Re-reading Pat Barker Pat Wheeler, 2020-05-15 Re-Reading Pat Barker brings together a number of scholars from across the world who explore in detail the work of one of Britain's most notable contemporary novelists The essays both acknowledge and engage with previous scholarship re-establishing Barker's eminence as a writer and adding to existing critical perspectives In the collection established Barker scholars return to her work re-reading her novels to offer fresh and innovative readings and other critics who have not previously published on Barker offer new insights into her body of work The contributors examine a number of thematic concerns including matrilineal heritage masculinity the body ways of seeing institutional and personal violence psychoanalysis and gender and class The essays in the collection explore the broader social and historical aspects of Barker's novels and the aesthetics and ethical issues in her work drawing our attention to the ways that she engages with the world gesturing towards new ways of seeing and to the possibilities of personal and political regeneration The collection shows there is still much to say about the novels and the ways in which we choose to read them

The Fiction of Pat Barker Merritt Moseley, 2014-05-28 Pat Barker is one of the most important authors of her time Her fiction has won many awards including the Booker Prize for The Ghost Road the last novel in her celebrated Regeneration trilogy and has attracted much critical attention This stimulating Guide examines the key critical responses to the full range of Barker's fiction from newspaper reviews and journal articles to revealing interviews and book length scholarship Merritt Moseley also explores the central themes which run through Barker's novels and the criticism such as the issues of gender class social realism violence and trauma Tracing the development of Barker's fiction through the surrounding critical works this is an indispensable volume for anyone with an interest in one of Britain's most popular and widely studied contemporary writers

A Professional's Guide to Understanding Trauma and Loss David E. Balk, Tracy Wong, Janet R. Balk, 2023-06-05

The purpose of this book is to provide vital information regarding loss and trauma to practicing counselors and therapists Trauma and loss are pervasive presenting problems many counselors and therapists possess scant understanding of trauma and loss and little if any attention is paid to trauma or to loss in the graduate training of clinical psychology and counseling psychology students The book is organized into four sections which cover an overview of loss and trauma key conceptual frameworks for understanding loss and trauma review of several types of events producing trauma and loss and interventions addressing loss and trauma A key contribution of the book is the focus on losses caused by death and losses due to other reasons The contributions to practice include the overview of what is known about trauma and about loss examination of several frameworks for organizing both understanding of and working with traumatized and bereaved clients rich descriptive cases of individuals coping with various traumatic events and the losses embedded in the trauma and presentation of various interventions including changes that can be made in the graduate education of practitioners

The Long Shadow David Reynolds, 2013-11-07

In Britain we have lost touch with the Great War Our overriding sense now is of a meaningless futile bloodbath in the mud of Flanders of young men whose lives were cut off in their prime for no evident purpose But by reducing the conflict to personal tragedies however moving we have lost the big picture the history has been distilled into poetry In The Long Shadow critically acclaimed author David Reynolds seeks to redress the balance by exploring the true impact of 1914-18 on the 20th century Some of the Great War's legacies were negative and pernicious but others proved transformative in a positive sense Exploring big themes such as democracy and empire nationalism and capitalism and re-examining the differing impacts of the War on Britain Ireland and the United States The Long Shadow throws light on the whole of the last century and demonstrates that 1914-18 is a conflict that Britain more than any other nation is still struggling to comprehend Stunningly broad in its historical perspective The Long Shadow is a magisterial and seismic re-presentation of the Great War

Collective Traumas Conny Mithander, 2007

Collective Traumas is about the traumatic European history of the 20th century war genocide dictatorship ethnic cleansing and how individuals communities and nations have dealt with their dark past through remembrance historiography and legal settlements Memories and especially collective memories serve as foundations for national identities and are politically charged Regardless whether memory is used to support or to challenge established ideologies it is inevitably subject to political tensions Consequently memory history and amnesia tend to be used and abused for different political and ideological purposes From the perspectives of historical literary and visual studies the essays focus on how the experiences of war and profound conflict have been represented and remembered in different national cultures and communities This volume is a vital contribution to memory studies and trauma theory Collective Traumas is a result of the multidisciplinary research project on Memory Culture that was initiated in 2002 at Karlstad University Sweden A previous publication with Peter Lang is Memory Work The Theory and Practice of Memory 2005      Twentieth Century Neurology F. Variations of the Hero's Journey in Contemporary British, French and Australian Picture Books about the Great War Martin C. Kerby, Denise Burkhard, Alison Bedford, Marion Gymnich, Margaret M. Baguley, 2025-09-30 This book is grounded in the belief that every nation had its own Great War and that children's picture books are an important barometer of each country's national approach To explore the depiction of the Great War in modern Australian British and French children's picture books where this historical event is reimagined in different ways as a futile conflict as a painful victory and as part of one country's founding mythology this book uses the concept of the hero's journey as an underlying framework It claims that this monomythic pattern as developed by Joseph Campbell and modified by Christopher Vogler not only informs all picture books selected for this project but can also be used to highlight the extent to which modern children's picture book authors and illustrators conform to their respective nation's cultural memory. It further maintains that the specific historical context of the Great War in these children's picture books can be used to identify a variant of the hero's journey: the ordinary soldier's journey. This analysis of children's picture books about the Great War through the lens of Campbell's hero's journey will be of interest to both students and researchers in the fields of children's literature, literary theory, history, cultural studies, and education.

The History of Emotions Jan Plamper, 2015. The history of emotions is one of the fastest growing fields in current historical debate and this is the first book-length introduction to the field synthesizing the current research and offering direction for future study. The History of Emotions is organized around the debate between social constructivist and universalist theories of emotion that has shaped most emotions research in a variety of disciplines for more than a hundred years. Social constructivists believe that emotions are largely learned and subject to historical change while universalists insist on the timelessness and pan-culturalism of emotions. In historicizing and problematizing this binary Jan Plamper opens emotions research beyond constructivism and universalism; he also maps a vast terrain of thought about feelings in anthropology, philosophy, sociology, linguistics, art history, political science, the life sciences from nineteenth-century experimental psychology to the latest affective neuroscience and history from ancient times to the present day.

Defamiliarizing the Aboriginal Julia Emberley, 2007-01-01. In Defamiliarizing the Aboriginal Julia V. Emberley examines the historical production of aboriginality in colonial cultural practices and its impact on the everyday lives of indigenous women, youth, and children.

Words on Cassette, 1999. Henri de Rothschild, 1872-1947 Harry W. Paul, 2011. This is a fascinating and vividly written study of Henri de Rothschild, a somewhat neglected figure in the history of the illustrious Rothschild family. It will make a valuable addition to the libraries of scholars from several branches of the history of medicine and those studying child health and welfare; the portrayal of doctors in literature and more broadly the social and cultural life of early twentieth-century Paris.
