world's first atomic bomb had not been ready for use when it was. How would this have affected the end of the war in the Pacific and indeed the Second World War as a whole? Would Emperor Hirohito's armed forces have battled on? When might Colonel Paul W. Tibbets at the controls of his Boeing B-29 Superfortress Enola Gay have then made his historic flight over Hiroshima and would that city even have remained the target? How would Stalin and the Soviets have reacted to such developments and how would this have played out in the post-war world?

Sissinghurst Tim Richardson, 2025-03-25 Step inside Sissinghurst, the world's most famous garden, and understand the strength of its attraction in this beautiful once-in-a-generation study. Since it was bought and transformed by writer Vita Sackville-West and diplomat Harold Nicolson in the 1930s, Sissinghurst has captured imaginations with its unique and intricate design. From first sight of the Castle Tower to the magic of the world-famous White Garden, this garden of rooms and experiences, memories and emotions, is the most evocative of places. Today it is one of the National Trust's most popular destinations, and under the lead of head gardener Troy Scott Smith, Sissinghurst is influential for its design, its exuberant planting, and its effect on visitors as a complete garden experience. Its fascination endures and matures, captivating with its intimacy, romance, and history. In this definitive book, Tim Richardson explores the power and magic of Sissinghurst, explaining the nuances of its evolution and showing how we can all enjoy it today. With beautiful photography from Jason Ingram and a foreword from leading garden designer Dan Pearson, this is the must-have book for any garden lover. Now in paperback.

She supervised the New York Municipal Reference Library for 32 years until her retirement in 1952. She published over fifty articles and books on aspects of city government and libraries and delivered weekly radio speeches on WNYC from 1928 to 1938. Her career as a librarian, author, and radio commentator demonstrates the use of research in the formation of public policy decisions and provides a unique perspective on politics in New York. Rankin also served as president of several library organizations, including the Special

Libraries Association which she led to national status during her tenure During the Depression she established the Association s employment service and worked with Mayor Fiorello La Guardia and other library officials to provide pensions for public librarians in New York City Rankin and La Guardia shared the belief that government should carry out the will of the people and care for their needs and the two worked together to make this a reality Quotations from primary sources in the archives of the New York Public Library and the City of New York give the book a strong narrative style Focusing on Rankin s efforts to document New York City s past as its unofficial historian the book examines the city s political history during the first half of the twentieth century and illuminates the relationship of the local government with one of its great cultural institutions the New York Public Library
