Generations Working Together United States. Congress. House. Committee on Financial Services, 2005 Consumer Interests Annual American Council on Consumer Interests. Conference, 1998 Annual Report Iowa State University. College of Family and Consumer Sciences, 2003 Financial Literacy in Europe Gianni Nicolini, 2019-01-23 Are people ready to take pivotal financial decisions like choosing a mortgage saving for retirement or investing their savings How does the degree of knowledge about financial products and services affect the quality of their choices Can financial fraud be prevented by increasing consumer financial knowledge Financial Literacy in Europe addresses these important questions and more In the first part the author investigates the concept of financial literacy by analyzing its components and comparing different definitions from previous studies This then forms a comprehensive measure of financial literacy to be applied in empirical studies that analyze the role of financial literacy in explaining consumers financial behaviors In the second part of the study the author uses brand new data collected by the Consumer Finance Research Center CFRC from several European countries the UK Germany France Italy Sweden and Spain to assess financial literacy in Europe and highlight similarities and differences across countries Filling an important gap in previous research the author develops a rigorous approach in the measurement of financial literacy in order to examine European financial literacy issues in great detail This book therefore is a useful resource for assessing the effectiveness of single financial education programs or planning national strategies on financial education It can also support policy makers in developing financial regulation and consumer protection strategies considering the consumer perspective and their ability to deal with financial markets and institutions School Library Journal , 2009
