English Literary History: Volume 10: 1910-1940: The Modern Movement Chris Baldick,2005-11-10 This exciting new volume provides a freshly inclusive account of literature in England in the period before during and after the First World War Chris

Baldick places the modernist achievements of Virginia Woolf T S Eliot and James Joyce within the rich context of non modernist writings across all major genres allowing high literary art to be read against the background of low entertainment

Looking well beyond the modernist vanguard Baldick highlights the survival and renewal of realist traditions in these decades of post Victorian disillusionment Ranging widely across psychological novels war poems detective stories satires and children s books The Modern Movement provides a unique survey of the literature of this turbulent time Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired 1881/1900- British Museum.
