Human And Social Biology Zim:

Some Developments in Research in Science and Mathematics in Sub-Saharan Africa Lorna Holtman, 2008 Much attention in late developing countries is given to providing access to studies which allow school leavers to enter science and technology related careers These programmes are driven by the belief that graduates will then substantially contribute to the developmental needs of their countries But is providing access to institutions enough Students in developing countries often come from school environments lacking in resources human physical and financial This book in a number of chapters reviews research related to the crucial dimension of epistemological access to the disciplines of import which students need as much as institutional access in order to improve their chances of success A significant feature of this collection s research studies is that their empirical bases are highly localised covering areas such as research methods access curriculum instruction and assessment and the relevance of science and mathematics education in Zimbabwe Uganda Swaziland South Africa Namibia Malawi Ghana and Lesotho This volume provides invaluable insights and will be of relevance to researchers policy makers and lecturers interested in these research outcomes in Sub Saharan Africa It is the outcome of a doctoral research capacity development project the Graduate Studies in Science Mathematics and Technology Education GRASSMATE Representing Gender-Based Violence Caroline Williamson Sinalo, Nicoletta Mandolini, 2023-01-01 This book focuses on the politics ethics and stereotypical pitfalls of representational practices surrounding Gender Based Violence GBV from a global perspective The originality of the volume is linked to its cross disciplinary perspective as the topic of representing GBV is analyzed across the domains of philosophy epistemology fiction and the arts including literature film television series and music and non fictional representations in the media including broadcast media online print journalism transmedia activism The volume identifies contemporary representational practices and the theoretical and critical responses examining various aspects of popular culture from around the world In doing so the editors put feminism in conversation with global trends to identify its cultural frontline The volume will appeal to scholars working on gender and violence from diverse fields Living with Wildlife in Zimbabwe Joshua Matanzima, Beaven Utete, 2024-08-17 This book provides a critical analysis of the interactions of humans and wildlife in Zimbabwe It does not only document conflicts but it also considers opportunities for co existence that can result in the successful conservation practices within protected areas The book offers empirically rich case studies from across different areas of Zimbabwe both urban and rural where people interact with animals both negatively and positively Chapters in the book discuss these interactions through the different lens including the contemporary politico economic crises prevalent in Zimbabwe the failures and successes of the CAMPFIRE programme and gender dynamics of conflicts The book provides an update into the human wildlife interactions situation in Zimbabwe Data presented has policy implications within Zimbabwe and beyond It contributes to different categories policy and mitigation measures including HWC mitigation strategies as well as conservation policy Beaven Utete and Joshua Matanzima have brought together a fascinating collection of papers on human wildlife conflict and coexistence in Zimbabwe The authors highlight the views values and needs of people living with wildlife Voices that are still too often ignored in conservation practice policy and science This is essential reading for anyone interested in decolonizing conservation and the future of wildlife in Africa Professor Jan van der Ploeg Professor Inclusive Conservation Van Hall Larenstein University of Applied Sciences The Netherlands This is a valuable collection from a country we should hear much more from in the field of human wildlife interactions studies In addition to providing interesting case studies and data from Zimbabwe to inform and inspire international conservation efforts I hope it will galvanize national and local efforts to tackle the complex challenges ahead for biodiversity conservation in Zimbabwe Professor Simon Pooley IUCN SSC Specialist Group on Human Wildlife Conflict and Coexistence

Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2017-08-17 This book is a pioneering study of Joshua Mqabuko Nkomo a Zimbabwean nationalist whose crucial role in the country's anti colonial struggle has largely gone unrecognized These essays trace his early influence on Zimbabwean nationalism in the late 1950s and his leadership in the armed liberation movement and postcolonial national building processes as well as his denigration by the winners of the 1980 elections Mugabe's Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front The Nkomo that emerges is complex and contested the embodiment of Zimbabwe's tortured trajectory from colony to independent postcolonial state This is an essential corrective to the standard history of twentieth century Zimbabwe and an invaluable resource for scholars of African nationalist liberation movements and nation building

Access of Girls and Women to Scientific, Technical and Vocational Education in Africa Augustin Mariro,1999 Expressions of the Body Charlotte Baker,2009 This book contributes to a growing corpus of writing on the body bringing new perspectives to this fascinating and topical subject Feminist psychoanalytic and queer readings among others have demonstrated the extent of the functions and roles fulfilled by the body as well as the number of critical perspectives it can serve However by and large African representations of the body have been overlooked This coherent volume brings together essays on the portrayal of the body in African art film literature photography and theatre The book includes thematically linked contributions which explore issues of power and representation and reflects current trends in the study of the body and more broadly within the field of African Studies

Zambezia ,1989 The State and Agrarian Change in Zimbabwe's Communal Areas Michael Drinkwater,2016-07-27 This book explores why a decade after Zimbabwean independence government agricultural development policies still retains surprising similarities with those of the colonial period despite lengthy peasant opposition Using documentary and fieldwork material from the Midlands province the analysis covers the subjects of pastoral and land use management household production and income earning strategies and farmer extension relations

New Urban Agenda in Zimbabwe Charles Chavunduka,Innocent Chirisa,2024-06-23 This book presents ways of shaping the built environment sciences and practices for steering the New Urban Agenda in Zimbabwe Attention to the built environment disciplines and practice is important because of their centrality to economic dynamism and sustainability of urban services The reverse relationship is also true because through provision of norms aspirations and guidelines the New Urban Agenda helps in steering the built environment disciplines and practice The book begins by exploring theoretical and conceptual material on the built environment concept It recognizes that sub Saharan African countries and Zimbabwe in particular are operating in a changing environment of rapid urbanization unemployment and inequality Its premise is that the built environment sciences and practice can make a contribution to addressing sustainable development challenges through the introduction of innovations in infrastructure institutions and processes that enhance socio economic growth and development The book brings together scholarship from various disciplines in the built environment and presents sector initiatives such as those relating to curricula smart technologies and cutting edge innovations in steering sustainable urban development National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1982 Evolutionary Perspectives on Human Sexual Psychology and Behavior Viviana A. Weekes-Shackelford,Todd K. Shackelford,2014-07-08 This volume in the Springer Series in Evolutionary Psychology presents a state of the art view of the topic of sexuality and sexual behavior drawing on theoretical constructs and research of noted individuals in the field Comprehensive and multi disciplinary this book seeks to provide a broad overview without sacrificing the complexity of a multi faceted approach The book is framed by introductory and closing sections that provide a context for the range of ideas contained within Ample space is provided in designated sections that focus on key areas of sexuality from both male and female perspectives and that include information from primate studies This volume can serve as a graduate text in sexual behavior in evolutionary terms and as a guide for further research
