Anne D. Neal, 2017-06-14 Each year over a million newly minted high school graduates enroll in four year colleges and universities across the country They do so often after a lengthy and almost always stressful selection process Faced with growing evidence of declining standards rising political correctness and spiraling costs families feel more powerless than ever before and question whether a college degree is really the key to the American dream What is a parent to do This book provides an answer Higher education expert Anne Neal offers families a concise guide to finding the right college Rejecting the notion that reputation is everything this guide offers insightful chapters on curricula and teaching campus and dorm life freedom of thought and speech and affordability issues that are more and more in the news Families are given a handy checklist of questions designed to help them zero in on key issues of quality and cost to ensure a college program that will provide the skills and knowledge needed for success after graduation Materialities of Age and Ageing: Concepts of a Material Gerontology Grit Höppner, Monika Urban, 2019-06-18 In gerontological research the understanding of age and ageing changed in the last decade Biologic determined explanations no longer prevail in this research field Instead ideas of social constructivism are frequently used These ideas define the state of age and the process of ageing as social constructions steeping ageing in social and cultural assumptions ascriptions and expectations From a social constructivist perspective age and ageing are not just identified as dependency deficit and need for care as it was foremost accelerated from a biological perspective but with the life course and thus with individual lifestyles experiences attitudes and practices as well as institutional and economic structures A prominent social constructivist concept is doing age Similar to doing gender the concept of doing age assumes age as taking place in the form of a social praxis within everyday life interactions between people and thus in performances embedded in discourses through which social hierarchies and ideals proceed Despite the paradigm shift that social constructivist concepts enable in gerontological thinking they reveal their blind spot when it comes to the materiality of ageing and thus to fleshy sensual experiences human and non human ontologies and agencies Addressing these materialities of ageing brings up its own critique on definitions of ageing bodies and material environments This framing does not presume that age and ageing are solely products of human to human interactions or those of formative environments or of discourses Rather humans non humans and discourses become essential parts of ageing processes Such a material framing enables us new insights into forms of age and ageing and thus offers an opportunity for scholars to engage critically with materialities of age and ageing This eBook explores theoretical methodological and empirical concepts of such a Material Gerontology

Banks as Security Actors Esmé Bosma, 2025-04-22 This book analyses how banks implement counter terrorist financing measures and experiment with technologies to assess risks and make security decisions Banks have become private security actors As gatekeepers of the financial system they are legally obliged to conduct customer research and monitor bank accounts for unusual or suspicious transactions Given the sheer volume of financial transactions that banks process daily detection of financial crime heavily relies on digital security technologies that help analysts categorise and identify risky customers and financial transactions Drawing from theories at the intersection of International Relations and Science and Technology Studies the book advances the concept of de scription to offer a framework for analysing experimentation with security and digital technologies in practice The research is based on fieldwork conducted in the financial crime sector in the Netherlands and the United Kingdom It explores how political and ethical choices materialise at the human technology interface and analyses the production of customer risk profiles the design and use of transaction monitoring systems and the emergence of public private partnerships to counter terrorist financing This book will be of interest to students and researchers in International Relations Science and Technology Studies and Critical Security Studies

Radical Approaches to the Care Crisis Anne M. Gray, 2025-04-04 This book explores the critical issue of how to manage the ever increasing demand for social care in Britain s ageing society With informal care from family members and friends now the dominant form of adult social care in the UK this precarious system is struggling to provide enough support Exploring the relationship between formal and informal care this book develops ideas for a caring economy showing the potential to integrate paid for and unpaid care within a framework of solidarity based on the strengths of the community working to improve the quality and quantity of state funded care provision while sharing unpaid support more widely as a community responsibility

Anticipation, Agency and Complexity Roberto Poli, Marco Valerio, 2019-02-15 This volume presents a selection of the Proceedings of the Workshop on Anticipation Agency and Complexity held in Trento Italy on April 2017 The contributions contained in the book brilliantly revolve around three core concepts agency complexity and anticipation giving precious insights to further define the discipline of anticipation In a world that moves increasingly fast constantly on the verge of disruptive events more and more scholars and practitioners in any field feel in need of new approaches to make sense of the complexity and uncertainty that the future seems to bear The theory of anticipation tries to describe how possible futures are intrinsically intertwined with the present

LGBTQ+ People and Dementia Sue Westwood,Elizabeth Price,2023-08-07 Bringing together research policy and the voices of LGBTQ people with dementia this good practice guide highlights the importance of a person centred approach Care and support should recognise and validate different and often intersectional LGBTQ identities Readers are encouraged to move away from the idea of equality as treating everyone the same towards treating everyone as individuals The vast changes in the social and legal status of LGBTQ people through recent decades can uniquely affect their later lives Dementia services are often under prepared to meet their needs and there can be prejudice and discrimination Creating LGBTQ inclusive services can be challenging The book explains how to deal with these challenges giving lots of practical examples Food for thought sections offer opportunities for reflection Becoming more informed about LGBTQ lives and creating services which are LGBTQ inclusive will improve the experiences of LGBTQ people living with dementia and encourage the best possible quality care
