15 The cultural diversity of the Asia Pacific region is reflected in a multitude of linguistic ecologies of languages of lesser power i e of indigenous and immigrant languages whose speakers lack collective linguistic power especially in education This volume looks at a representative sampling of such communities Some receive strong government support while others receive none For some indigenous languages the same government schools that once tried to stamp out indigenous languages are now the vehicles of language revival As the various chapters in this book show some parents strongly support the use of languages other than the national language in education while others are actively against it and perhaps a majority have ambivalent feelings The overall meta theme that emerges from the collection is the need to view the teaching and learning of these languages in relation to the different needs of the speakers within a sociolinguistics of mobility
