East The New Silk Roads provides a timely reminder that we live in a world that is profoundly interconnected In this prescient contemporary history Peter Frankopan assesses the global reverberations of these continual shifts in the centre of power all too often absent from headlines in the west This important and ultimately hopeful book asks us to reread who we are and where we are in the world illuminating the themes on which all our lives and livelihoods depend CHINA: Threat or Challenge? Lt Gen JS Bajwa, 2017-01-13 ndian Defence Review IDR had earlier in 2011 published a Book titled Threat from China edited by Late Bharat Verma Team IDR felt that since May 2014 when the National Democratic Alliance government took over the reins of governance in India bringing in a more focussed dynamic and assertive approach in conduct of its foreign relations it was necessary to review the security paradigm between India and China Moreover around the same time there had been a tactile parallel change in leadership at the helm in China too During the preliminary discussions there were strong views from a certain section of the community of academic scholars and diplomats that China was not an existential THREAT However the military community felt that the People s Liberation Army s substantive military modernisation manifested such a THREAT The academic and diplomatic community did feel that there was surely a CHALLENGE in dealing with an assertive rising China more relevant with a decline of US interest in Asia To accommodate both views the Title was thus revised to China Threat or Challenge The Book is a compilation of articles written and published in the IDR since May 2014 Some articles are by Authors who were requested to express their contrary views on the subject so as to present to the Readers broad based views of various Authors across the spectrum on issues impacting India China bilateral relations The final verdict of course lies entirely with the discerning Readers Kenya's and Zambia's Relations with China 1949-2019 Jodie Yuzhou Sun, 2023 Examines the history of post colonial Kenya s and Zambia s relations with the People s Republic of China from ideological political economic and social perspectives Africa has become a major platform from which to analyse and understand China s growing influence in the global South Yet the impact of their historical relationship has been largely overlooked Through the triangulation of the global Cold War African history and Chinese history this study provides a detailed analysis of China Africa relations in the second half of the 20th century Examining the encounters conflicts and dynamics of China Kenya Zambia relations from the 1950s until the present as well as the basis on which historical narratives have been constructed the book presents two contrasting state perspectives underlining the concept of African agency Driven by a class based analysis of world revolution Communist China s foreign policy did not distinguish significantly between Kenya and Zambia Both countries sought ideological and material support from China in the years after their independence The Kenya African National Union under both Jomo Kenyatta and Daniel Moi pursued a consistently pragmatic foreign agenda and despite political tensions and ideological rifts with China since the mid 1960s Sino Kenyan trade has continued to grow steadily In contrast China Zambia relations under Kenneth Kaunda were cordial despite their political differences Zambian leaders maintained a relatively high consensus that any alleged Chinese

Communist threat would not be allowed to fuel power struggles within their United National Independence Party Challenging both the widely accepted role of China Africa s historical lineage as well as the tendency to assume uniformity in China s relationships across the continent the author explains the development of these relationships and sheds light on the historical underpinnings or lack thereof on contemporary China Africa relations Six Plays of the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Jamil Khoury,,Michael Malek Najjar,Corey Pond,2018-09-05 A bold and singular collection of six plays by Arab and Jewish playwrights explores the human toll of the Israeli Palestinian conflict The Admission by Motti Lerner Scenes From 70 Years by Hannah Khalil Tennis in Nablus by Ismail Khalidi Urge for Going by Mona Mansour The Victims by Ken Kaissar and The Zionists by Zohar Tirosh Polk Rather than striving to achieve balance and moral equivalency between competing narratives the plays investigate themes of identity justice occupation exile history and homeland with honesty and integrity The plays do not take sides or adhere to ideological orthodoxies but challenge tribalism and narrow definitions of nationalism while varying widely in thematic content dramatic structure and time and place Where politicians and diplomats fail artists and storytellers may yet succeed not in ratifying a peace treaty between Israel and Palestine but in building the sort of social and political connectivity that enables resolution Economy of Identities in Traditional Chinese Theatre Ágota
