Classic Questions and Contemporary Film Dean A. Kowalski, 2015-08-24 Featuring significant revisions and updates Classic Questions and Contemporary Film An Introduction to Philosophy 2nd Edition uses popular movies as a highly accessible framework for introducing key philosophical concepts Explores 28 films with 18 new to this edition including Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind Hotel Rwanda V for Vendetta and Memento Discusses numerous philosophical issues not covered in the first edition including a new chapter covering issues of personal identity the meaningfulness of life and death and existentialism Offers a rich pedagogical framework comprised of key classic readings chapter learning outcomes jargon free argument analysis critical thinking and trivia questions a glossary of terms and textboxes with notes on the movies discussed Revised to be even more accessible to beginning philosophers Inside the Hotel Rwanda Edouard Kayihura, Kerry Zukus, 2014-04-01 In 2004 the Academy Award nominated movie Hotel Rwanda lionized hotel manager Paul Rusesabagina for single handedly saving the lives of all who sought refuge in the Hotel des Milles Collines during Rwanda's genocide against the Tutsi in 1994 Because of the film the real life Rusesabagina has been compared to Oskar Schindler but unbeknownst to the public the hotel's refugees don't endorse Rusesabagina's version of the events In the wake of Hotel Rwanda's international success Rusesabagina is one of the most well known Rwandans and now the smiling face of the very Hutu Power groups who drove the genocide He is accused by the Rwandan prosecutor general of being a genocide negationist and funding the terrorist group Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Rwanda FDLR In Inside the Hotel Rwanda survivor Edouard Kayihura tells his own personal story of what life was really like during those harrowing 100 days within the walls of that infamous hotel and offers the testimonies of others who survived there from Hutu and Tutsi to UN peacekeepers Kayihura tells of his life in a divided society and his journey to the place he believed would be safe from slaughter Inside the Hotel Rwanda exposes Paul Rusesabagina as a profiteering politically ambitious Hutu Power sympathizer who extorted money from those who sought refuge threatening to send those who did not pay to the genocidaires despite pleas from the hotel's corporate ownership to stop Inside the Hotel Rwanda is at once a memoir a critical deconstruction of a heralded Hollywood movie alleged to be factual and a political analysis aimed at exposing a falsely created hero using his fame to be a political force spouting the same ethnic apartheid that caused the genocide two decades ago

The Rwandan Genocide on Film Matthew Edwards, 2018-07-09 The Rwandan genocide was one of the most shameful events of the 20th century Many Westerners understanding of it is based upon the Oscar winning film Hotel Rwanda and the critically acclaimed Shooting Dogs Yet how accurately do these films depict events in Rwanda in 1994 Drawing on new scholarship this collection of essays explores a variety of feature films and documentaries about the genocide to understand its expression in both Western and Rwandan cinema Interviews with filmmakers are featured including journalist Steve Bradshaw BBC's Panorama director Nick Hughes 100 Days director Lee Isaac Chung

Munyurangabo and Rwandan filmmakers Eric Kabera and Kivu Ruhorahoza African Film Foluke Ogunleye, 2014-03-17
African Film Looking Back and Looking Forward acknowledges all those filmmakers and film scholars who through their productions and theorization have made a difference to the filmic universe in Africa Their substantial contribution reflects our world and has the potential to change our lives The book adopts an interdisciplinary character traversing as it does the diverse subjects of politics economics and history among others It interrogates Africa s filmic past analyses current productions projects into the future of the film in Africa and deals with the nature of the filmmaking profession This book contributes to the growing literature on the African film and will provide the opportunity for filmmakers academics and students to learn about the history theories problems and various approaches to production marketing gender issues race and legal issues and a host of other subjects that impinge upon the African film Hollywood and Africa Opio

