a dugout on the Zambezi the river Dr Livingstone once navigated They might visit a game park home to thousands of elephants and other wild things They might travel to Lusaka Zambia s capital see how the government works but even if a missionary fails to absorb the culture another possibility exists in this remote setting he may learn something new and startling about himself      Writing in Red Thomas W. Goldstein,2017 In the German Democratic Republic words and ideas mattered both for legitimizing and criticizing the regime No wonder then that the ruling SED party created a Writers Union to mold what writers publicly wrote and said Its chief task was ideological creating a socialist and antifascist culture But it was also supposed to advance its members professional interests and enable them to act as public intellectuals with a say in the direction of socialism Many writers demanded that it pursue this second function as well which brought it into conflict with the SED This book explores how the union became a site for the contestation of writers roles in GDR society with consequences well beyond the literary community Union leaders pressured by the SED or the secret police usually acquiesced in enforcing regime demands but by the 1980s many authors had adapted to the rules of the game exploiting their union membership to insulate themselves from reprisal for their carefully worded critiques and in so doing beginning to break down limitations on public speech The book explores how and why in the 1970s the Writers Union helped normalize relations between writers and state yet over the course of the 1980s inadvertently aided the expansion of permissible speech ultimately helping destabilize the East German system Thomas W Goldstein is Assistant Professor of History at the University of Central Missouri      From Pope John Paul II to Benedict XVI Mary Ann Walsh,2005-11-10 A behind the scenes account of the conclusion of John Paul II s papacy and the election of Benedict XVI describes the late pontiff s work and legacy as well as the challenges facing the new pope      Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization),1995
