The Scent of Water Elizabeth Goudge, 2022-05-03 A captivating story filled with English charm luminous wisdom and astonishing spiritual insight Mary Lindsay is a born and bred Londoner who has enjoyed her city life a prestigious job and friends with whom she takes in the city pleasures of theatre art and music But fleeting memories of a childhood visit to her father's elderly cousin out in the country are revived with the news that the woman has willed her home the Laurels to Mary She makes an uncharacteristically sudden and life changing decision to leave London for the country The gradual unfolding of her understanding of herself of the now deceased woman who has bequeathed her home to Mary and of the people of Appleshaw all weave together in a most memorable story of love's redemptive power Listening Prayer Leanne Payne, 1999-03-01 Shows readers how they can experience a fuller more meaningful prayer life by learning how to listen to God Book Girl Sarah Clarkson, 2018-09-04 When you hear a riveting story does it thrill your heart and stir your soul Do you hunger for truth and goodness Do you secretly relate to Belle's delight in the library in Beauty and the Beast If so you may be on your way to being a book girl Books were always Sarah Clarkson's delight Raised in the company of the lively Anne of Green Gables the brave Pevensie children of Narnia and the wise Austen heroines she discovered reading early on as a daily gift a way of encountering the world in all its wonder But what she came to realize as an adult was just how powerfully books had shaped her as a woman to live a story within that world to be a lifelong learner to grasp hope in struggle and to create and act with courage She's convinced that books can do the same for you Join Sarah in exploring the reading life as a gift and an adventure one meant to enrich broaden and delight you in each season of your life as a woman In Book Girl you'll discover how reading can strengthen your spiritual life and deepen your faith why a journey through classic literature might be just what you need and where to begin how stories form your sense of identity how Sarah's parents raised her to be a reader and what you can do to cultivate a love of reading in the growing readers around you and 20 annotated book lists including some old favorites and many new discoveries Whether you've long considered yourself a reader or have dreams of becoming one Book Girl will draw you into the life giving journey of becoming a woman who reads and lives well The Emerald Archive Gary Freedman, 2019-05-16 The Emerald Archive is a novel in verse about a Jewish Iranian emigre family living in Manhattan The book is a theme and variations It opens with a three page prose theme that summarizes the plot of the entire book The remaining pages are a series of poems that function as a collection of variations on the theme The story unfolds through the poems The final page in prose ties together the themes of the book The major characters of The Emerald Archive include a high earning dental surgeon and his depressive wife a gay librarian an accounting student a stripper a concert pianist and a Park Avenue psychoanalyst There are numerous minor characters The Candle in the Forest, 2007-10-16 Eight treasured tales will charm young readers and journaling pages will turn this book into a keepsake Gather the family and pass on the tradition of sharing stories of faith hope and love Sauntering Through Scripture

Genevieve Glen,2018-07-11 The Bible presents a landscape rich with characters whose stories and prophecies wisdom and woes parables and prayers describe our very human struggle to know and respond to the love of God Repeated reading and retelling make these texts familiar and yet we encounter them anew in these fresh intimate and sometimes startling reflections by master storyteller Genevieve Glen OSB Sr Genevieve writes with a vivid and poetic imagination Drawing on her life of monastic prayer and the practice of Lectio Divina a life saturated in Scripture she pulls us deeply into these stories Sauntering through this holy ground with her we enter small villages and busy towns sheepfolds and gardens a nomad s tent and a rich man s house a stable in Bethlehem and the great temple in Jerusalem Most of all we encounter the transforming message and mercy of God in Jesus Christ

At the Still Point Sarah Arthur,2011-06-01 This is a guide to prayer for the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time that long stretch from Pentecost to Advent However it is not an ordinary guide to prayer It does not contain readings from spiritual or devotional writings discussing spiritual or devotional things through discursive thought Rather it is a journey of the imagination guided by poets and authors both classic and contemporary who have known the things of God but speak in metaphor These are writers who tell the truth as Emily Dickinson put it but they tell it slant In not stating out loud what they know they have left much to our imaginations which is a way of saying they have trusted the Holy Spirit

The One Year Coffee with God Sarah Arthur,2012-01-05 There s nothing quite like the aroma of freshly brewed coffee to start your day And what better way to spend those first few morning moments than in quiet reflection with God In a warm casual conversational style Sarah Arthur takes you on a transformational journey as she explores both the subtle and the startling ways God transforms us through daily spiritual routines such as prayer and living simply Part personal story and part spiritual search The One Year Coffee with God will fill your cup with plenty of brew for thought