Dokotum, 2020-02-05 Hollywood and Africa recycling the Dark Continent myth from 1908 2020 is a study of over a century of stereotypical Hollywood film productions about Africa It argues that the myth of the Dark Continent continues to influence Western cultural productions about Africa as a cognitive based system of knowledge especially in history literature and film Hollywood and Africa identifies the colonial mastertext of the Dark Continent mythos by providing a historiographic genealogy and context for the terms development and consolidation An array of literary and paraliterary film adaptation theories are employed to analyse the deep genetic strands of Hollywood Africa film adaptations The mutations of the Dark Continent mythos across time and space are then tracked through the classical neoclassical and new wave Hollywood Africa phases in order to illustrate how Hollywood productions about Africa recycle revise reframe reinforce transpose interrogate and even critique these tropes of Darkest Africa while sustaining the colonial mastertext and rising cyberactivism against Hollywoods whitewashing of African history Unpacking the Loaded Teacher Matrix sj Miller, Linda Norris, 2007 What issues in English teacher education are sidestepped because they are too loaded to address What aren t we talking about when we discuss classroom management censorship standardized tests media literacy social justice issues the standards and technology What really matters to novices entering the profession The authors in this book wrestle with the disparities between preservice English teacher instruction and secondary school space as the two collide and describe the tools that preservice English teachers need to negotiate and navigate between theory and practice This book answers these questions and offers groundbreaking insights about liberatory pedagogy for how teacher educators can mentor preservice teachers on touchy issues providing them with tools to reach today s students Social Problems Sara Towe Horsfall, 2018-05-30 This book represents a truly innovative and empowering approach to social problems Instead of focusing solely on a seemingly tireless list of major problems Sara Towe Horsfall considers how select key issues can be solved and pays particular attention to the advocate groups already on the front lines Horsfall first provides a robust theoretical foundation to the study of social problems before moving on to the problems themselves examining each through the lens of specific advocate groups working towards solutions This concise and accessible text also incorporates useful learning tools including study questions to help reinforce reading comprehension questions for further thought to encourage critical thinking and classroom discussion a glossary of key terms and a worksheet for researching advocate groups Social Problems An Advocate Group Approach is an essential resource for social problems courses and for anyone who is inspired to effect change Rwandan Genocide

Alexis Herr,2018-04-19 This important reference work offers students an accessible overview of the Rwandan Genocide with more than 100 detailed articles by leading scholars on an array of topics and themes and 20 key primary source documents Tracing the history of Rwanda prior to during and after German and Belgian colonization of Rwanda through the present day this invaluable resource scrutinizes the historical events that determined how and why the Rwandan Genocide occurred and discusses the memory history and legacy of the atrocity both within and outside of Rwanda Designed to suit the needs of students both new to and advanced in the subject this reference work provides readers with a thematic overview of the Rwandan Genocide an accessible analysis of the national and international complexities that drove it and more than 100 in depth entries on topics related to the genocide Encyclopedic entries profile key perpetrators rescuers and witnesses as well as religious political and nonprofit groups which in combination with entries on judicial proceedings and the United Nations offer readers a multifaceted understanding of Rwanda the genocide and its aftermath To help learners to engage with the historical and social contexts of this atrocity the book also contains 20 curated primary source documents and six perspective essays in which scholars debate key questions regarding the genocide Into the Dark (Cultural Exegesis) Craig

Detweiler,2008-08-01 In this book Craig Detweiler examines forty five films from the twenty first century that resonate theologically from the Lord of the Rings trilogy to Little Miss Sunshine offering groundbreaking insight into their scriptural connections and theological applications Detweiler writes with the eye of a filmmaker leads Hollywood and religion initiatives at Fuller Seminary and even came to faith through cinema In this book he unpacks the theology of everyday life exploring the Spirit of God in creation redemption and general revelation through sometimes unlikely filmmakers It s the first authoritative book that dissects up to date movies selected by the popular Internet Movie Database This book is recommended for teachers students pastors film fans and those interested in the intersection of Christianity and culture Philosophy in Schools Sara

Goering,Nicholas J. Shudak,Thomas E. Wartenberg,2013 All of us ponder the big and enduring human questions Who am I Am I free What should I do What is good Is there justice Is life meaningful but this kind of philosophical interrogation is rarely carefully explored or even taken seriously in most primary and secondary school settings However introducing philosophy to young people well before they get to college can help to develop and deepen critical and creative thinking foster social and behavioral skills and increase philosophical awareness Philosophy in Schools An Introduction Philosophers and Teachers is an invaluable resource for students and practitioners who wish to learn about the philosophy for children movement and how to work its principles into their own classroom activities The volume provides a wealth of practical information including how to train educators to incorporate philosophy into their daily lessons best practices and activity ideas for every grade level and assessment strategies With contributions from some of the best practitioners of philosophy for children Philosophy in Schools is a must have resource for students of philosophy and education alike Reading in the Reel World John Golden, 2006 By tapping into students natural attraction to film teachers can help students understand key concepts such as theme tone and point of view as well as practice and improve their persuasive narrative and expository writing abilities Studying documentaries helps students learn how nonfiction texts are constructed and how these texts may shape the viewer s reader s opinion The book includes classroom tested activities ready to copy handouts and extensive lists of resources such as a glossary of film terminology an index of documentaries by category and an annotated list of additional resources More than thirty films are discussed giving teachers the tools needed to effectively teach nonfiction texts using popular documentaries

