Teaching Religious Education Elaine McCreery,Sandra Palmer,Veronica Voiels,2008-05-21 Many trainee primary teachers are uncertain as to the place and purpose of RE in primary schools This book is designed to alleviate such fears and give trainees the security and confidence to teach RE effectively Trainees are encouraged to recognise their own religious position and understand how they handle their own beliefs and commitments in the classroom In addition they will learn how to be sensitive to children's religious viewpoints allowing children to share their beliefs in a secure and supportive environment A range of strategies help readers to provide engaging and appropriate RE across the primary age phase

Secularism and Islam in Bangladesh Abdul Wohab,2023-10-13 Secularism and Islam in Bangladesh comprehensively analyses the syncretistic form of Bengali Islam and its relationship with secularism in Bangladesh from pre-British to contemporary times It focuses on the importance of understanding the dynamics between religion and secularism within specific cultural contexts The author draws upon historical sociological and political literature Bangladeshi electoral results newspaper reports and elite interviews with political commentators and offers a rich historical and empirical analysis Arguing that extremist interpretations of Islam which aim to establish a theocratic state have not been able to influence the pluralistic religious and cultural life of Bangladesh substantially the book shows that religious and cultural pluralism will continue to thrive despite the apparent threat posed by increasing religiosity among Bangladeshi Muslims This book is a timely and significant contribution to the discourse on secularism and Islam with relevance beyond Bangladesh and the wider Islamic world It will appeal to scholars and researchers working in the fields of South Asian studies Asian religions and the sociology of religion Between Muslim and Jew Steven M. Wasserstrom, 2014-07-14 Steven Wasserstrom undertakes a detailed analysis of the creative symbiosis that existed between Jewish and Muslim religious thought in the eighth through tenth centuries Wasserstrom brings the disciplinary approaches of religious studies to bear on questions that have been examined previously by historians and by specialists in Judaism and Islam His thematic approach provides an example of how difficult questions of influence might be opened up for broader examination In Part I Trajectories the author explores early Jewish Muslim interactions studying such areas as messianism professions authority and class structure and showing how they were reshaped during the first centuries of Islam Part II Constructions looks at influences of Judaism on the development of the emerging Shi'ite community This is tied to the wider issue of how early Muslims conceptualized the Jew In Part III Intimacies the author tackles the complex esoteric symbiosis between Muslim and Jewish theologies An investigation of the milieu in which Jews and Muslims interacted sheds new light on their shared religious imaginings Throughout Wasserstrom expands on the work of social and political historians to include symbolic and conceptual aspects of interreligious symbiosis This book will interest scholars of Judaism and Islam as well as those who are attracted by the larger issues exposed by its methodology Originally published in 1995 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Proceedings of the International Conference on Health and Well-Being \(ICHWB 2022\) Burhanudin Ichsan, Dodik Nursanto, Morita Sari, Firmansyah, Mitoriana Porusia, Dian Hudiawati, Suryo Saputro Perdana, 2023-05-29 This is an open access book The world is getting ready to face the post COVID 19 pandemic this can be seen from the decline in the existing indicators of morbidity and mortality However the effects of the pandemic do not only have implications for health problems but also in various fields such as social mental economic including quality of life Various ways of preparation for improvement Improving the quality of life after a pandemic includes a health literacy approach nutrition and a holistic approach For this reason the ICHWB 2022 international seminar focuses on health recovery in improving the quality of life after a pandemic from the point of view of health literacy nutrition and a holistic approach International Conference on Health and Well Being ICHWB 2022 invites all potential authors from universities industries and business sectors to submit papers in the areas of medicine dentistry food nutrition and health public health health services nursing and physiotherapy This conference is part of a conference program called International
