The Road to Democracy in South Africa South African Democracy Education Trust, 2024-12-02 In South Africa the decade of 1980 1990 not only saw the mobilisation of the popular masses but also the marked escalation of the armed struggle inside the country initiated and waged by the African National Congress ANC The liberation movement headed by the ANC led Congress Alliance took major strides which finally broke the backbone of white supremacist rule This book examines and analyses the events leading to the settlement of democracy in South Africa during this period Amongst other topics the subject matter of this book also includes a discussion of The apartheid regime ANC underground armed actions and popular resistance Liberation struggle in the 1980s in the Eastern Cape Bophuthatswana and the role of the UDF in the Western Transvaal Trade Unionism Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa This book is part of Routledge's co published series 30 Years of Democracy in South Africa in collaboration with UNISA Press which reflects on the past years of a democratic South Africa and assesses the future opportunities and challenges

Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa Boadu, Gideon, Odhiambo, George, Marandi, Pegah, 2023-09-25 Teacher education is a known variable that impacts the quality of teaching and schooling yet while research on practices in teaching and teacher education abound in other contexts there seems to be no comprehensive reference work on teaching and teacher education in Africa With Africa and the diaspora boasting rich diverse political and educational contexts and practices this gap in knowledge requires that attention be focused on investigating issues that shape the pace course and direction of teaching and teacher education in these contexts Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa facilitates scholarly discussions among scholars and practitioners about practices innovations and future possibilities for educating the next generation of competent students and teachers in Africa Covering topics such as educational reforms equity career progression and curriculum development this major reference work is ideal for administrators industry professionals researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students

Within the Realm of Possibility Mokubung O. Nkomo, Derrick Swartz, Botshabelo Maja, 2006 Past present and future is what this book documents and reveals about higher education in South Africa Because place and space have contextual effects the story of university education is told through the experiences of two schools the University of Fort Hare and the University of the North they are both similar and different

Parcel of Death Gaongalelwe Tiro, 2019-08-01 Parcel of Death recounts the little told life story of Onkgopotse Abram Tiro the first South African freedom fighter the apartheid regime pursued beyond the country's borders to assassinate with a parcel bomb On 29 April 1972 Tiro made one of the most consequential revolutionary addresses in South African history Dubbed the Turfloop Testimony Tiro's anti apartheid speech saw him and many of his fellow student activists expelled igniting a series of strikes in tertiary institutions across the country By the time he went into exile in Botswana Tiro was president of the Southern African Student Movement SASM permanent organiser of the South African Student Organisation SASO and a leading Black Consciousness proponent hailed by many as the godfather of the June 1976 uprisings Parcel of Death uses extensive and exclusive interviews to highlight significant influences and periods in Tiro's life including the lessons learned from his rural upbringing in Dinokana Zeerust the time he spent working on a manganese mine his role as a teacher and the impact of his faith in shaping his outlook It is a compelling portrait of Tiro's story and its lasting significance in South Africa's history

Chronicles on African Philosophy of Higher Education ,2023-05-15 The central argument in this book revolves around the significance of an African philosophy of higher education Such a philosophy is geared towards cultivating democratic iterations co belonging and critique within human encounters Together these actions can enhance intellectual activism within and beyond the encounters A philosophy of higher education is constituted by a philosophical act of reflexivity according to which how freedom both autonomous and communal cosmopolitanism learning to live with differences and otherness and caring with others ubuntu can be rhythmically practised What makes an African philosophy of higher education distinctive and realisable is that practices ought to be based on iterations co belonging and critique If intellectual activism were not to become a major act of resistance on the basis of which educational political and societal dystopias can be undermined such a philosophy of higher education would not have a real purpose An African philosophy of higher education is an intellectually activist endeavour because of its concern to be oppositional to constraints in and about higher education In conversation with such an understanding of this philosophy contributors to this volume offer responses to why human freedom cosmopolitanism and caring with others ubuntu can be rhythmically enacted Redefining Myself:

The beginning of my spiritual growth Nsovo Manganyi ,2022-10-01 In this book Nsovo Manganyi has outlined that redefining comes after one has identified that the title given to them has been mistaken for or they have identified that they are not functioning as they are supposed to Nsovo Manganyi is hoping to guide people who are struggling with identity crisis who do not know who they are and their value to redefine themselves By reading this book it will no longer be her redefining herself but them redefining themselves The Road to Soweto Julian Brown,2016 Conclusion Consequences Bibliography Index

