Religion and Worldviews L. Philip Barnes, 2022-09-21 Religion and Worldviews The Triumph of the Secular in Religious Education provides the first serious analysis and review of the Commission on Religious Education s proposed worldviews framework for the subject It argues that religious education has an important contribution to make to the aims of liberal education and examines whether the shift to a worldview framework is capable of overcoming current weaknesses and initiating a new positive direction for the future Chapters explore the role of worldviews in Religious Education covering key debates including Whether there is need for new legislation on RE The nature of professionalism and the role of experts The extent to which there is educational value in study of the personal worldviews of students The role of the religious voice in RE The relation of religions to religious worldviews The aims of RE The relationship between the state and religion Consideration of the nature of a worldview The personal reflections of a member of the Commission on its proposals The chapters provide all that is necessary to understand and to evaluate the current debate on the appropriateness of a worldviews approach to RE Bringing together leading names in the field this is essential reading for trainee and practising teachers of Religious Education RE advisers and schools leaders responsible for curriculum development Global Yorùbá Toyin Falola, 2024-11-19 In Global Yor b renowned scholar Toyin Falola covers the history people traditions environment religion spirituality cosmology culture and philosophy of one of Africa s largest cultural groups the Yor b all while considering the people s relationship with their immediate and distant neighbors Falola examines how the Yor b n people have adapted to their environment and tapped it to re invent their civilization shape their culture and traditions and inform their socioeconomic relations with their neighbors These interactions have guided the Yor b philosophy that developed over time expressing their conviction regarding society s evolution and the place that humans occupy within it This web of knowledge can present a more coherent account than any other text yet produced regarding Yor b civilization This volume demonstrates how global dynamics have been adopted in the creation of a Yor b community across different times and spaces Religious Education Ednan Aslan, Margaret Rausch, 2018-06-06 The authors of this volume examine theory and practice regarding past and present roles of Jewish Christian and Islamic religious education in nurturing tolerance interpreted as mutual respect for and recognition of other groups in Eastern Albania Bulgaria Kosovo Macedonia Moldova Montenegro and Romania and Western Finland Germany Italy Latvia and Spain Europe Israel Nigeria and Uzbekistan They also explore potential roles of religion and exclusivism in fostering Islamic state NGOs etc but also averting Islamic legal theory authority Sufism etc radicalization and of secular states in allowing but also banning minority religious education in public schools With contributions from Friedrich Schweitzer Martin Rothgangel Gerhard Langer Daniela Stan Arto Kallioniemi Juan Ferreiro Galguera Maria Chiara Giorda Rossana M Salerno Viorica Gora Postic Constantin Iulian Damian Valentin Ilie Dzintra Ili ko Ayman Agbaria Zilola Khalilova Raid al Daghistani Osman Ta tan Moshe Ma oz Adriana Cupcea Muhamed Ali R diger Lohlker and Dele Ashiru The Editors Ednan Aslan is the Chair of Islamic Theological studies at the University of Vienna where he is a Professor for Islamic Education Margaret Rausch is scholar researcher and university instructor in the field of Islamic and Religious Studies Irish and British Reflections on Catholic Education Sean Whittle, 2021-02-20 This volume presents an interdisciplinary and systematic review of Catholic Education Studies across Ireland and Britain Taken together the chapters drill down to the foundations identity and leadership matters in Catholic education and schools It is in reading the complete volume that a more precise picture of Catholic education in Ireland and Britain develops into sharper focus This is important because it reflects and crystallises the complexity which has almost organically developed within the field of Catholic Education Studies It also provides a powerful antidote to the na ve reductionism that would boil Catholic education down to just one or two fundamental issues or principles Contemporary Catholic education perhaps globally but certainly in Ireland and Britain is best depicted in terms of being a colourful kaleidoscope of differing perspectives However this diversity is ultimately grounded in the underlying unity of purpose because each of the contributors to this volume is a committed advocate of Catholic education The volume brings together a rich range of scholars into one place so that these voices can be listened to as a whole It includes contributions from leading scholars blended with a plethora of other voices who are emerging to become the next generation of leading researchers in Catholic education It also introduces a number of newer voices to the academic context They present fresh perspectives and thinking about matters relating to Catholic education and each of them confidently stand alongside the other contributors Moreover these reflections on Catholic education are important fruits to have emerged from the collaboration made possible through the creation of the Network for Researchers in Catholic Education which was established in 2016 under the auspices of Heythrop College University of London

Understanding Religion Ulrich Riegel, Stefan Heil, Boris Kalbheim, Alexander Unser, 2019-10-14. Today, religion is a complex issue. In Western Europe, the so-called Christian heritage is challenged by both other religious traditions and secular worldviews. It is therefore essential to understand the complexity of religion in different contexts. This volume addresses four questions in this regard: How can we assess religion and religiosity appropriately? What are important markers of religiosity? How does religion affect recent society? How can religion be taught in modern society? By dealing with these questions, the contributions to this volume offer an insight into the recent state of the art of research on religion and religiosity within the field of religious education on an international level.

