The Symbolic Earth James G. Cantrill, Christine L. Oravec, 2014-07-11 The core dilemma in environmental advocacy may be illustrated by the question When we communicate about the world should we stress what we know or what we feel The contributors to The Symbolic Earth argue that it is more important to decide how we should talk about what we know and feel In their view the environment is largely a product of how we talk about the world Because the environment is a social construction the only hope we have of preserving it is to understand and alter the fundamental ways we discuss it This collection first examines the ways in which discourse creates environment perceptions Subjects discussed range from the description of natural scenery to the advocacy of political interest groups from the everyday interactions of citizens facing environmental crises to the

greenwashing of corporate imagemakers and from the psychology of the mass public to the social constructions of the mass media The authors include nationally known scholars of environmental history rhetorical theory ethnography communication and journalism studies public policy and media criticism Information Resources in Toxicology P.J. Bert Hakkinen, Asish Mohapatra, Steven G. G. Gilbert, 2009-08-19 This latest version of Information Resources in Toxicology IRT continues a tradition established in 1982 with the publication of the first edition in presenting an extensive itemization review and commentary on the information infrastructure of the field This book is a unique wide ranging international annotated bibliography and compendium of major resources in toxicology and allied fields such as environmental and occupational health chemical safety and risk assessment Thoroughly updated the current edition analyzes technological changes and is rife with online tools and links to Web sites IRT IV is highly structured providing easy access to its information Among the hot topics covered are Disaster Preparedness and Management Nanotechnology Omics the Precautionary Principle Risk Assessment and Biological Chemical and Radioactive Terrorism and Warfare are among the designated International in scope with contributions from over 30 countries Numerous key references and relevant Web links Concise narratives about toxicologic sub disciplines Valuable appendices such as the IUPAC Glossary of Terms in Toxicology Authored by experts in their respective sub disciplines within toxicology Wetlands Sharon L. Spray, Karen L. McGlothlin, 2004-02-16 The purpose of the Exploring Environmental Challenges A Multidisciplinary Approach series is to publish a collection of short texts that each explore a specific environmental issue and describe the methodologies theories and findings pertaining to that issue from both natural and social science perspectives Each text contains three natural science essays three social science essays and a concluding essay Intended for introductory environmental studies courses these balanced thoughtful and rigorous texts aim to provide students with a deeper understanding of the relationship between people and their environment and to serve as a foundation for further inquiry and discussion Wetlands introduces students to the natural ecological functions and policy issues of wetlands so they will have a solid understanding of why these ecosystems are necessary and why their governance remains a significant environmental challenge Although not a comprehensive overview on wetlands it does provide background material for a more comprehensive investigation into the science behind and the management of these ecosystems A Plan for a Research Program on Aerosol Radiative Forcing and Climate Change National Research Council, Division on Earth and Life Studies, Commission on Geosciences, Environment and Resources, Panel on Aerosol Radiative Forcing and Climate Change, 1996-05-17 This book recommends the initiation of an integrated research program to study the role of aerosols in the predicted global climate change Current understanding suggest that even now aerosols primarily from anthropogenic sources may be reducing the rate of warming caused by greenhouse gas emissions In addition to specific research recommendations this book forcefully argues for two kinds of research program integration integration of the individual laboratory field and theoretical research activities and an integrated management structure that involves all of the concerned federal agencies Disasters that Changed Australia Richard Evans,2009 From natural phenomenon such as Cyclone Tracy and the Ash Wednesday and Black Friday fires to key moments in our military history such as Flanders in 1917 and the fall of Singapore this is an essential guide to understanding the people the ideas and the events that defined the course of Australia s history The Routledge Anthology of Climate Fiction Bill Gillard,2024-11-26 The Routledge Anthology of Climate Fiction brings together key works from the Bible to the twentieth century in an accessible resource for students and teachers alike With a robust variety of works including H G Wells Clare Winger Harris H P Lovecraft Leslie F Stone and Arthur Conan Doyle The Routledge Anthology of Climate Fiction offers vital new perspectives and critical introductions all the way back to humanity s earliest surviving literary texts , Plastics in the Environment: Understanding Impacts and Identifying Solutions Montserrat Filella,Hans Peter Heinrich Arp,Andrew Turner,2021-07-15 Human Biology Daniel Chiras,2012 Written for the introductory human biology course the Seventh Edition of Chiras acclaimed text maintains the original organizational theme of homeostasis presented in previous editions to present the fundamental concepts of mammalian biology and human structure and function Chiras discusses the scientific process in a thought provoking way that asks students to become deeper more critical thinkers The focus on health and homeostasis allows students to learn key concepts while also assessing their own health needs An updated and enhanced ancillary package includes numerous student and instructor tools to help students get the most out of their course