Black Power in South Africa Gail M. Gerhart,2023-04-28 This book better than any I have seen provides an understanding of the politics and ideology of orthodox African nationalism or Black Power in South Africa since World War II from the Youth League of the African Student National Congress ANC of the late 1940s to the South African Student Organization SASO and the Black Consciousness Movement of the 1970s Perspective Clarifies some of the main issues that have divided the black leadership and rescues the work of some pioneering nationalist theorists It's an absorbing piece of history New York Times Informative and well researched She ably explores the nuances of the two main movements until 1960 and explains why blacks were so receptive to black consciousness in the late Sixties New York Review This book better than any I have seen provides an understanding of the politics and ideology of orthodox African nationalism or Black Power in South Africa since World War II from the Youth League of the African Student National Congress ANC

Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger,Thera Rasing,2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the Aids epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co evolve in situations of AIDS treatment This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life prolonging treatment programmes

South African Pressclips ,1992 Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan,2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba

Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service,

Political Science in South Africa Peter Vale,Pieter Fourie,2016-01-13 In 2013 and in 2014 respectively the South African Association of Political Studies SAAPS and Politikon the South African Journal of Political Studies celebrate their 40th anniversary Also in April 2014 South Africa celebrates twenty years since the advent of the post Apartheid democracy and the birth of the rainbow nation This book provides a timely account of the birth and evolution of South African politics over the past four decades but also of the study of Political Science and International Relations in this country Fourteen political scientists contribute chapters to this volume situating the study of politics within its global context and recounting the development of politics as a field of study at South African universities The fourteen contributions evaluate the state of the discipline s and suggest conclusions that are surprising and in many instances unsettling not only with regards to what and how politics is taught but also how its study has variously gained and lost pertinence for South Africans understanding of their own polity as well as its place in the world The implications are uncomfortable and pose interesting challenges for South African scholarship pedagogy and national self reflection This book was published as a special issue of Politikon      Witness to Power Mathews Phosa, 2024-11-03 Mathews Phosa has been an eyewitness to the dramatic shifts of political power in South Africa. He was involved in the Black Consciousness Movement, the UDF, and the ANC before fleeing into exile in 1985 and becoming an uMkhonto weSizwe commander in Mozambique. A lawyer by training, he was one of the first ANC members to return to South Africa to prepare the way for negotiations. He was premier of Mpumalanga during the presidency of Nelson Mandela, with whom he had a strong relationship. Under Thabo Mbeki, whom he had known in exile, Phosa was pushed to the sidelines with false accusations that he was involved in a plot to overthrow the president. Phosa had served under Jacob Zuma as an MK field commander in Mozambique and he became treasurer general of the ANC when Zuma became its president at Polokwane. But Phosa later became a vocal critic of Zuma and they didn't speak for years until the night before Zuma's resignation. Phosa and Cyril Ramaphosa had studied law together at the University of the North in the 1970s and fifty years later Phosa played a key role in advising him over the Phala Phala report that threatened to end his presidency. Witness to Power is a gripping story of underground activities, military operations, negotiations, political conflict, and intrigue. It provides fascinating new insights into the ruling party and its leaders by an ANC elder who worked with them all.

Cultivating Seeds of Hope Murray Coetzee, Retief Møller, L. D. Hansen, 2015-05-01 This publication is a collection of 40 oral testimonies about Beyers Naud but also about the apartheid era in general and about the role that Christianity played in that period. In addition to an abundance of insights on Beyers Naud by those who knew him best, it offers perspectives on the movements and entities that Naud associated himself with, for example the Christian Institute, the South African Council of Churches, and the people involved in both. Stories unfold of faith and suffering as well as betrayal, all against the background of an overtly racist apartheid state and by implication against a capitalist system with class divisions that degraded human beings and denied their human dignity.

Global Social Work Bala Nikku, 2020-07-15 This edited book Global Social Work: Cutting Edge Issues and Critical Reflections presents global social work expertise, practical tools, and an iterative and reflective process for developing a global social work pedagogy that advances deep disciplinary learning. The authors offer the specifics of a justice-based decolonizing global social work education and practice. This book will be an asset to faculty communities interested in specializing in global social work. The book offers hope that the faculty, students, and practitioners of social work develop an intercultural, international, cross-border, critical approach that further prepares them to meet the global standards of social work education and research and at the same time skillfully act, advocate, and transform global communities and their role in a globalized world.

Prophecies and Protests Henk van den Heuvel, Mzamo Mangaliso, Lisa van de Bunt, 2006 What can managers around the globe learn from the indigenous African term Ubuntu, humane-ness? For the first time ever, African management advocates, interpretative scholars, and academic skeptics are brought together in a unique book displaying the richness of the debate on Afrocentric management vision. This debate is characterized by polarization, cultural protest, emancipatory aspiration, mystification, and opportunism. Prophecies and Protests offers a broad spectrum of remarkably diverse views from different backgrounds and could be seen as an important step to foster the dialogue between protagonists and critics between practitioners and academics Especially today the central theme of the book is relevant in an era of worldwide cultural diffusion and a longing for authenticity and romanticized histories
