s Border War As a book it is critical in approach provides deeper reflection and focuses specifically on the SADF experience of the war The result is a more complex picture of the war s dynamics and its legacies Although South Africa is a vastly different country today the study of the Border War opens a range of questions also relevant to contemporary deployments such as in Lesotho 1998 and the Central African Republic 2013 It includes the debate on participation in foreign conflicts on the deployment design and preparation of appropriate modern armed forces and their use as foreign policy instruments in far off theatres on military planning and as the historical controversies regarding the battles at Cuito Cuanavale and Banguui illustrate on the interface between foreign campaigning and domestic politics

Information Services for a Sustainable Society Madeleine C. Fombad, Collence Takaingenhamo Chisita, Omwoyo Bosire Onyancha, Mabel K.

Minishi-Majanja, 2023-07-24 The publication seeks to establish how information professionals are providing information services in a sustainable society in an era of information disorder It also provides the strategic direction to strengthen the global voice of libraries inspiring and enhancing professional practice as well as enhancing international cooperation and collaboration among LIS educators and practitioners The contents is divided according to the following key sub themes that resonate with the title as outlined below Library and information services in the information age Data and records in an era of information disorder Archives data curation and preservation in the digital era Data science analytics and visualization Information ethics in the digital era Information deluge in the digital era Information and knowledge management Fourth Industrial revolution The highlighted themes explore critical issues relating to how libraries archives and related institutions are responding to the seismic shifts in the information landscape amidst a myriad of challenges and opportunities The sub themes bring together a tapestry of articles that explore the status experiences and future prospects of the dynamic library and information science practice

The Transformation of Academic Work James Goodman, Claire Parfitt, Keiko Yasukawa, 2023-09-19 This book offers a unique grounded analysis of recent crises and transformations in academic work It charts international and Australia based efforts to overcome academic fragmentation and precarity and to advance agendas for the public university It is based on extensive qualitative interviews with academics and managers across several universities in Australia It finds new grounds for universal universities with decent jobs to serve the public good The book is aimed at students and scholars from sociology education politics and industrial relations and a wider readership concerned about the future of universities Analysis centres on a trade union led initiative in Australia aimed at decasualising universities and ensuing debates about the impact of academic fragmentation The authors argue for strengthening the teaching research nexus as the foundation stone for public purpose universities

Electronic Legal Deposit Paul Gooding, Melissa Terras, 2020-10-02 Legal deposit libraries the national and academic institutions who systematically preserve our written cultural record have recently been mandated with expanding their collection practices to include digitised and born digital materials The regulations that govern electronic legal deposit often also prescribe how these materials can be accessed

Although a growing international activity there has been little consideration of the impact of e legal deposit on the 21st Century library or on its present or future users This edited collection is a timely opportunity to bring together international authorities who are placed to explore the social institutional and user impacts of e legal deposit It uniquely provides a thorough overview of this worldwide issue at an important juncture in the history of library collections in our changing information landscape drawing on evidence gathered from real world case studies produced in collaboration with leading libraries researchers and practitioners Biblioteca Nacional de Mexico Bodleian Libraries British Library National Archives of Zimbabwe National Library of Scotland National Library of Sweden Chapters consider the viewpoint of a variety of stakeholders including library users researchers and publishers and provide overviews of the complex digital preservation and access issues that surround e legal deposit materials such as web archives and interactive media The book will be essential reading for practitioners and researchers in national and research libraries those developing digital library infrastructures and potential users of these collections but also those interested in the long term implications of how our digital collections are conceived regulated and used Electronic legal deposit is shaping our digital library collections but also their future use and this volume provides a rigorous account of its implementation and impact