Faith and Film Edward N. McNulty, 2007-01-01 Growing numbers of church leaders are discovering that many films are able to impact viewers with gospel truths almost as well as a good sermon Ed McNulty a former pastor and longtime reviewer of films offers this guide to help church leaders enter into dialogue with contemporary films McNulty carefully crafts a theology of movies and then provides practical suggestions for creating and leading movie discussions with groups In addition he provides people from all across the theological spectrum with a framework to understand whether the overall message of a film outweighs concerns over profanity violence or sex in the film He concludes by introducing twenty seven films and including provocative questions about each that will prepare leaders to assemble and facilitate a group Popular films explored include The Color Purple Crash Hotel Rwanda The Matrix Million Dollar Baby O Brother Where Art Thou and The Shawshank Redemption

The Devil You Dance With Audrey McCluskey, 2010-10-01 South African film culture like so much of its public life has undergone a tremendous transformation during its first decade of democracy Filmmakers once in exile banned or severely restricted have returned home subjects once outlawed by the apparatchiks of apartheid are now fair game and a new crop of insurgent filmmakers are coming to the fore This extraordinary volume presents twenty five in depth interviews with established and emerging South African filmmakers collected and edited by Audrey Thomas McCluskey The interviews capture the filmmakers spirit energy and ambition as they attempt to give birth to a film culture that reflects the heart and aspirations of their diverse and emergent nation The collection includes a biographical profile of each filmmaker as well an introductory essay by McCluskey pointing to the themes as well as creative differences and similarities among the filmmakers The Positive Side of Negative Emotions W. Gerrod Parrott,2014-01-27 This unique volume brings together state of the art research showing the value of emotions that many believe to be undesirable Leading investigators explore the functions and benefits of sadness anxiety anger embarrassment shame guilt jealousy and envy The role of these emotions in social interactions and relationships is examined as are cultural differences in how they are valued and expressed The volume considers how people seek out these feelings in everyday life to improve performance gain insight and express cares and commitments Negative emotions are shown to have an important place in a rich and meaningful life Career Construction Theory and Life Writing Hywel Dix,2021-05-13 This volume applies the insight and methods of career construction theory to explore how autobiographical writing is used in different professional careers from fiction and journalism to education and medicine It draws attention to the fact that a career is a particular kind of artefact with distinctive properties and features that can be analysed and compared and puts forward a new theory of the relationship between narrative methodology and the vocation of writing Career construction theory emerged in the late twentieth century when changes to the patterns of our working lives caused large numbers of people to seek new forms of vocational guidance to navigate those changes It employs a narrative paradigm in which periods of uncertainty are treated as experiences akin to writer s block experiences which can be overcome first by imagining new character arcs then by narrating them and finally by performing them By encouraging clients to see their careers as stories of which they are both the metaphorical authors and the main protagonists career construction counsellors enable them to envisage the next chapter in those stories But despite the authorial metaphor career construction theory has not been widely applied to analysis of professional careers in writing The chapters in this volume remedy that gap and in various ways apply the insights of career construction theory to analyse the relationship between writing and professional life in diverse careers where writing is used The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Life Writing Death and the Moving Image Michele Aaron,2015-02-13 Exploring gender race nation and narration this groundbreaking study isolates how mainstream cinema works to bestow value upon certain lives and specific socio cultural identities in a hierarchical and partisan way Dedicated to the popular to the pol Teaching English Language Learners Michaela Colombo,Dana Furbush,2009 This book prepares mainstream teachers to provide content instruction to English language learners Documentary Testimonies Bhaskar Sarkar,Janet Walker,2009-12-04 This volume examines documentary films that compel us to bear witness move us to anger or tears and possibly mobilize us to action The essays gathered here analyze questions regarding the usefulness and legitimacy of documentary testimony What is the value of the historical archive the televised public hearings or activist online videos constitute Is it made part of the official record or dismissed as renegade or ephemeral To what extent can documentary bring about social change How do the documentary testimonies compensate for or account for the frailty of memory

Remembering Mass Atrocities: Perspectives on Memory Struggles and Cultural Representations in Africa Mphathisi Ndlovu, Lungile Augustine Tshuma, Shepherd Mpofu, 2023-12-28 This book explores how popular cultural artifacts literary texts commemorative practices and other forms of remembrances are used to convey transmit and contest memories of mass atrocities in the Global South Some of these historical atrocities took place during the Cold war As such this book unpacks the influence or role of the global powers in conflict in the Global South Contributors are grappling with a number of issues such as the politics of memorialization memory conflicts exhumations reburials historical dialogue peacebuilding and social healing memory activism visual representation transgenerational transmission of memories and identity politics
