chapters show how contemporary Britain is engaging with the past project to build socialism in Europe and what this means for the present and the future of our continent Contributions come from a wide range of disciplinary and geographical backgrounds and the volume is further enriched by a short story especially written for this book and by an in depth interview with the author of a recent popular history of the GDR Together these chapters offer a unique perspective into contemporary British writing on the second world and the enduring fascination with the failures of futures past Sheng-mei Ma, 2000 Asian American resistance to Orientalism the Western tradition dealing with the subject and subjugation of the East is usually assumed And yet as this provocative work demonstrates in order to refute racist stereotypes they must first be evoked and in the process the two often become entangled Sheng mei Ma shows how the distinguished careers of post 1960s Asian American writers such as Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Frank Chin and David Henry Hwang reveal that while Asian American identity is constructed in reaction to Orientalism the two cultural forces are not necessarily at odds The vigor with which these Asian Americans revolt against Orientalism in fact tacitly acknowledges the family lineage of the New York Magazine, 1995-10-16 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and guickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as Culture and the Rites/Rights of Grief Zbigniew Białas, Paweł Jedrzejko, Julia both a place and an idea Szołtysek, 2013-09-20 Although generally resented and deemed unfavourable for individuals societies and nations grief grievance and grieving along with a complex list of epithets that could under varying circumstances accompany them racial grief political grievance protracted grieving chronic grief traumatic unresolved grievance nevertheless occupy a significant place in culture and its manifestations in literature art history science and politics Culture and the Rites Rights of Grief offers an intellectual excursion into realms of potentially regenerative problematics too frequently dismissed without due consideration In this light the volume constitutes a weighty contribution to the field of literary and cultural studies First and foremost however Culture and the Rites Rights of Grief is to be intellectually enjoyed by readers with an interest in present day literary cultural and political phenomena at the intersection of which grief and grieving execute an imposing presence albeit one that remains as indeterminate and flitting as the nature of contemporary cross cultural and cross disciplinary Extraterritorial Matthew Hart, 2020-08-25 The future of fiction is neither global nor national Instead Matthew encounters Hart argues it is trending extraterritorial Extraterritorial spaces fall outside of national borders but enhance state power They cut across geography and history but do not point the way to a borderless new world They range from the United Nations headquarters and international waters to CIA black sites and the departure zones at international airports The political geography of the present Hart shows has come to resemble a patchwork of such spaces Hart reveals extraterritoriality s centrality to twenty first century art and fiction He shows how extraterritorial fictions expose the way states construct global space in their own interests Extraterritorial novels teach us not to mistake cracks or gradations in political geography for a crisis of the state Hart demonstrates how the unstable character of many twenty first century aesthetic forms can be traced to the increasingly extraterritorial nature of contemporary political geography Discussing writers such as Margaret Atwood J G Ballard Amitav Ghosh Chang rae Lee Hilary Mantel and China Mi ville as well as artists like Hito Steyerl and Mark Wallinger Hart combines lively critical readings of contemporary novels with historical and theoretical discussions about sovereignty globalization cosmopolitanism and postcolonialism Extraterritorial presents a new theory of literature that explains what happens when dreams of an open connected world confront the reality of mobile elastic and tenacious borders Time's Fool A.
