Re-Siting Queen's English, 2022-07-11 SOCRATES Bushra Juhi Jani, Frédéric Dumas, Farough Fakhimi Anbaran, Alexandros Schismenos, Dr. Samuel J.M. Kahn, Prof. Madhurima Lall, Smt. Anjana Mohan, Dayadhar Raj Srivastava, Lloyd Delroy McCarthy, Ghufan Naseem, 2015-03-14 SOCRATES is an international multi lingual multi disciplinary refereed and indexed scholarly journal produced as part of the Harvard Dataverse Network This journal appears quarterly in English Hindi Persian in 22 disciplines About this Issue This issue of Socrates has been divided into five sections The first section of this issue is Language Literature English The first article of this section deals with Pierre Bourdieu's concept of symbolic or soft violence in Margaret Drabble's latest novel The Pure Gold Baby 2013 The second article of this section tends to analyse Connection in Richard Ford's A Multitude of Sins The third article of this section applies the formalistic approach to scrutinize the two poems of William Butler Yeats The second section of this issue is Philosophy The first article of this section analyzes the epistemological limit that separates the superhero fictitious universe from our universe of causal reality The second article of this section argues that whatever might be said about his attack on other German philosophers Santayana's attack on Kant despite its subtlety its force and its intelligence is fundamentally misguided The third section of this issue is Economics Commerce and Management In the first paper of this section authors have examined how when and to what extent Strategic Human Resource Practices affect performance at the employee level The second article of this section explores some of the important aspects of effective mobile money and digital financial services in bringing financial inclusion The fourth section of this issue is Politics Law and Governance The article in this section explores the African Union s AU science and technology plan and strategy for Africa within the construct of Kwame Nkrumah s socio political thought The fifth section of this issue The new Book reviews AamNama by renowned scholar and poet Suhail Kakorvi     The History of British Women's Writing, 1970-Present Mary Eagleton, Emma Parker, 2016-04-29 This book maps the most active and vibrant period in the history of British women s writing Examining changes and continuities in fiction poetry drama and journalism as well as women s engagement with a range of literary and popular genres the essays in this volume highlight the range and diversity of women s writing since 1970     Literature of the 1980s: After the Watershed Joseph Brooker, 2012-05-08 From the new generation of London novelists such as Martin Amis and Ian McEwan to feminism in the writing of Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson Joseph Brooker relates developments in fiction poetry and drama to social change He shows how working class writers such as James Kelman and Tony Harrison protested against Thatcherism and explores the voices of Black British writers including Fred D Aguiar and Hanif Kureishi As for the theory of the decade Brooker relates the rise of postmodernism to the popularity of self conscious modes of writing and other developments in literary theory     The Polyphony of Food Irina Perianova, 2013-01-03 The Polyphony of Food explores food as a multiple discourse in the context of Abraham Maslow s theory of the hierarchy of human needs and motivations In Maslow s theory food as a basic psychological need belongs to the tier of D deficit needs However it is the author s assumption that food and eating cut across the whole hierarchical board of human motivations In many cases food takes on compensatory functions and stands for other needs thus satisfying the entire range of D and even of B being needs Food is an expression of material culture and marks dominant social distinctions in society such as gender class religion age profession and ethnicity Apart from being highly ritualized food serves to highlight what people find beautiful or ugly what they view as acceptable and unacceptable proper or improper Numerous illustrations and anecdotes aim to prove that food and meals are a means to feel safe and secure to affirm cultural and social identity and to serve as a vehicle of bonding affiliation belonging acceptance love and esteem as well as a means of self actualization A special emphasis is placed on the concept of food appropriateness which is linked to politeness and viewed from several standpoints     The English Novel in History, 1950 to the Present Professor Steven Connor, Steven Connor, 2008-03-07 Steven Connor provides in depth analyses of the novel and its relationship with its own form with contemporary culture and with history He incorporates an extensive and varied range of writers in his discussions such as George Orwell William Golding Angela Carter Doris Lessing Timothy Mo Hanif Kureishi Marina Warner Maggie Gee Written by a foremost scholar of contemporary culture and theory The English Novel in History 1950 to the Present offers not only a survey but also a historical and cultural context to British literature produced in the second half of this century      Forces of Nature Bernadette H. Hyner, 2009-03-26 In Forces of Nature the authors investigate the relationships between the natural world and gender and sexuality The authors explore the frameworks within which femininity and nature have been constructed as well as the impact nature has had on our understandings of masculinity homosexuality and heterosexuality For some writers nature has restorative powers for others nature embodies violence and destruction Yet one common thread runs across all of the chapters in this collection nature and animals can not be separated from