Transculturating Auto/Biography Rosalia Baena, 2013-10-18 Rosalia Baena's theoretically challenging analytical volume of essays explores the diversity of shapes that transcultural life writing takes demonstrating how it has become one of the most dynamic and productive literary forms of self inscription and self representation Expanding much of the contemporary criticism on life writing which tends to centre on content the essays highlight that reading contemporary forms of life writing from a literary perspective is a rich field of critical intervention that has been overlooked because of recent cultural studies concerns with material issues To read life writing as primarily cultural texts undercuts much of its value as a complex dynamic of cultural production where aesthetic concerns and the choice and manipulation of form serve as signifying aspects to experiences and subjectivities This book was previously published as a special issue of Prose Studies

Perpetual Refugee Catherine Minyee Fung, 2010 Why Vietnam Margaret Colbert Brown, 2025-03-30 Explores the complex reasons behind the USA's involvement in Vietnam analyzing political social and military factors The reasons behind the USA's involvement in Vietnam remain a subject of extensive debate Initially America supported the French until their defeat at Dien Bien Phu which then shifted to backing the South Vietnamese government due to fears of communism spreading throughout Southeast Asia Why Vietnam delves into the myriad reasons for US involvement examining theories that date back to 1918 when Woodrow Wilson ignored Ho Chi Minh's plea for independence at the Treaty of Versailles through to Johnson's full commitment to the undeclared war which restrained the military to a defensive role in protecting South Vietnam instead of an offensive one that would send troops across the DMZ into Laos and Cambodia The questions of why the USA became involved whether their involvement was justified and if the war was ever winnable have been fiercely debated for over 50 years This book seeks to address these whys by providing a thorough examination of all contributing factors from presidential actions to foreign policy and the social and political climates of the war era
