A Horrible Experience of Unbearable Length Roger Ebert, 2022-05-24 More of the Pulitzer Prize winning film critic's most scathing reviews A Horrible Experience of Unbearable Length collects more than 200 of his reviews from 2006 to 2012 in which he gave movies two stars or fewer Known for his fair minded and well written film reviews Roger is at his razor sharp humorous best when skewering bad movies Consider this opener for the one star Your Highness Your Highness is a juvenile excrescence that feels like the work of 11 year old boys in love with dungeons dragons warrior women pot boobs and four letter words That this is the work of David Gordon Green beggars the imagination One of its heroes wears the penis of a minotaur on a string around his neck I hate it when that happens And finally the inspiration for the title of this book the one star Transformers Revenge of the Fallen Transformers Revenge of the Fallen is a horrible experience of unbearable length briefly punctuated by three or four amusing moments One of these involves a doglike robot humping the leg of the heroine If you want to save yourself the ticket price go into the kitchen cue up a male choir singing the music of hell and get a kid to start banging pots and pans together Then close your eyes and use your imagination

Roger Ebert's I Hated Hated Hated This Movie and Your Movie Sucks which gathered some of his most scathing reviews were bestsellers This collection continues the tradition reviewing not only movies that were at the bottom of the barrel but also movies that he found underneath the barrel Movie buffs and humor lovers alike will relish this treasury of movies so bad that you may just want to see them for a good laugh Career Construction Theory and Life Writing Hywel Dix, 2021-05-13 This volume applies the insight and methods of career construction theory to explore how autobiographical writing is used in different professional careers from fiction and journalism to education and medicine It draws attention to the fact that a career is a particular kind of artefact with distinctive properties and features that can be analysed and compared and puts forward a new theory of the relationship between narrative methodology and the vocation of writing Career construction theory emerged in the late twentieth century when changes to the patterns of our working lives caused large numbers of people to seek new forms of vocational guidance to navigate those changes It employs a narrative paradigm in which periods of uncertainty are treated as experiences akin to writer's block experiences which can be overcome first by imagining new character arcs then by narrating them and finally by performing them By encouraging clients to see their careers as stories of which they are both the metaphorical authors and the main protagonists career construction counsellors enable them to envisage the next chapter in those stories But despite the authorial metaphor career construction theory has not been widely applied to analysis of professional careers in writing The chapters in this volume remedy that gap and in various ways apply the insights of career construction theory to analyse the relationship between writing and professional life in diverse careers where writing is used The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Life Writing From Box Office to Ballot Box M. Keith Booker, 2007-02-28 Given the complexity and expense of making and distributing a film the process of filmmaking is by its very nature a political process Moreover given the power and persuasiveness of the cinema as a medium film can be a powerful political tool It should thus come as no surprise that film has had a long and extensive engagement with a variety of political topics ranging from the actual mechanics of governance to electoral politics to any number of specific political issues Through a film by film examination of the movies explicitly concerned with American politics and American political issues From Box Office to Ballot Box provides valuable new insights into our culture's perceptions of various political environments and serves as a witness to the cinema's own complex contribution to the media's coverage of and relationship to American politics at large From Box Office to Ballot Box takes as its subject films exploring the electoral process the process of governing and the involvement of the media in both Separate chapters also deal with films related to specific political issues or phenomena that are particularly relevant to the above three categories including labor and class the Cold War the Vietnam War and the other recent conflicts in which the media has played such a large role Specific films discussed include Citizen Kane All the King's Men The Manchurian Candidate All the Presidents Men The Front M A S H JFK Nixon Wag the Dog Three Kings Black Hawk Down The Quiet American The Contender and many more
