The Singing Creek Where The Willows Grow By Opal Whiteley:

The Singing Creek where the Willows Grow Opal Stanley Whiteley, 1986 The author of the popular The Tao of Pooh brings back the forgotten diaries of Opal Whiteley which were the literary sensation of 1920 but surrounded by scandal soon after Hoff also tells the tale of Opal herself a gifted but disturbed little girl who was destroyed when her private fantasies were exposed to public scrutiny 8 pages of black and white photographs

The Singing Creek where the Willows Grow Opal Stanley Whiteley, Benjamin Hoff, 1995

Maverick Autobiographies Cathryn Halverson, 2004 Halverson examines why and brings their texts back to light through a weaving of biography literary analysis and cultural history in the process urging us to reformulate our notions of what it means to be a western writer Halverson's discoveries will appeal to scholars and critics of Western American literature and women's studies

Playing House in the American West Cathryn Halverson, 2013-11-26

Examines an eclectic group of western women's autobiographical texts canonical and otherwise Playing House in the American West argues for a distinct regional literary tradition characterized by strategic representations of unconventional domestic life The controlling metaphor Cathryn Halverson uses in her engrossing study is playing house From Caroline Kirkland and Laura Ingalls Wilder to Willa Cather and Marilynne Robinson from the mid nineteenth to the late twentieth centuries western authors have persistently embraced wayward or eccentric housekeeping to prove a woman's difference from western neighbors and eastern readers alike The readings in Playing House investigate the surprising textual ends to which westerners turn the familiar terrain of the home evaluating community arguing for different conceptions of race and class and perhaps most especially resisting traditional gender roles Western women writers Halverson argues render the home as a stage for autonomy resistance and imagination rather than as a site of sacrifice and obligation The western women examined in Playing House in the American West are promoted and read as representatives of a region as insiders offering views of distant and intriguing ways of life even as they conceive of themselves as outsiders By playing with domestic conventions they recast the region they describe portraying the West as a place that fosters female agency individuality and subjectivity

Women's Experience of Modernity, 1875-1945 Ann L. Ardis, Leslie W. Lewis, 2003-05-22 A collection of essays on women's history and literary production at the turn of the twentieth century that centers the feminine phenomena Analyzing such cultural practices as selling and shopping political and social activism urban field work and rural labor radical discourses on feminine sexuality and literary and artistic experimentation this volume contributes to the rich vein of current feminist scholarship on the gender of modernism and challenges the assumption that modernism rose naturally or inevitably to the forefront of the cultural landscape at the turn of the twentieth century During this period women's experience was a rallying cry for feminists a unifying cause that allowed women to work together to effect social change and make claims for women's rights However it also proved to be a source of great divisiveness among women for claims about its universality quickly unraveled to reveal the classism racism and Eurocentrism of various feminist activities and organizations The essays in this volume examine both literary and non literary writings of Jane Addams Djuna Barnes Toru Dutt Radclyffe Hall H D Pauline Hopkins Emma Dunham Kelley Amy Levy Alice Meynell Bram Stoker Ida B Wells Rebecca West and others Instead of focusing exclusively or even centrally on modernism and literature these essays address a broad array of textual materials from political pamphlets to gynecology textbooks as they investigate women s responses to the rise of commodity capitalism middle class women s entrance into the labor force the welfare state s invasion of the working class home and the intensified eroticization of racial and class differences The Child Writer from Austen to Woolf Christine Alexander,Juliet

McMaster,2005-06-16 A collection of essays on the juvenilia of famous authors including Austen the Bront s George Eliot and Virginia Woolf Dramas of Solitude Randall Roorda,1998-02-26 Brings the insights of narrative theory to bear upon the genre of nature writing to explore the social or ethical purposes of solitude in stories of retreat in nature Faking

Literature K. K. Ruthven,2001-04-30 Faking Literature first published in 2001 examines the role of forgery in literature

Contemporary Paganism Graham Harvey,2011-02-07 An introduction to modern Paganism and its roots and history The Pagan tradition celebrates the physical nature of life on earth blending science with spiritual folklore Considering the everyday world of food health sex work and leisure to be sacred Pagans oppose that which threatens life such as deforestation overdevelopment and nuclear power and invoke ancient deities in this struggle for the well being of the earth and its inhabitants Contemporary Paganism presents a broad based introduction to the main trends of contemporary Paganism revealing the origins and practical aspects of Druidry Witchcraft Goddess Spirituality and Magic Shamanism and Geomancy among others Making use of both traditional history and the movement s more imaginative sources Harvey reveals how Paganism and its central focus on individual and social lives is evolving and how this new religion perceives and relates to more traditional ones This updated and expanded new edition addresses recent developments among Pagans and includes a new chapter assessing continuing scholarly research about the religion Experimental Film and

