Engaging in Educational Research Raqib Chowdhury, Mahbub Sarkar, Foez Mojumder, M Moninoor Roshid, 2018-10-01 This book reflects the paradigm shift now manifesting in Bangladesh's education system by highlighting recent empirical research. It shares essential insights by presenting research conducted on diverse aspects of current day education in Bangladesh including policy and governance equity access and participation curriculum and pedagogy assessment and education programs and projects run by NGOs. Further it offers a platform for these unique studies to be showcased and disseminated to scholars and researchers from developing and developed countries alike and represents a unique reference resource for the education research community in Bangladesh Asia and all over the world. With Foreword from Professor Serajul Islam Choudhury.

Strengthening Local Governance in Bangladesh Shuvra Chowdhury, Pranab Kumar Panday, 2018-02-23 This book explores the impact of Bangladesh's Local Government Act of 2009 on the functioning of the local governments or Union Parishads (UP) with a particular emphasis on people's participation and accountability. Throughout the chapters the authors review the existing legal framework of UP and its relation to social accountability, examine how much of the social participation is spontaneous and how much is politically induced, question the success of the Citizen's Charter and Right to Information acts as mechanisms for social accountability and present suggestions to remedy some of the problems facing people's participation and accountability in the UP. This book fills existing gaps in the discourse by adding new information to the literature on development research and legal reforms in Bangladesh specifically in how those legal reforms have led to strengthening or weakening people's participation in local government. The target audience for this book are students and researchers in Asian studies international development studies and public administration as well as practitioners working in the local governments discussed.
