Walter, 2022-05-30 Based on an incredible breadth of first hand testimony this is a unique collection of eyewitness accounts from World War I and II John Walter draws on meticulous research and the reminiscences of more than fifty snipers tracing their journeys from recruitment and selection through training combat and its aftermath to reveal a surprising commonality of experience even across nationalities Laying bare the triumphs and brutalities of sniping the personalities and psychologies of those who found themselves doing it and considering the immediate implications on both the sniper and the wider theatre of war this is a fascinating detailed insight into frontline combat and the experience of sharpshooting in its historical context The book is appended with the complete diary of Russian sniper Roza Shanina who is still celebrated today for her remarkable shooting accuracy and astonishing bravery Her diary offers a rare insight into the complexities of what it was to be both a sniper and a woman on the frontline The Battle for Kyiv Christopher A Lawrence, 2024-01-18 An account drawn from the individual experiences of those on the ground in and around Kyiv On 24 February 2022 the President of Russia Vladimir Putin unleashed an attack on Ukraine that developed into the most significant conflict in Europe since the Second World War Fought over the same ground that the Germans and the Soviet Union battled on between 1941 and 1944 Russia attempted to advance to the Ukrainian capital of Kyiv and replace its president Volodymyr Zelenskyy with a puppet regime Facing determined resistance the Russians failed to reach the city being compelled to withdraw and redirect their forces to other fronts The Battle of Kyiv tells the story of the heroic resilience of the Ukrainians over the military forces of a country which has more than three times its population and an economy almost ten times larger This book is also an analysis of the enormous support given to Ukraine both politically and militarily by NATO and other nations without which Ukraine's military might have failed to beat back the invaders The author explores the first phase of the war during which Russian armor mechanized and air mobile troops drove on Kyiv surrounded Chernigov seized Kherson twice and threatened the very existence of the Ukrainian state The United States intelligence services estimated that the Russians would seize Kyiv within three days They offered to evacuate President Zelensky back to Lvov His alleged response to the Americans was I need ammunition not a ride He and his government stayed in Kyiv and the battle lines were drawn The Russians continued their offensive As well as bearing down on Kyiv and Kherson Putin s troops also threatened Chernigov Sumy Kharkov Mykolaiv and the beleaguered port city of Mariupol This book covers all the fighting for these areas up until Russia s subsequent withdraw from the region around Kyiv It addresses the military operations on the ground the destruction of the buildings and the Ukrainian infrastructure the suffering of the civilian population and the day by day struggles for survival Writing as the battle raged on the author examines the conflict with an unparalleled immediacy and poignancy This also means that The Battle of Kyiv is an important historical document reflecting not subsequent outcomes but depicting the uncertainty and anxiety faced not just by the contesting forces but by the rest of the world as the result of the war in Ukraine hung in the balance

D-Day General Noel F. Mehlo, 2021-05-15 Omaha was the make or break Allied beach on D Day in perhaps the make or break campaign of World War II If American soldiers couldn't gain a foothold there then D Day was unlikely to succeed On June 6 1944 U.S. troops on Omaha suffered the worst casualties of any of the five Allied invasion beaches so many casualties and so much tactical difficulty that Omaha almost didn't succeed One big reason why Americans gained a foothold on Omaha was Gen Norman Dutch Cota A graduate of the West Point class of 1917 alongside famous classmates Matthew Ridgway Mark Clark and Lightning Joe Collins Norm Cota played football with Dwight Eisenhower who graduated two years earlier From March 1941 to February 1943 Cota served with the famous 1st Infantry Division the Big Red One as division intelligence officer plans training officer and finally chief of staff He performed so well in the North Africa campaign that he was sent to England to help plan D Day After laying the tactical groundwork for the amphibious landings Cota was made assistant division commander of the 29th Infantry Division On the eve of D Day he told his men You re going to find confusion The landing craft aren t going in on schedule and people are going to be landed in the wrong place Some won t be landed at all We must improvise carry on not lose our heads On June 6 1944 under heavy fire Cota landed with the second wave of the 29th Infantry Division on Omaha Beach about an hour after the start of the invasion He personally rallied the survivors of the landings and led the opening of one of the first exits off Omaha Cota seemed to be everywhere that day Coming upon a group of Rangers the general told them Rangers lead the way hence the Rangers motto He is also known for saying Gentlemen we are being killed on the beaches Let us go inland and be killed And to a captain uncertain how to proceed I ll tell you what captain You and your men start shooting at them I ll take a squad of men and you and your men watch carefully I ll show you how to take a house with Germans in it Having demonstrated the task Cota asked the officer Do you understand Do you know how to do it now I won t be around to do it for you again I can t do it for everybody Great quips which American military history will always remember and which show the character in every sense of Dutch Cota Cota was a fighter a fighting general a D Day general and his contribution to D Day will remain his rallying of demoralized troops and his blazing the trail toward the breakout and victory on Omaha Ted Roosevelt Jr who landed at Utah Beach has always received credit as the D Day general like Cota Roosevelt also demanded that he land on D Day and then died of a heart attack a month later but Cota is the hero general of the day having landed early on D Day on bloody Omaha Portrayed by Robert Mitchum in the grand D Day film The Longest Day Cota has not yet received his due and there s a campaign now afoot to award him a belated Medal of Honor His story cries out to be told Now with the cooperation of the Cota family Noel F Mehlo Jr tells the compelling story Dutch Cota on Omaha Beach revealing new information and never before seen photos
