Register Hans Jakob Christoph von Grimmelshausen, 1854 In and Out of the Ghetto R. Po-Chia Hsia, Hartmut Lehmann, 2002-04-30 During the 1920s much attention was paid to the history of Jews in Germany since the Enlightenment and the subject became popular again with renewed emphasis after 1945 Many historians were deeply committed to understanding and explaining the tragic path that led from the emancipation of the Jews to the Holocaust For a long time much less work was done on the history of Jews in Germany in earlier periods particularly the period between the late Middle Ages and the Enlightenment This book is the first comprehensive account of Jewish Gentile relations in central Europe from the fifteenth to the eighteenth century It lays particular emphasis on cultural economic social and political issues and incorporates much new research

Peasants and Jews in Medieval Germany Michael Toch, 2023-05-31 The studies collected here centre on the social and economic life of medieval Germany within a broader European context The first three articles engage the day to day workings of rural society literature verbal attack and the language of mediated settlement of conflicts lead to a nuanced view of social hierarchy in which the meek too have a say The next group examines some major elements of rural life dealing with technology resources ecology transport communication and credit In the second part the author focuses on the life of the Jews in Germany first charting the process of settlement of Jews in Germany the dynamics of social stratification and household composition and the impact of economics and persecution on settlement patterns A case study uncovers the motives and steps that led up to the expulsion of the Jews of Nuremberg in 1498 These themes are followed up into the early modern period when German Jewry mostly came to live a village life The last studies deal with the economic history of medieval European Jews including professions other than moneylending and with the function of women in economic life
