Fire of Mercy, Heart of the Word, Vol. 4 Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis, 2021-05-20 To the unstudied eye St Matthew s gospel can seem a terse narrative almost a historical document and not the tremendously spiritual and doctrinal storehouse that it is In his fourth and final volume of meditations on Matthew chapters 26 28 Erasmo Leiva continues to show Matthew s prose to be not terse so much as economical astoundingly so given its depth The lay reader can derive great profit from reading this

Each short meditation comments on a verse or two pointing to some facet of the text not immediately apparent but rich with meaning Leiva's work is scholarly but eminently approachable by the lay reader The tone is very much of taste and see how good the Lord is and an invitation of friend come up higher The goal of the book is to help the reader experience the heat of the divine heart and the light of the divine Word and aims at prayer as the final result of a fruitful encounter with the Word of God Leiva comments on the Greek text demonstrating nuances in the text that defy translation He uses numerous quotes from the Fathers and the Liturgy of the Church to demonstrate the way the Tradition has lived and read the Word of God His theological reflection vivifies doctrine by seeking its roots in the words and actions of Jesus Points of Interest Long awaited final volume in a widely beloved and deeply rich series of scripture study and meditation Scholarly but eminently approachable by the lay reader Theological reflection that vivifies doctrine by seeking its roots in the words and actions of Jesus Aims at prayer as the final result of a fruitful encounter with the Word of God

Images of Redemption Patrick Sherry, 2003-05-01 After discussing the arts of redemption and their rivals and introducing soteriology the theology of salvation Patrick Sherry argues that the Christian Drama of Redemption has three Acts The next five chapters discuss the three Acts namely salvation history our present human life and the life to come In each case Sherry explains how art and literature can lead to an understanding of what is at stake here His main concern is with the present life hence three of those chapters deal with that phase of redemption one of them specifically with novels of redemption The last substantial chapter of the book takes up the general issue of how art and literature contribute to religious understanding Sherry argues that they may be primary expressions of religious belief as well as illustrations and that as such they may criticise or complement theology or in turn be open to criticism themselves from that quarter Finally he summarises the main theme and briefly discusses some of the particular problems of assessing the arts of redemption The book's most distinctive feature is the way in which it uses art and literature as a means of religious and theological understanding It is not a survey of the arts of redemption though it uses a wide variety of examples including ancient Greek drama Flemish and Italian painting religious music and 19th 20th century novels These examples are used as a tool for understanding what is one of the most difficult areas of theology

The East, 1997 Acts of Faith and Imagination Brent Little, Mark Bosco, SJ, 2023-08-04 Acts of Faith and Imagination wagers that fiction written by Catholic authors assists readers to reflect critically on the question what is faith To speak of a person's faith life is to speak of change and development As a narrative form literature can illustrate the dynamics of faith which remains in flux over the course of one's life Because human beings must possess faith in something whether religious or not it inevitably has a narrative structure faith ebbs and flows flourishes and decays develops and stagnates Through an exploration of more than a dozen Catholic authors novels and short stories Brent Little argues that Catholic fiction encourages the reader to reflect upon their faith holistically that is the way faith informs one's affections and how a person conceives and interacts with the world as embodied beings Amidst the diverse stories of modern and contemporary fiction a consistent pattern emerges Catholic fiction portrays faith at its most fundamental often unconscious level as an act of the imagination Faith is the way one imagines themselves others and creation A person's primary faith conditions how they live in the world regardless of the level of conscious reflection and regardless of whether this is a religious faith Acts of Faith and Imagination investigates the creative depth and vitality of the Catholic literary imagination by bringing late modern Catholic authors into dialogue with more contemporary ones Readers will then consider well known works such as those by Graham Greene Flannery O'Connor and Muriel Spark in the fresh light of contemporary stories by Toni Morrison Alice McDermott Uwem Akpan and several others

Fire of Mercy, Heart of the Word Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis, 2021-09-01 To the unstudied eye St Matthew's Gospel can seem a terse narrative almost a historical document and not the tremendously spiritual and doctrinal storehouse that it is In his fourth and final volume of meditations on Matthew chapters 26-28 Father Simeon formerly Erasmo Leiva Merikakis continues to show Matthew's prose to be not so much terse as economical astoundingly so given its depth The lay reader can derive great profit from reading this book Each short meditation comments on a verse or two pointing to some facet of the text not immediately apparent but rich with meaning Father Simeon's work is scholarly but eminently approachable by the lay reader The tone is very much of taste and see how good the Lord is and an invitation of friend come up higher The goal of the book is to help the reader experience the heat of the divine Heart and the light of the divine Word The author addresses both the objective and subjective levels of the Word of God both what it is in itself and what impact it ought to have in our lives Father Simeon comments on the Greek text demonstrating nuances in the text that defy translation He uses numerous quotes from the Fathers and the Liturgy of the Church to demonstrate the way the Tradition has lived and read the Word of God His theological reflection vivifies doctrine by seeking its roots in the words and actions of Jesus He shows that ultimately the text of the Gospel serves only one purpose to make possible a living encounter with the person of Jesus Christ an encounter that is wholly life transforming Every effort therefore has been made throughout the commentary to show how the presence of Christ in the world has changed the very nature of both history and human experience
