Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Pamela J. Farris, 2015-02-03 The latest edition of Pamela Farris's popular value priced text continues to offer pre and in-service teachers creative strategies and proven techniques sensitive to the needs of all elementary and middle school learners Coverage includes the C3 Framework and the four sets of learning from the National Curriculum Standards for Social Studies Farris together with contributors who specialize in implementing successful teaching methods and theories demonstrate how classroom teachers can excite and inspire their students to be engaged learners Resources in Education , 1995-07 Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2015-01-30 Now in its fifth edition Doing History offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The premise is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and analyzing data examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts Grounded in contemporary sociocultural theory and research the text features vignettes in each chapter showing communities of teachers and students doing history in environments rich in literature art writing discussion and debate The authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory Doing History emphasizes diversity of perspectives in two ways readers encounter students from a variety of backgrounds and students themselves look at history from multiple perspectives It provides clear guidance in using multiple forms of assessment to evaluate the specifically historical aspects of children s learning Bulletin ,1959 Transforming American Education ,1992
