Out of the Shadow Julie Gibbings, Heather Vrana, 2020-07-20 Guatemala's Ten Years of Spring 1944 1954 began when citizens overthrew a military dictatorship and ushered in a remarkable period of social reform This decade of progressive policies ended abruptly when a coup d'état backed by the United States at the urging of the United Fruit Company deposed a democratically elected president and set the stage for a period of systematic human rights abuses that endured for generations Presenting the research of diverse anthropologists and historians Out of the Shadow offers a new examination of this pivotal chapter in Latin American history Marshaling information on regions that have been neglected by other scholars such as coastlines dominated by people of African descent the contributors describe an era when Guatemalan peasants Maya and non Maya alike embraced change became landowners themselves diversified agricultural production and fully engaged in electoral democracy Yet this volume also sheds light on the period s atrocities such as the US Public Health Service s medical experimentation on Guatemalans between 1946 and 1948 Rethinking institutional memories of the Cold War the book concludes by considering the process of translating memory into possibility among present day urban activists

Celebrity Colonialism Robert Clarke,2020-06-12 Celebrity Colonialism brings together studies on an array of personalities movements and events from the colonial era to the present and explores the intersection of discourses formations and institutions that condition celebrity in colonial and postcolonial cultures Across nineteen chapters it examines the entanglements of fame and power fame in colonial and postcolonial settings Each chapter demonstrates the sometimes highly ambivalent roles played by famous personalities as endorsements and apologists for antagonists and challengers of colonial imperial and postcolonial institutions and practices And each in their way provides an insight into the complex set of meanings implied by novel term celebrity colonialism The contributions to this collection demonstrate that celebrity provides a powerful lens for examining the nexus of discourses institutions and practices associated with the dynamics of appropriation domination resistance and reconciliation that characterize colonial and postcolonial cultural politics Taken together the contributions to Celebrity Colonialism argue that the examination of celebrity promises to enrich our understanding of what colonialism was and more significantly what it has become China, Trust and Digital Supply Chains Warwick Powell,2022-09-01 China Trust and Digital Supply Chains presents a critical reflection on blockchain technologies in the context of their adoption in China and the world that China is engaged in and shaping Approaching the issues of blockchain technology adoption and development on China's own terms is critical if policy makers and others are to make effective sense of one of the key dynamics shaping the next few decades of the global landscape. The work challenges the trust trope that dominates much discussion of blockchain technology's application. It argues contrary to the predominant trust trope that blockchain is not about trust at all. It shows that China's reimagining of the 21st century global order is premised on driving intensified cross border economic interactions without the presupposition of trust and blockchain technology makes that possible. It also explores the paradox of technological decentralisation being taken up with vigour by a centralist polity, the role of blockchain technology as a critical condition of existence for the successful globalisation of China's digital currency initiative and the need to devise governance institutions that are multilateral in nature to reflect the multi polar nature of decentralised information systems with domestic and cross border permutations. This book is of significant interest to readers of political economy, public policy, blockchain technology and Chinese studies. Resources in Education, 2001-04 Policing the Global South Danielle Watson, Sara N. Amin, Wendell C. Wallace, Oluwagbenga (Michael) Akinlabi, Juan Carlos Ruiz-Vásquez, 2022-11-11. Policing the Global South provides scholarship which further transnationalises and democratises ideas about policing practices and philosophies, highlighting renovations in approaches to policing studies and injecting innovative perspectives into the study of policing from scholars positioned on the periphery. Criminological knowledge depolarisation underscores a conscious effort by scholars from the Global South to increase intellectual knowledge focused on developing context specific responses to issues not aligned to Northern ideological positions and specific to the non Northern context. Such shifts draw attention to the expanse of spaces beyond Northern centres rife with challenges unlike any specific to those experienced or conceptualised by scholars from the Global North with an applied Northern criminological lens. Applying a postcolonial lens to empirical knowledge from country specific cases in former colonies in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, the Pacific and Latin America, this book examines how policing issues not aligned to Northern ideological positions and specific to non Northern contexts are addressed. The primary purpose is to share innovations in the field of policing, service provision, threats to security, crime responses, justice and international trends developed in postcolonial developing country contexts. Given the aim of the book and the contributors' own research on issues of policing across the globe, it discusses themes including but not limited to the colonial legacies and their impact on policing, how plural regulatory systems and partnerships are navigated by the police, the linkages between access to justice, community perceptions and police legitimacy, innovations and challenges in organisational reform, crime prevention and community partnerships and the expanding roles of police organisations in the Global South. While each chapter presents a policing issue in a country within a specific part of the Global South, the book highlights how important it is to frame responses based on contextual realities informed by an awareness of the past and present with a goal of informing the future. Delivering a much needed introduction to those specialising in policing in developing countries, this book is invaluable.

reading for academics and students of criminology criminal justice governance policy and IR as well as professionals in policing organizations across the globe Bewildering Borders Werner Zips,Manuela Zips-Mairitsch ,2019 Transfrontier conservation challenges African borders the colonial scars of history The global tourism industry has discovered the potential of African borderlands for adventure travel Iconic animals and indigenous cultures are marketed in the same breath often evoking stereotypical images of Wild Africa Can ecotourism and ethno tourism be commended as viable panaceas for environmental protection and development The marketing of nature and culture raises important questions on the meaningful inclusion of local communities as tourism entrepreneurs Living museums and cultural villages are emerging as start ups of local communities They commodify ethnicity albeit on their own terms This volume debates the economy of conservation providing diverse perspectives on an issue of great contemporary relevance
