How To Check Status At Wsu Mthatha:

Digital inequality in a developing context Nobert R. Jere, Gardner Mwansa, Memory Ranga, Attlee M.

Gamundani, Pardon B Maoneke, 2025-04-15 Digital inequality in a developing context A multifaceted approach critically explores the complex and persistent nature of the digital divide in South Africa addressing a notable gap in existing scholarship Drawing on secondary data the book examines how digital inequalities manifest across key sectors such as education healthcare and agriculture sectors vital to national development and individual well being These disparities are shaped by intersecting socio economic technical and geographical factors particularly the urban rural divide The volume underscores the importance of infrastructure development digital literacy affordability and equitable access as central to bridging the digital gap It argues that without targeted and sustained interventions in these areas digital inequality will continue to hinder socio economic progress and deepen existing structural inequalities This scholarly book offers fresh perspectives and practical insights for researchers policymakers and practitioners seeking to advance digital inclusion in developing contexts

Responsibility in Small Things Monde Ndandani, 2020-08-24 Aspiring to be upright and honourable This book is about metaphorical bricks small things that make walls of all types of buildings within which people work and live The figurative walls in the pages of this book are the Noah social types of the holy Bible Behaviour is the function of character A well behaved person young and old develops to be a paragon of virtue a rare species amongst the peoples of this world Universal and generic good behavior project starts with casual greeting one's family members in the morning and after intervals of absence from one's home Greeting people anywhere should be spontaneous Children learn being courteous from their homes same as telling the truth all the time giving lies no space Hence building average good and steadfast citizenry is the responsibility of each homestead and family If being sturdy is the essential feature of leadership then every citizen in any country in the world can have her his turn to lead

Innovation and Trends in the Global Food Systems, Dietary Patterns and Healthy Sustainable Lifestyle in the Digital Age, 2nd edition Maha Hoteit, Reema Fayez Tayyem, Radwan

Qasrawi, Haleama Al Sabbah, 2023-07-31 All aspects of feeding and nourishing people growing harvesting packaging processing transporting marketing and consuming food are part of the food system Even before the COVID 19 pandemic food systems faced many challenges such as hunger increases which affected up to 811 million people as of 2020 while healthy diets were unaffordable for at least 3 billion people More than 80% of the population affected by hunger and 95% of people unable to afford a healthy diet were found in Asia and Africa Transformation of the global food system is clearly needed if we wish to embed equity sustainability and health as priorities in food provision and consumption Some of these transformations will be facilitated through new technologies while others will require public policy shifts changes in the private agro food industry actions by civil society and behavioral changes by individuals In this dynamic context technology actors and the consumers they serve sit at an important nexus within the food system and have the potential to make decisions that cut across the challenges and opportunities to improve sustainable food system outcomes Although food security has improved in developed countries many countries particularly low to middle income countries LMIC suffer from significant food insecurity challenges In addition food production accessibility and availability have been further impacted due to the COVID 19 outbreak causing growing global concerns regarding food security especially within the most vulnerable communities Moreover the transformation of food systems for addressing healthy nutrition food insecurity and public health issues is a global concern Food security and nutrition systems are directly related to human well being and global stability particularly in a time when diets transition toward increased reliance upon processed foods increased fast food intake high consumption of edible oils and sugar sweetened beverages lack of physical activities and increased lifestyles worldwide These changes in lifestyle continue to contribute to the growing pandemic of non communicable diseases such as obesity diabetes hypertension and cardiovascular diseases are clearly noticed across the globe The study of nutrition systems food security and the roles of technological advances especially in LMIC is considered the major factor in understanding food transition and population health Physical inactivity threatens LMIC public health as it is a prime behavioral risk factor associated with major non communicable diseases such as coronary heart disease type 2 diabetes and breast and colon cancer Its long term impacts increasingly burden national economies Decreasing its prevalence is paramount toward decreasing premature mortality and restoring healthy populations In its most recent iteration of a global action plan for the prevention of non communicable diseases the World Health Organization established voluntary global targets to reduce physical inactivity by 10% Currently limited published systematic analysis of physical inactivity prevalence among Muslim majority countries exists Existing literature is concentrated on Arab countries which represent less than half of all Muslim nations To date however pan Islamic physical inactivity data have not been reported Doing so can potentially galvanize religion specific agencies e g Islamic Relief Worldwide Organization of Islamic Cooperation to support efforts aimed at decreasing physical inactivity