Issues in Religion and Education, 2015-02-04. Issues in Religion and Education: Whose Religion? is a contribution to the dynamic and evolving global debates about the role of religion in public education. This volume provides a cross-section of the debates over religion's role in public education and the theoretical and political conundrums associated with resolutions. The chapters reflect the contested nature of the role of religion in public education around the world and explore some of the issues mentioned from perspectives reflecting the diverse contexts in which the authors are situated. The differences among the chapters reflect some of the particular ways in which various jurisdictions have come to see the problem and how they have addressed religious diversity in public education in the context of their own histories and politics. Hungary Finland and Canada The authors rely on the widely shared argument that religious change can primarily be understood as an intergenerational process Based on a mixed methods design the book investigates the question of how when exactly and under what conditions the following generations become less religious than the previous ones From the perspective of familial and historical generations the authors examine the significance of religious socialization for the transmission of non religious worldviews affiliation practice and identity According to a central finding religious change takes place primarily in the phase of adolescence against the background of the respective social context Religions, Beliefs and Education in the European Court of Human Rights Nigel Fancourt, 2024-02-20 This book represents an exposition of judicial pedagogies as a new concept and discusses juridical educational issues in detail through an analysis of the educational claims and assumptions of judges decisions in the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR It sheds light on how within courtrooms around the world judges are increasingly being asked to decide upon issues of religion and belief in schooling whether about admissions policies curriculum planning or pupils and teachers dress and jewellery With key human rights principles at stake these proceedings are often fraught clashing with strong opinions about education and schooling Focusing on decisions made in the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR the author considers how the supranational court looks at these issues and considers the ECtHR s role within the European Education space Drawing upon research and scholarship surrounding these questions the book surveys a series of educational issues including curriculum and assessment and takes a comparative approach in the discussion of case studies to demonstrate the variety and depth of judges thinking Thus rather than considering the national or supranational legal principles and questions as jurisprudential issues typically about religion or human rights it reviews them from an educational perspective as folk theories of teaching and learning Finally it considers the implications of a theory of judicial pedagogy for the courts educational competence in deciding on these matters for education and educational policy research the European education space legal scholarship and for legal and judicial education Developing a novel and innovative approach to the pedagogies at play in a courtroom and providing fresh insights into the courts as agents of social change it will appeal to scholars and researchers working across the disciplines of education law and religious studies Religious Plurality in Africa Marloes Janson, Kai Kresse, Benedikt Pontzen, Hassan Mwakimako, 2024 Grounded in ethnographic and historiographic research and taking a cross regional approach this book explores the complex dynamics of similarity and difference rapprochement and detachment and divergence and competition between practitioners of Christianity Islam and African religious traditions Across Africa Muslims Christians and practitioners of African religious traditions live in shared settings demarcating themselves in opposition to one another and at times engaging in violent conflicts but also being entangled in complex ways and showing unexpected similarities and mutual cross overs However while encounters and entanglements of African religious traditions with either Islam or Christianity have long been a central research issue the configuration as a whole has barely been taken into account even though Muslims Christians and practitioners of African religious traditions have long co existed and still co exist more or less peacefully in many settings in Africa Building on recent interventions to move beyond the compartmentalization of the study of religion in Africa this edited volume will spotlight why and how an integrated approach to Islam Christianity and African religious traditions is important Bringing together stimulating case studies from Kenya Nigeria Zanzibar Ghana and Mozambique that offer new directions for ethnographic and historical research the volume will not only shed light on an important phenomenon out there in the world the long overlooked ways in which Muslims Christians and practitioners of African religious traditions interact with one another in various majority minority configurations but will also engage with a critical rethinking of the study of religion in Africa and beyond and interpretations that are constantly negotiated For some RE means religious nurturing either tailored to parental views or meant to inculcate a uniform religiosity For others RE means learning about the many religious and non religious world views and secular ethics that exist not promoting one religion or another Some seek to avoid the ambiguous term religious education replacing it with terms such as education about religions and beliefs or the religious dimension of intercultural education

Putting Burdens on Broken Shoulders Ken Crispin,2023-03-22 Conservative Christian views on marriage and divorce are often presented as bulwarks against the tragedy of marital breakdown Yet the advice given to divorced Christians and those facing the disintegration of their relationships is often irresponsible and damaging Women fleeing domestic violence are told they are bound to their abusers by indissoluble spiritual bonds Some are sent back to face further violence Children are exposed to further abuse People are condemned to lives of unnecessary loneliness and second marriages are undermined A pall is cast over many lives Why Why should vulnerable people be given advice that is so damaging Those who protest are told that this is what the Bible teaches But does it This book critically examines the relevant texts revealing fundamental errors due to theological misconceptions and difficulties of understanding nuances of the original languages and the contexts in which crucial words were spoken Properly understood the relevant biblical passages do not lock people into intolerable situations Christians are called to be faithful in their marital relationships but not to pretend that former marriages still exist or refuse to recognize subsequent ones And we are called to embrace not condemn the brokenhearted
