Contemporary Fiction and Science from Amis to McEwan Rachel Holland, 2019-04-26 This book identifies in contemporary fiction a new type of novel at the interface of science and the humanities working from the premise that a shift has taken place in the relations between the two cultures in the last two or three decades As popular science comes to assume an ever greater cultural significance contemporary authors are engaging in new ways with ideas that it disseminates A new literary phenomenon is emerging in which the focus on language based theories of the self and the world that has been predominant in the latter half of the previous century is making way for a

renewed commitment to the material facts both of human existence and the universe beyond subjectivity The book analyses the work of Martin Amis William Boyd David Lodge Richard Powers Michel Houellebecq Jonathan Franzen Margaret Atwood and Ian McEwan revealing the ways in which these third culture novels negotiate the relationship between literature and science Live Literature Ellen Wiles, 2021-05-21 This ground breaking book explores the phenomenal growth of live literature in the digitalizing 21st century Wiles asks why literary events appeal and matter to people and how they can transform the ways in which fiction is received and valued Readers are immersed in the experience of two contrasting events a major literary festival and an intimate LGBTQ salon Evocative scenes and observations are interwoven with sharp critical analysis and entertaining conversations with well known author performers reader audiences producers critics and booksellers Wiles's experiential literary ethnography represents an innovative and vital contribution not just to literary research but to research into the value of cultural experience across art forms This book probes intersections between readers and audiences writers and performers texts and events bodies and memories and curation and reception It addresses key literary debates from cultural appropriation to diversity in publishing the effects of social media and the quest for authenticity It will engage a broad audience from academics and producers to writers and audiences Hospice Palliative Home Care and Bereavement Support Lorraine Holtslander, Shelley Peacock, Jill Bally, 2019-07-17 This book provides an unique resource for registered nurses working in hospice palliative care at home and for the community outside of acute care settings and also incorporates literature related to palliative care in acute health care settings as part of the overall services and supports required Very few resources exist which specifically address hospice palliative care in the home setting despite the fact that most palliative care occurs outside acute care settings and is primarily supported by unpaid family caregivers An overview of the concerns for individuals and families as well as specific nursing interventions from all ages would be an excellent support for nursing students and practicing registered nurses alike The book structure begins with a description of the goals and objectives of hospice palliative care and the nursing role in providing excellent supportive care Chapters include research findings and specifically research completed by the authors in the areas of pediatric palliative care palliative care for those with dementia and the needs of family caregivers in bereavement Interventions developed by the editors are provided in this book such as the Finding Balance Intervention for bereaved caregivers the Reclaiming Yourself tool for bereaved spouses of partners with dementia and The Keeping Hope Possible Toolkit for families of children with life threatening and life limiting illnesses The development and application of these theory based interventions are also highlighted Videos and vignettes written by family caregivers about what was helpful for them provide a patient and family centered approach div The book will benefit nursing students educators and practicing registered nurses by providing information theory and evidence from research The End of Time Gavin Extence, 2019-07-25 I loved The End of Time It is without doubt one of my top reads of 2019 I walked every mile with Zain Mohammed and Jesus Even when their epic journey

, 2014-07 Euthanasia and the Ethics of a Doctor's Decisions Ole Hartling, 2021-04-22 Why do so many doctors have profound misgivings about the push to legalise euthanasia and assisted suicide Ole Hartling uses his background as a physician university professor and former chairman of the Danish Council of Ethics to introduce new elements into what can often be understood as an all too simple debate Alive to the case that assisted dying can be driven by an unattainable yearning for control Hartling concentrates on two fundamental questions whether the answer to suffering is to remove the sufferer and whether self determination in dying and death is an illusion He draws on his own experience as a medical doctor to personalize the ethical arguments share patients narratives and make references to medical literature Here is a sceptical stance towards euthanasia one that is respectful to those who hold different opinions and well informed about the details and nuances of different euthanasia practices Written from a Scandinavian perspective where respect for autonomy and high quality palliative care go hand in hand Hartling s is a nuanced valuable contribution to the arguments that surround a question doctors have faced since the birth of medicine He shows us how the intentions of doing something good can sometimes lead to even greater dilemmas opening us up to those situations where an inclination to end suffering by ending life is deeply conflicting both for the clinician and for any fellow human being The Coincidence Authority John Ironmonger,2013-09-12 For fans of THE UNLIKELY PILGRIMAGE OF HAROLD FRY THE ADJUSTMENT BUREAU Mark Watson and Mark Haddon here is a cleverly written mystery about fate circumstance destiny and coincidence from COSTA AWARD shortlisted author John Ironmonger This quirky read is hard to put down and spans philosophy conflict relationships and romance Thomas Post is an expert on coincidences He s an authority People come to see him to ask him if he can explain strange events that have befallen them and he can always explain these things away We poor humans he would say have a tendency to make patterns out of random shapes or to construct meaning from the random behaviour of the universe But one day Thomas gets a visit from Azalea Lewis and his world will never be the same again For Azalea s coincidences seem to go off the scale The lives of Thomas and Azalea become entwined their destinies entangled And now with Azalea apparently dead in a foreign land Thomas must reassemble the pieces of her life in search for the patterns that drove it And that means he must try to unravel the coincidences that so afflicted her Jumping Sharks and Dropping Mics Gareth Carrol,2022-02-25 Gareth Carrol presents a collection of modern idioms which have become a part of our vocabulary in the past 50 years or so In most cases idioms such as raining cats and dogs that colour our everyday communication are deeply rooted in culture and history However just like words new idioms emerge in language and many have entered our vocabulary through TV movies and the internet These modern idioms can be dated very precisely Jumping Sharks and Dropping Mics finds the origins of these idioms and charts their development Ostrich Matt Greene,2013-09-05 Growing up is hard enough without a deadline Alex s parents know something he doesn t They know what s happening inside his head Alex is more interested in what s happening outside it He has homework to do and a marriage to save The clock is ticking But there s still time to win the heart of Chloe Gower Laugh out loud funny and cry out loud sad Ostrich is a book about what happens when you have to lift your head from the sand His parents The Wreckage Robin Morgan-Bentley,2020-02-06 One fatal crash Ben is driving on the motorway on his usual commute to the school where he works A day like any other except for the crash Two colliding worlds Adam has left his home for the last time In his final despairing act he jumps in front of Ben s car turning the teacher s world upside down Three wrecked lives Wracked with guilt Ben seeks out Alice Adam s widow and her 7 year old son Max But as he tries to escape the trauma of the wreckage could Ben go too far in trying to ease his conscience Gripping and sinister The Wreckage is guaranteed to keep you up all night A terrific debut exploring the vulnerabilities and