Photochemical Practices Kim Knowles,2020-09-29 This book assesses the contemporary status of photochemical film practice against a backdrop of technological transition and obsolescence It argues for the continued relevance of material engagement for opening up alternative ways of seeing and sensing the world Questioning narratives of replacement and notions of fetishism and nostalgia the book sketches out the contours of a photochemical renaissance driven by collective passion creative resistance and artistic reinvention Celluloid processes continue to play a key role in the evolution of experimental film aesthetics and this book takes a personal journey into the work of several key contemporary film artists It provides fresh insight into the communities and infrastructures that sustain this vibrant field and mobilises a wide range of theoretical perspectives drawn from media archaeology new materialism ecocriticism and social ecology The Story of

Opal: The Journal of an Understanding Heart Opal Stanley Whiteley,2022-05-28 The Story of Opal is a book by Opal

Whiteley Essentially the journal of an unusually creative girl who grew up in logging camp sites but alleged to be of noble descent and took the literary world by storm More than Petticoats: Remarkable Oregon Women Gayle

Shirley,2010-06-01 More than Petticoats Remarkable Oregon Women 2nd Edition celebrates the women who shaped the Beaver State Short illuminating biographies and archival photographs and paintings tell the stories of women from across the state who served as teachers writers entrepreneurs and artists Play of Colors Germaine Cross,2005-08 In 1897 a baby girl was born to a poor lumberjack and his wife She was named Opal Whiteley In 1920 she wrote a book alleging she was the victim of an orchestrated kidnapping In 1923 the media frenzy forced her to flee the country In 1992 she was buried in London England under two different names What unraveled in between is a true story filled with intrigue tragedy and a shocking conclusion Cultivating Sacred Space Elizabeth Murray,1997 Linda Greenlaw hadn t been blue water fishing for ten years since the great events chronicled in The Perfect Storm and The Hungry Ocean when an old friend offered her the captaincy on his boat Seahawk for a season of swordfishing She took the bait of course and thus opened a new chapter in a life that had already seen enough adventure for three lifetimes The Seahawk turns out to be the rustiest of buckets with sprung busted and ancient equipment guaranteed to fail at any critical moment Life is never dull out on the Grand Banks and no one is better at capturing the flavor and details of the wild ride that is swordfishing from the technical complexities of longline fishing and the nuances of reading the weather and waves to the sheer beauty of the open water The trip is full of surprises a bit harder and saltier than I had hoped for but none more unexpected than when the boat s lines inadvertently drift across the Canadian border and she lands in jail Seaworthy is about nature human and other about learning what you can control and what you do when fate takes matters out of your control It s about how a middle aged woman who sets a high bar for herself copes with challenge and change and frustration about the struggle to succeed or fail on your own terms and above all about learning how to find your true self when you re caught between land and sea The New York Times Book Review ,1986-07 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback Your Story Joanne

Fedler,2017-07-25 We either think our lives are so special that everyone should be interested in what s happened to us or so ordinary that we can t imagine anyone would care The truth lies somewhere in between yes we are all special and no people will notcare unless we write with them in mind Joanne Fedler a beloved writing teacher and mentor has written Your Story to help all people even those who don t necessarily identify as writers value their life stories and write them in such a way that they transcend the personal and speak into a universal story This book shows how to write from your life but for the benefit of others Each human life is unique and the meaning we each make from our joys and suffering can if written with a reader in mind be an act of generosity and sharing Filled with practical wisdom and tools the book tackles mindset issues that prevent us from writing ways to develop trust in yourself the process the mystery triggers or prompts to elicit our own stories Joanne

s original techniques for lifewriting developed over a decade of teaching and mentoring and much more Joanne understands the writer s loneliness says one such writer whose life she s touched the award winning Israeli author Nava Semel In this book she has created a menu of encouraging possibilities on how to overcome our fears and dig deep into our souls so that our true voice can emerge Finding Love and Life David H. Rosen, 2023-06-29 Finding Love and Life make the world go round and provide meaning for everyone Library Journal ,1988 Partnering with Nature Catriona MacGregor, 2010-04-13 Partnering with Nature is a simple book with a powerful message our connections to the natural environment and ultimately to ourselves are crucial in today s fragmented world As each successive generation moves farther away from nature the growing disconnect is expressed through physical as well as mental stress from depression and fatigue in adults to attention disorders and obesity in children The way we relate to nature helps define our place within it and by awakening this natural yet dormant connection to the environment around us we can move beyond solitary stewardship and into partnership In Partnering with Nature Catriona MacGregor weaves together scientific and historical wisdom spiritual insights and inspiring stories that illuminate the energies that link humans animals and the natural world Through observation and conscious practice we can open up to the power of nature to transform our lives uplift our spirits and even to direct our bodies to a healthier potential For everyone who has a sense of something missing who wishes to make a difference in their world who yearns to reclaim their sense of wonder and awe or who struggles with their health or emotional balance nature speaks to all who will listen
