Fresh Ecocritical Voices in African Literatures and Cultures Chinonye Ekwueme-Ugwu, Joyce Onoromhenre Agofure, Nsah Mala, 2025-10-13 This edited volume brings together fresh voices both emerging and established on the ecocritical landscape within African literatures and cultures In the era of the Anthropocene the editors and contributors demonstrate how African cultural products address climate and ecological concerns including activism animal and plant conservation climate change environmental degradation food security disasters ecosystems and social injustice The volume offers critical and comparative analyses that transcend the boundaries of languages places and textual genres Significantly it foregrounds the intersectionality of ecological issues with social economic and political dimensions By doing so it highlights how environmental challenges are intricately linked to questions of identity space justice and indigenous knowledge systems While espousing classical textual analysis and beginning to gesture towards empirical experimentation the volume exemplifies ongoing decolonial and postcolonial approaches in environmental humanities from the African continent and the Global South Majority African Discourse in Islam, Oral Traditions, and Performance

Abdul-Rasheed Na'Allah,2010-09-13 Through an engaged analysis of writers such as Wole Soyinka Ola Rotimi Niyi Osundare and Tanure Ojaide and of African traditional oral poets like Omoekee Amao Ilorin and Mamman Shata Katsina Abdul Rasheed Na Allah develops an African indigenous discourse paradigm for interpreting and understanding literary and cultural materials Na Allah argues for the need for cultural diversity in critical theorizing in the twenty first century He highlights the critical issues facing scholars and students involved in criticism and translation of marginalized texts By returning the African knowledge system back to its roots and placing it side by side with Western paradigms Na Allah has produced a text that will be required reading for scholars and students of African culture and literature It is an important contribution to scholarship in the domain of mobility of African oral tradition and on African literary cultural and performance discourse
