Working as Indigenous Archaeologists George Nicholas, Joe Watkins, 2024-09-30 Working as Indigenous Archaeologists explores the often contentious relationship between Indigenous and other formerly colonized peoples and Archaeology through their own voices Over the past 35 plus years the once novel field of Indigenous Archaeology has become a relatively familiar part of the archaeological landscape It has been celebrated criticized and analyzed as to its practical and theoretical applications and its political nature No less important are the life stories of its Indigenous practitioners What has brought some of them to become practicing archaeologists or heritage managers What challenges have they faced from both inside and outside their communities And why haven't more pursued Archaeology as a vocation or avocation This volume is a collection of 60 autobiographical chapters by Indigenous archaeologists and heritage specialists from around the world some community based some academic some in other realms who are working to connect past and present in meaningful and especially personal ways As Archaeology continues to evolve there remain strong tensions between an objective science oriented evidentiary based approach to knowing the past and a more subjective relational humanistic approach informed by local values traditional knowledge and holistic perspective While there are no maps for these new territories hearing directly from those Indigenous individuals who have pursued Archaeology reveals the pathways taken Those stories will provide inspiration and confidence for those curious about what lies ahead This is an important volume for anyone interested in the present state and future of the archaeological discipline

An Interdisciplinary Approach for Disaster Resilience and Sustainability Indrajit Pal, Jason von Meding, Sangam Shrestha, Iftekhar Ahmed, Thayaparan Gajendran, 2019-10-17 This book includes selected papers presented at the international expert forum on Mainstreaming Resilience and Disaster Risk Reduction in Education held at the Asian Institute of Technology Thailand on 12 December 2017 The journey towards disaster risk reduction and resilience requires the participation of a wide array of stakeholders ranging from academics to policymakers to disaster managers Given the multifaceted and interdependent nature of disasters disaster risk reduction and resilience require a multidisciplinary problem solving approach and evidence based techniques from the natural social engineering and other relevant sciences Traditionally hazard and disaster related studies have been dominated by the engineering and social science fields In this regard the main purpose of this book is to capture the multidisciplinary and multisectoral nature of disaster risk reduction and to gather existing data research conceptual work and practical cases regarding risk reduction and its ties to sustainable development under a single umbrella Along with the sustainability aspect the book also links disaster risk reduction with development technology governance education and climate change and includes discussions on challenges solutions and best practices in the mainstreaming of disaster risk reduction

Tropical Forests Of Oceania Joshua A. Bell, Paige West, Colin Filer, 2015-08-31 The tropical forests of Oceania are an enduring source of concern for indigenous communities for the migrants who move to them for the states that encompass them within their borders for the multilateral institutions and aid agencies and for the non governmental organisations that focus on their conservation Grounded in the perspective of political ecology contributors to this volume approach forests as socially alive spaces produced by a confluence of local histories and global circulations In doing so they collectively explore the multiple ways in which these forests come into view and therefore into being Exploring the local dynamics within and around these forests provides an insight into regional issues that have global resonance Intertwined as they are with cosmological beliefs and livelihoods as sites of biodiversity and Western desire these forests have been and are still being transformed by the interaction of foreign and local entities Focusing on case studies from Papua New Guinea the Solomon Islands and the Gambier Islands this volume brings new perspectives on how Pacific Islanders continue to creatively engage with the various processes at play in and around their forests

Extracting Innovations Martin J. Clifford,Robert K. Perrons,Saleem H. Ali,Tim A. Grice,2018-06-13 This book considers the most contemporary innovations propelling the extractive industries forward while also creating new environmental and social challenges The socio ecological fabric of innovation in the extractive industries is considered through an integrative approach that brings together engineers natural scientists and social scientists academics and practitioners giving an empirically grounded and realistic evaluation of the innovations in this sector It synthesizes a series of questions including

Interdisciplinary Unsettling of Place and Space Sarah Pinto,Shelley Hannigan,Bernadette

Walker-Gibbs, Emma Charlton, 2019-04-25 This book brings together researchers from different fields traditions and perspectives to examine the ways in which place and space might be unsettled Researchers from across the humanities and social sciences have been drawn to the study of place and space since the 1970s and the term unsettled has been an occasional but recurring presence in this body of scholarship Though it has been used to invoke a range of meanings from the dangerous to the liberating the term itself has rarely been at the centre of sustained examination This collection highlights the idea of the unsettled in the scholarly investigation of place and space The respective chapters offer a dialogue between a diverse and eclectic group of researchers crossing significant disciplinary and interdisciplinary boundaries in the process The purpose of the collection is to juxtapose a range of different approaches to and perspectives on the unsettling of place and space In doing so Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space makes an important contribution and offers new insights into how scholarship and research into different fields and practices may help us re envision place and space The Rise of Pacific Literature Matthew Hayward, Maebh Long, 2024-09-03 In the 1960s and 1970s the staff and students of two newly founded universities in the Pacific Islands helped foster a golden age of Oceanian literature At the University of Papua New Guinea and the University of the South Pacific bold experiments in curriculum design recentered literary studies around a Pacific modernity Rejecting the established British colonial model writer scholars placed Pacific oratory and a growing body of Oceanian writing at the heart of the syllabus From this local core students ventured outward to contemporary postcolonial literatures where they saw modernist techniques repurposed for a decolonizing world Only then did they turn to foundational modernist texts encountered at last as a set of creative tools rather than a canon to be copied or learned by rote The Rise of Pacific Literature reveals the transformative role and radical adaptations of global modernisms in this golden age Maebh Long and Matthew Hayward examine the reading and teaching of Pacific oral narratives European and American modernisms and African Caribbean and Indian literature tracing how Oceanian writers appropriated and reworked key texts and techniques They identify the local innovations and international networks that spurred Pacific literature s golden age by reading crucial works against the poetry prose and plays on the syllabi of the new universities Placing internationally recognized writers such as Albert Wendt Subramani Konai Helu Thaman Marjorie Crocombe and John Kasaipwalova alongside lesser known authors of works published in Oceanian little magazines this book offers a wide ranging new account of Pacific literary history that tells a fresh story about modernism s global itineraries and transformations Biodiversity, biogeography and nature conservation in Wallacea and New Guinea Dmitry Telnov, 2015-05-11 At Home and in the Field Suzanne S. Finney, Mary Mostafanezhad, Guido Carlo Pigliasco, Forrest Wade Young, 2015-07-30 Crossing disciplinary boundaries At Home and in the Field is an anthology of twenty first century ethnographic research and writing about the global worlds of home and disjuncture in Asia and the Pacific Islands These stories reveal novel insights into the serendipitous nature of fieldwork Unique in its inclusion of homework ethnography that directly engages with issues and identities in which the ethnographer finds political solidarity and belonging in fields at home the anthology contributes to growing trends that complicate the distinction between insiders and outsiders The obligations that fieldwork engenders among researchers and local communities are exemplified by contributors who are often socially engaged with the peoples and places they work In its focus on Asia and the Pacific Islands the collection offers ethnographic updates on topics that range from ritual money burning in China to the militarization of Hawai i to the social role of text messages in identifying marriage partners in Vanuatu to the cultural power of robots in Japan Thought provoking sometimes humorous these cultural encounters will resonate with readers and provide valuable talking points for exploring the human diversity that makes the study of ourselves and each other simultaneously rewarding and challenging