the human experience Forces of Nature brings to light the intimate connection humans have with the natural world and provides students and scholars with innovative readings of both canonical and noncanonical texts      Bodies in the Bog and the Archaeological Imagination Karin Sanders, 2009-12 Over the past few centuries northern Europe's bogs have yielded mummified men women and children who were deposited there as sacrifices in the early Iron Age and kept startlingly intact by the chemical properties of peat In this remarkable account of their modern afterlives Karin Sanders argues that the discovery of bog bodies began an extraordinary and ongoing cultural journey Throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Sanders shows these eerily preserved remains came alive in art and science as material metaphors for such concepts as trauma nostalgia and identity Sigmund Freud Joseph Beuys Seamus Heaney and other major figures have used them to reconsider fundamental philosophical literary aesthetic and scientific concerns Exploring this intellectual spectrum Sanders contends that the power of bog bodies to provoke such a wide range of responses is rooted in their unique status as both archeological artifacts and human beings They emerge as corporeal time capsules that transcend archaeology to challenge our assumptions about what we can know about the past By restoring them to the roster of cultural phenomena that force us to confront our ethical and aesthetic boundaries Bodies in the Bog excavates anew the question of what it means to be human      They Used to Call Me Snow White ... But I Drifted Gina Barreca, 2013 Published by Viking in 1991 and issued as a paperback through Penguin Books in 1992 Snow White became an instant classic for both academic and general audiences interested in how women use humor and what others men think about funny women Barreca who draws on the work of scholars writers and comedians to illuminate a sharp critique of the gender specific aspects of humor provides laughs and provokes arguments as she shows how humor helps women break rules and occupy center stage Barreca's new introduction provides a funny and fierce up to the minute account of the fate of women's humor over the past twenty years mapping what has changed in our culture and questioning what hasn't      Science, Fables and Chimeras Philippe Murillo, Laurence Roussillon-Constanty, 2013-11-25 The history of science provides numerous examples of the way in which imagination religion and mythology have sometimes helped and sometimes hindered scientific progress While established ideas and beliefs clearly held back the discoveries of Copernicus Galileo and Darwin the intuitive knowledge found in mythology art and religion has often proved useful in indicating new ways in which to explore or represent new knowledge of the world Stories fables and images have contributed to drawing a fuller picture of the past understanding the present and imagining the future The essays in this book written by academics writers and artists from various fields ranging from La Fontaine s fables to nanotechnology and modern art all point out the ways in which imagination works its way into all the fields of knowledge At both ends of the spectrum the hybrid nature of the chimera emerges as a pivotal symbol of both man s predation instinct and a powerful symbol of his fear of extinction This interdisciplinary book weaving together visual representation literature mysticism and science will appeal to historians of science philosophy art and religion It will also be of interest to scholars in cultural studies and anthropology Drawing on recent scientific research and artistic production the volume will additionally interest a wider audience wishing to learn more about man s obsession and fascination with the potent symbolism of dinosaurs and dragons and all hybrid forms generated by the human imagination and recent technology

Shakespearean Tragedy and Gender Shirley Nelson Garner, Madelon Sprengnether, 1996-02-22 Shakespeare is not our contemporary the contributors to Shakespearean Tragedy and Gender emphatically conclude yet coping with his cultural influence is never a simple matter Ranging from Shakespeare s earliest attempts at tragedy in Richard III and Titus Andronicus this volume covers the major tragic period giving special attention to Othello Back cover

Literature and The Contemporary Roger Luckhurst, Peter Marks, 2014-07-22 At the end of the century much criticism has become devoted to last things the end of history the end of the subject the end of the novel the end even of the end Literature and the Contemporary in contrast aims to provide through twelve essays evidence of the way in which the literature of the 1990s is constantly engaging in questions of memory and history and the representation of time in the present day The essays in the book survey theories of temporality from various cultural and philosophical standpoints and represent critics writing from feminist postcolonial and queer perspectives discussing literature in our time The collection addresses such central issues as the politics of memory colonial legacies women s time racial and sexual identities in the 1990s and covers a wide range of contemporary authors works and issues some of which are treated for the first time Among the contemporary works discussed are the prize winning books Graham Swift s Last Orders Anne Michaels Fugitive Pieces and Jane Smiley s A Thousand Acres While discussing some of the most significant novels of the 1990s this collection also offers a diverse yet cohesive critique of the millennial leanings of much postmodernist criticism which it argues should be replaced by more variously nuanced engagements with literature and the contemporary
