South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken,2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country s new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa s changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world Encyclopedia of Forms and Precedents for Pleading and Practice, at Common Law, in Equity, and Under the Various Codes and Practice Acts William Henry Michael,William Mack,Howard Pervear Nash,Thomas Edward O'Brien,James Cockcroft,1902

Silencing the Guns in Africa Antonio Garcia,Jacob Udo-Udo Jacob,2025-03-14 The scholarship of this book is drawn from local and international experts by framing critically a number of discourses on matters of security conflict violence and peace on the African continent It is indeed a breath of fresh air to the scientific community largely because it contributes to the on going debates on security issues Dr Ntsikelelo Benjamin Breakfast Director of the Center for Security Peace and Conflict Resolution at Nelson Mandela University This book makes a deep contribution to scholarly literature on conflict studies peacekeeping and peacebuilding in Africa Written largely from the perspective of the applied social sciences it is empirically rich and offers refreshing insights into social behaviour in military contexts This is a timely contribution because current public discourse in South Africa is centred on the gains and missed opportunities of thirty years of democracy and new lenses are welcome Many of the chapters reflect South African experiences This is to be welcomed as it demonstrates that scholars and practitioners from the country are reflecting on the complexities of South African experiences of defence and security matters in contemporary times Dr Sandy Africa Director of Research at Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA This volume brings together the voices of scholars and practitioners a diverse group of writers who are passionate about and committed to creating a safer more prosperous and peaceful Africa Each with their own specialism this work combines many different world views and approaches Conflict in Africa is an impossibly broad topic to cover in a single edited publication and so we focus on a select number of case studies expositions and themes

Suid-Afrikaanse Hofverslae, 2014 Building Peace from Within Maphosa, Sylvester B., DeLuca, Laura, Keasley, Alphonse, 2014-02-07 This book seeks to examine how successful models of building peace from within in the African context function It draws emerging lessons to provide critical recommendations on policy practice and academia our primary audience While there are numerous examples of failures of conflict resolution in Africa shown by intractable conflict axes less attention is paid to successes While acknowledging the challenges that exist this edited volume provides positive examples of building peace from within in fragile contexts through many forms of initiatives and actions at different levels community based through individual and or collective local peace initiatives government through ministries and or departments and regional through external and or multilateral infrastructure for peace As a guiding principle the notion of building peace from within draws from the idea of community regeneration which describes voluntary and peaceful activities of grassroots actors that reflect their broader interests of building peaceful communities and existence

Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo,Kudrat Virk,2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa It was rated the continent s largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20 It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa s post Apartheid foreign policy Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts the book examines the current pattern of the country s foreign relations in impressive detail The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa s foreign policy peace making defence and security bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa bilateral relations with the US China Britain France and Japan the country s key external multilateral relations with the UN the BRICS economic grouping the African Caribbean and Pacific Group ACP as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization WTO An essential resource for researchers the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies foreign policy history international relations international law security studies political economy and development studies A

Digest of New York Statutes and Reports ,1884 Replicating & Reproducing Policing Research Khadija Monk,Jacek Koziarski,2024-04-30 This book addresses the need for policing scholarship to strengthen its empirical cumulative knowledge base by replicating and reproducing earlier studies The chapters in this volume advance policing research by replicating and reproducing earlier studies investigating the generalizability of research findings and making data and research methods available to other researchers to encourage scientific exploration of previous research findings Each chapter addresses important scientific goals of validity reliability and generalizability which build our cumulative knowledge of what is known in policing research ultimately informing policymaking The book offers insights into why replicating and reproducing policing scholarship is critical from emphasizing the importance of making data and study material publicly available to facilitate replications and reproductions to reproducing studies in new contexts and cautioning against making policy making decisions based on studies that have not been replicated This volume highlights the immense value in shifting researchers priorities even slightly to focus less so on originality and innovation to make room for replications and reproductions thereby shedding light on how true empirical knowledge on policing and police practice is dependent on it This book was originally published as a special issue of Police Practice and Research

Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb, 2022-01-31 This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS By means of a historical analysis of South Africa this book introduces a new concept police frontierism which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police policing and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research Drawing on a wealth of research this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization

ECCWS 2022 21st European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security Thaddeus Eze, 2022-06-16

Stories of the Liberation Struggles in South Africa Prof. Thabo Israel Pudi, 2014-12-12 The Stories of the Liberation Struggles in South Africa Mpumalanga Province Book II is a continuation of the Stories of the Liberation struggle stories from Book I as told by the people of South Africa about their experiences and contributions to the ultimate victory over oppression domination and apartheid Many books and documentaries and even other forms of media when discussing the liberation struggles in South Africa have focused on stories or experiences as told by well known individuals This to some extent has created an impression that the struggle was fought by known individuals and leaders and it is only the known individuals and the leadership that have experienced the wrath of the police the army or the might of the South African regime In actual fact the truth is that the leadership was there to fuel and to organize the struggle and the masses Out of spontaneity and the resistance to oppression the struggle was automatically born In this book and Part II the contributors tell of stories about the struggle that they witnessed or have affected them directly Apartheid and oppression was in actual fact against all nonwhite people and not only against leaders The foot soldiers or people on the ground who waged the real battles when they destroyed targets and defied the state of emergencies and survive teargas and gunshots are the ones that will tell stories that even the so called leaders will have to hear and learn from them Some of the stories the stories of bravery the stories of sacrifice the stories of escape and the stories of resistance against the forces that were intend on undermining the human dignity of the black masses will be heard for the first time by some of the leadership that are still alive Suffice it to say that the reason is that the media reporting has been biased against these individuals who may have been perceived to be nobodies As is evident in this book they may be nobodies but the stories that they tell are worth the while It is indeed true that every story has more than one side the side told by the leadership the side told by the media which in many instances are driven by sensation or allegiance to the leadership and the side told by the others I marvel at the words of the wise that there are three sides to each story side of the story the other man side of the story and the true version of the story This book is not about to judge as to which side of the story is true or appropriate but to make available a platform from which even the unknown will have to tell their own stories about their suffering and the liberation struggles in South Africa Is it not better to read the stories from those who have experience of them rather than those who heard about them
