Rwanda Investment and Business Guide Volume 1 Strategic and Practical Information IBP USA, 2013-08 Rwanda Investment and Business Guide Strategic and Practical Information

A Citizen's Guide to American Foreign Policy David Patrick Houghton, 2013-11-20 American foreign policy often looks like a trail of man made debris and disaster Of course the explanations for many poorly made decisions are rather complex In this brief and cogent analysis Houghton shows us that understanding American foreign policy often comes down to recognizing the cognitive limitations of the decision makers which affects the foreign policy process Then there is the nature of the decisions themselves Quite a few decisions in American foreign policy involve tragic choices where leaders are effectively confronted with a series of progressively bad or uncomfortable options And it is equally clear that some policies are not the product of any one individual's preferences but emerge as a consequence of the way in which complex modern governments with large bureaucracies operate Written with the interested layperson in mind as well as students of international affairs this Citizen's Guide to American Foreign Policy asks questions like Why do presidents so often do things which seem to be directly against the national interests of the United States not just in retrospect but even at the time Why do there seem to be so many fiascoes in US foreign policy Why does Congress sometimes tie the hands of the president in foreign affairs Why do presidents seem to respond more to opinion polls or to what's on CNN and Fox News than they do to the core interests of the United States Houghton's overview helps us see past the partisan in fighting that too often obscures the central issues in foreign affairs This is vital required reading for all readers who wish to better understand America's involvement in the world

analyzes representations of mass violence in film and fiction about African South American and Asian genocides from the points of view of the bystander and the survivor It argues that in commercial film and fiction metaphors and looks represent the violence and trauma indirectly even when the representation is quite graphic whereas in experimental novels and films looks used to describe the violence are individualized or interactive Both Bapsi Sidhwa's novel Cracking India and Deepa Mehta's film Earth deal with the violence of the partition of India in 1947 While Cracking India educates us about the dangers of the beast the violence Earth shows us the impact the beast has on victims like the beautiful Ayah nanny Similarly both Buchi Emecheta's novel Destination Biafra and Charles Enonchong's videos The Nigerian Biafran War Parts I II III depict the Nigerian Civil War of 1966-69 Yet while Emecheta's metaphors of division and bestiality highlight the selfishness of politicians and the suffering of civilians like Debbie looks exchanged by the survivors and the military in Enonchong's videos highlight the tragic ways in which generals like Ojukwu betrayed and were betrayed Metaphors and looks in Isabel Allende's novel The House of the Spirits and Bille August's movie which is based on it depict the terror of Pinochet's 1973-89 dictatorship in Chile Allende and August use metaphors and looks of sight and blindness to describe torture survivor Alba Blanca's trauma Alba Blanca re-tells the events of the past in order to survive Photo journalist Alfredo Jaar's photos and notes Let There Be Light and Terry George's feature film Hotel Rwanda both depict the Rwandan genocide of 1994 but their emphasis is on inability of the Western bystander/reader to hear or see the pain of the survivors Accordingly Jaar and George choose dark metaphors and looks to represent the violence using diffuse lighting fades and absences to stand for the violence and trauma Overall representations of genocide that involve individualized metaphors and interactive looks are vitally important if the complexities of that violence are to be appreciated in the West Teaching Africa Brandon D.
