Recharting the Thirties Patrick J. Quinn,1996 The aim of Recharting the Thirties is to revitalize the awareness of the reading public with regard to eighteen writers whose books have been largely ignored by publishers and scholars since their major works first appeared in the thirties The selection is not based on a political agenda but encompasses a wide and divergent range of philosophies clearly the contrasts between Empson and Upward or between Powell and Slater indicated the wide ranging vision of the period Women writers of the period have largely been marginalized and the writings of Sackville West and Burdekin for example not only present distinct feminine voices of the period but also illuminate how much good literature has been forgotten

Anarchist Seeds beneath the Snow David Goodway,2011-12-12 From William Morris to Oscar Wilde to George Orwell left libertarian thought has long been an important but neglected part of British cultural and political history In Anarchist Seeds beneath the Snow David Goodway seeks to recover and revitalize that indigenous anarchist tradition This book succeeds as simultaneously a cultural history of left libertarian thought in Britain and a demonstration of the applicability of that history to current politics Goodway argues that a recovered anarchist tradition could and should be a touchstone for contemporary political radicals Moving seamlessly from Aldous Huxley and Colin Ward to the war in Iraq this challenging volume will energize leftist movements throughout the