Remote Sensing of African Mountains Samuel Adelabu, Abel Ramoelo, Adeyemi Olusola, Efosa Adagbasa, 2022-08-30 This edited volume focuses on the use of remote sensing techniques to assess and monitor mountainous ecosystems in Africa with a focus on tracking changes related to climate change and human activity The book is timely as the interaction of mountain environmental dynamics with conservation and sustainability is an under researched issue The chapters in this volume use remotely sensed data to study a variety of topics related to mountains and their ecosystems including but not limited to vegetation energy systems environmental hazards ecosystem services diseases climatic shifts geological formations and geomorphological dynamics The ability to monitor assess and analyze mountainous regions is aided by the availability of remote sensing products such as optical and microwave sensors and low cost unmanned aerial vehicles UAVs The works presented here push the frontier of knowledge on mountain studies and will help shape local national and global assessments and policies including efforts toward the achievement of the African Agenda 2063 The book will be of interest to researchers and students in remote sensing geography ecology and sustainability as well as to government organizations and conservation specialists

Noseweek ,2008 Doctors in a Divided Society Mignonne Breier,Angelique Wildschut,2006 Many of the goals of South Africa s new democracy depend on the production of professionals who have not only the knowledge and skills to make our country globally competitive but also a commitment to working and living here Despite numerous reforms the South African health system ten years into democracy remains divided first world private care that ranks with middle income countries internationally at the one end and at the other extreme in the rural public sector in particular conditions that are superior only to the poorest of African countries Much work has been done to change medical school curricula in line with the primary health care focus of government policy and international trends towards problem based learning The student profile in medical schools is now not only more representative of the demographics of South Africa but also reveals a significant increase in female students Whether these students will stay in the country after graduating and serve where they are needed most remains to be seen Publisher s website Journal of Psychology in Africa ,2010 Novel Aspects on

Epilepsy Humberto Foyaca-Sibat,2011-10-12 This book covers novel aspects of epilepsy without ignoring its foundation and therefore apart from the classic issues that cannot be missing in any book about epilepsy we introduced novel aspects related with epilepsy and neurocysticercosis as a leading cause of epilepsy in developing countries We are looking forward with confidence and pride in the vital role that this book has to play for a new vision and mission Therefore we introduce novel aspects of epilepsy related to its impact on reproductive functions oral health and epilepsy secondary to tuberous sclerosis mitochondrial disorders and lysosomal storage disorders Shifting Boundaries of Knowledge Tessa Marcus,Alexandra Hofmänner,2006 In 2004 South Africa s National Research Foundation NRF initiated a foresight exercise on the challenges of knowledge making in social sciences law and the humanities SSLH in South Africa in the 21st century The main contributions to this project are collected in this volume It is designed to open horizons about the value of and prospects for SSLH research while simultaneously promoting and stimulating scholarship in this domain The contributions provide a useful starting point for thinking about the current state of SSLH research and gives researchers locked into single disciplinary perspectives a taste of the debates and trends in allied disciplines They also provide an organizing frame for a new broad based open conversation among the many interested parties involved in producing reproducing and disseminating knowledge

Beyond the Wishing Well Sheldon Parrish,2010-07-01 Sheldon Parrish pictured here in the early 1990s as Football Coach of Roosevelt High School Beyond The Wishing Well is the second project by author Sheldon Parrish This piece is the follow up to the book One Square Mile his first book released in August of 2009 The author states that where the preceding book was from an Autobiographical perspective this project is more reflections of town residents and people who grew up in Roosevelt NY The book goes further to point out the diversity in talents and professions which claim the One Square Mile as it roots and place of nurturing Things are quickly changing in this hamlet of Roosevelt and it was very important to the
