Ray, 2008-04-30 Speaking about the kind of filmmaking now known as Classic Hollywood the most popular and influential cinema ever invented Vincente Minnelli once gave away its secret I feel that a picture that stays with you is made up of a hundred or more hidden things They re things that the audience is not conscious of but that accumulate What are those hidden things Can we invent a method that will enable us to discover them Robert Ray attempts to answer those questions by looking closely at four movies from the 1930 1945 period when the

American studio system reached the peak of its economic and cultural power Grand Hotel The Philadelphia Story The Maltese Falcon and Meet Me in St Louis To avoid the predictable generalizations that have plagued film studies Ray works with the movies details Grand Hotel s room assignments or Meet Me in St Louis s ketchup which are treated as mysterious but promising clues By producing at least one entry for every letter of the alphabet Ray demonstrates that a movie s details have much to tell us The ABCs of Classic Hollywood is a movie primer a deceptively simple book that spells out a fascinating account of the most powerful storytelling system ever designed American Recreation Annual ,1960 Active Shooter Events and Response John P. Bowker's Complete Video Directory ,2000 Infantry ,2005 Rethinking Serial Murder, Spree Killing, and Atrocities Robert Shanafelt,Nathan W. Pino,2014-11-20 Multiple killings by serial or spree killers and the mass violence seen in war crimes and other atrocities have typically been understood as discrete category types which can foster the view that there are fundamentally different kinds of human beings including deviants who are born evil and innately given to sadism or a callous lack of empathy In contrast this book considers the violence of these deviants in terms of larger questions about human violence Therefore in addition to describing the life histories of a sample of individual serial and spree murderers the book includes analysis of macro level phenomena such as genocide mass rape and killing and torture occurring under conditions of war state authorization or political upheaval The chief claim of the book is that given the right combination of factors occurring at different levels of analysis virtually anyone can emerge as a killer or perpetrator of atrocities While it is crucial to understand individual killers in terms of the details of their biographies it is equally crucial to understand political atrocities in terms of the details of their histories and to see that persons and groups are always the product of complexly interacting assemblage processes
