One Hundred and Sixty Minutes William Elliott Hazelgrove, 2021-09-01 One hundred and sixty minutes That is all the time rescuers would have before the largest ship in the world slipped beneath the icy Atlantic There was amazing heroism and astounding incompetence against the backdrop of the most advanced ship in history sinking by inches with luminaries from all over the world It is a story of a network of wireless operators on land and sea who desperately sent messages back and forth across the dark frozen North Atlantic to mount a rescue mission More than twenty eight ships would be involved in the rescue of Titanic survivors along with four different countries At the heart of the rescue are two young Marconi operators Jack Phillips 25 and Harold Bride 22 tapping furiously and sending electromagnetic waves into the black night as the room they sat in slanted toward the icy depths and not stopping until the bone numbing water was around their ankles Then they plunged into the water after coordinating the largest rescue operation the maritime world had ever seen and thereby saving 710 people by their efforts The race to save the largest ship in the world from certain death would reveal both heroes and villains It would begin at 11 40 PM on April 14 when the iceberg was struck and would end at 2 20 AM April 15 when her lights blinked out and left 1500 people thrashing in 25 degree water Although the race to save Titanic survivors would stretch on beyond this most people in the water would die but the amazing thing is that of the 2229 people 710 did not and this was the success of the Titanic rescue effort We see the Titanic as a great tragedy but a third of the people were rescued and the only reason every man woman and child did not succumb to the cold depths is due to Jack Phillips and Harold McBride in an insulated telegraph room known as the Silent Room These two men tapping out CQD and SOS distress codes while the ship took on water at the rate of 400 tons per minute from a three hundred foot gash would inaugurate the most extensive rescue operation in maritime history using the cutting edge technology of the time wireless women and men adults and children rich and poor Among them are a ship s Captain a Second Officer an Assistant Wireless Operator a Stewardess an amateur military historian a governess a teacher a domestic servant a mother and three children What were their earlier histories Who survived and why and who perished And what happened to these people in the years after 1912 Titanic The Last Night of a Small Town answers all these questions and more while offering a minute by minute depiction of events aboard the doomed liner through the eyes of a broad and representative cross section of those who sailed in her both those who survived and those who didn t Literacy for the 21st Century Gail E. from the novels of Toni Morrison to the paintings of the Zanzibar born black British artist Lubaina Himid and from King Kong to the travels of Frederick Douglass and Paul Robeson The book places such figures as the African American traveller and Barbary slave narrator Robert Adams and the West Indian slave narrator Mary Prince in a Black Atlantic context that explicates them fully A chapter on the Titanic disaster shows how diasporan Africans composed oral poems about the disaster to criticise the discriminatory practices of its owners and racial imperialism Overall the book argues for the crucial importance of Black Atlantic cultures in the formation of our modern world Moreover it argues that looking at Black culture and history through a national lens is distorting and reductive
