A Woman Without A Country Poems:

A Woman Without a Country Eavan Boland, 2014-09-01 The poems in Eavan Boland's new collection consider questions of inheritance and identity of what is handed down and what is lost Boland's poems are acts of preservation they are aware of the significance of objects memories words in keeping alive what we would otherwise lose without thinking At the same time they are a holding to account addressing the damage wrought by that other inheritance the art of empire the business of colony In the title sequence Boland seeks to restore voice and place to those who like her grandmother lived and died outside history skilled in silence

Citizen Poet Eavan Boland, 2024-09-24 At her death in 2020 Eavan Boland left a formidable body of work poems and prose Together they transformed Irish poetry and had a considerable influence throughout the English speaking world She was also a major essayist whose potent non fiction work challenged and changed Irish culture and society This collection of her most important essays combines autobiographical and critical reflections on the events and influences that shaped her life and work It includes work never before collected as well as draft chapters of the memoir Daughter that she was working on when she died This wise generous book published on what would have been Eavan Boland's 80th birthday tells the intertwined stories of her life and her writing her work as a writer who was also a mother and a daughter her sense of Ireland and exile and her evolving insights into how the poet can earn widen and share her freedoms As time went on Jody Allen Randolph writes Boland's prose grew clearer in focus and purpose she argued that a poet's work is not just to write their poems but also to contribute to the critique by which they will eventually be judged

The Traffic in Poems Meredith L. McGill, 2008 The transatlantic crossing of people and goods shaped nineteenth century poetry in surprising ways that cannot be fully understood through the study of separate national literary traditions American and British poetic cultures were bound by fascination envy influence rivalry recognition and piracy as well as by mutual fantasies about and competition over the Caribbean Drawing on examples such as Felicia Hemans's elaboration of the foundational American myth of Plymouth Rock Emma Lazarus's ambivalent welcome of Europe's cast off populations black abolitionist Mary Webb's European performances of Hiawatha and American reprints of Robert Browning and George Meredith the eleven essays in this book focus on poetic depictions of exile slavery immigration and citizenship and explore the often asymmetrical traffic between British and American poetic cultures

This book shows that Shakespeare continues to influence contemporary Irish literature through postcolonial dramaturgical epistemological and narratological means International critics examine a range of contemporary writers including Eavan Boland Marina Carr Brian Friel Seamus Heaney John McGahern Frank McGuinness Derek Mahon and Paul Muldoon and explore Shakespeare s tragedies histories and comedies as well as his sonnets Together the chapters demonstrate that Shakespeare continues to exert a pressure on Irish writing into the twenty first century sometimes because of and sometimes in spite of the fact that his writing is inextricably tied to the Elizabethan and Jacobean colonization of Ireland Contemporary Irish writers appropriate adopt adapt and strategize through their engagements with Shakespeare and indeed through his own engagement with the world around him four hundred years ago Contemporary Irish Women Poets Lucy Collins, 2015 Cover Contents Acknowledgements Abbreviations Introduction Memory Estrangement and the Poetic Text I Concepts 1 Lost Lands The Creation of Memory in the Poetry of Eavan Boland 2 Between Here and There Migrant Identities and the Contemporary Irish Woman Poet 3 Private Memory and the Construction of Subjectivity in Contemporary Irish Women s Poetry II Achievements 4 Eil an N Chuillean in s Spaces of Memory 5 Medbh McGuckian s Radical Temporalities 6 Catherine Walsh A Poetics of Flux 7 Vona Groarke Memory and Materiality Conclusion Memories of the Future Bibliography

Irish Expatriatism, Language and Literature Michael O'Sullivan, 2018-09-22 This book examines how Irishness as national narrative is consistently understood from a distance Irish Presidents critics and media initiatives focus on how Irishness is a global resource chiefly informed by the experiences of an Irish diaspora predominantly working in English while also reminding Irish people at home that Irish is the national tongue In returning to some of Ireland s major expat writers and international diplomats this book examines the economic reasons for their migration the opportunities they gained by working abroad sometimes for the British Empire and their experiences of writing and governing in non native English speaking communities such as China and Hong Kong It argues that their concerns about belonging loneliness the desire to buy a place back home and losing a language are shared by today s generation of social network expatriates On Elizabeth Bishop Colm Tóibín, 2025-02-04 A compelling portrait of a beloved poet from one of today s most acclaimed novelists In this book novelist Colm Tóibín offers a deeply personal introduction to the work and life of one of his most important literary influences the American poet Elizabeth Bishop Ranging across her poetry prose letters and biography Tibbitts creates a vivid picture of Bishop while also revealing how her work has helped shape his sensibility as a novelist and how her experiences of loss and exile resonate with his own What emerges is a compelling double portrait that will intrigue readers interested in both Bishop and Tibbitts For Tibbitts the secret of Bishop's emotional power is in what she leaves unsaid Exploring Bishop's famous attention to detail Tibbitts describes how Bishop is able to convey great emotion indirectly through precise descriptions of particular settings objects and events He examines how Bishop's attachment to the Nova Scotia of her childhood despite her later life in Key West and Brazil is related to her early loss of her parents and how this connection finds echoes in Tibbitts's life as an Irish writer who has lived in Barcelona New York and elsewhere Beautifully written and skillfully blending biography literary appreciation and descriptions of Tibbitts's travels to Bishop's Nova Scotia Key West and Brazil On Elizabeth Bishop provides a fresh and memorable look at a beloved poet even as it gives us a window into the mind of one of today's most acclaimed novelists

Post-Romantic Aesthetics in Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Stefanie John, 2021-06-23 This book demonstrates the legacies of Romanticism which animate the poetry and poetics of Eavan Boland Gillian Clarke John Burnside and Kathleen Jamie It argues that the English Romantic tradition serves as a source of inspiration and critical contention for these Irish Welsh and Scottish poets and it relates this engagement to wider concerns with gender nation and nature which have shaped contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland Covering a substantial number of works from the 1980s to the 2010s the book discusses how Boland and Clarke as women poets from the Republic of Ireland and Wales react to a male dominated and Anglocentric lyric tradition and thus rework notions of the Romantic It examines how Burnside and Jamie challenge adopt and revise Romantic aesthetics of nature and environment The book is the first in depth study to read Boland Clarke Burnside and Jamie as post Romantics By disentangling the aesthetic and critical conceptions of Romanticism which inform their inheritance it develops an innovative approach to the understanding of contemporary poetry and literary influence

The Life of Words David-Antoine Williams, 2020 Studies the role that etymologies and etymological thinking have played in the works of English language poets including Seamus Heaney R F Langley J H Prynne Geoffrey Hill and Paul Muldoon

Eavan Boland Jody Allen Randolph, 2013-11-26 In this powerful and authoritative study Jody Allen Randolph provides the fullest account yet of the work of a major figure in twentieth century Irish literature as well as in contemporary women's writing Eavan Boland's achievement in changing the map of Irish poetry is tracked and analyzed from her first poems to the present The book traces the evolution of that achievement guiding the reader through Boland's early attachment to Yeats her growing unease with the absence of women's writing her encounter with pioneering American poets like Sylvia Plath Elizabeth Bishop and Adrienne Rich and her eventual challenging amendments in poetry and prose to Ireland's poetic tradition Using research from private papers the book also traces a time of upheaval and change in Ireland exploring Boland's connection to Mary Robinson in a chapter that details the nexus of a woman president and a woman poet in a country that was resistant to both Finally this book invites the reader to share a compelling perspective on the growth of a poet described by one critic as Ireland's first great woman poet The Woman Without a Hole - & Other Risky Themes from Old Japanese Poems Robin D.
