Rethinking Corporatization and Public Services in the Global South David A. McDonald, 2014-04-10 After three decades of privatization and anti state rhetoric government ownership and public management are back in vogue This book explores this rapidly growing trend towards corporatization public enterprises owned and operated by the state with varying degrees of autonomy If sometimes driven by neoliberal agendas there exist examples of corporatization that could herald a brighter future for equity oriented public services Drawing on original case studies from Asia Africa and Latin America this book critically examines the histories structures ideologies and social impacts of corporatization in the water and electricity sectors interrogating the extent to which it can move beyond commercial goals to deliver progressive public services The first collection of its kind Rethinking Corporatization and Public Services in the Global South offers rich empirical insight and theoretical depth into what has become one of the most important public policy shifts for essential services in the global South Meanings of Public and the Future of Public Services David A. McDonald, 2022-09-09 Critically assessing meanings of the term public this book situates the emergence and expansion of public services within market based forms of production and consumption It highlights the potential for making public services more progressive within market societies but underscores their ongoing capture by private interests and emphasises the inherent limits of reform within a bourgeois public sphere The author explores opportunities for more expansive forms of non marketized public services examining emerging debates on the theory and practice of equitable participatory and sustainable forms of publicness that go beyond mere ownership The book then asks how we can build a robust international pro public movement that juggles universal needs with local context With a focus on essential public services such as water electricity and health the text is global in its scope and written for a broad audience It will be useful for those interested in social and public policy public services and public administration political theory economic geography social movements sustainability and development Making

Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past From the Streets to the State Paul Christopher Gray, 2018-05-22 For decades emancipatory struggles have been deeply influenced by the slogan Change the world without taking power Amid growing social inequalities and the return of right wing authoritarianism however many now recognize the limits of disengaging from government and the state From the Streets to the State chronicles many diverse and exciting projects to not only take state power but to fundamentally change it A blend of scholars and activists explore issues like the nonsectarian relationships between new radical left parties egalitarian social movements and labor movements in Greece Germany Spain Portugal and Turkey Contributors discuss municipal campaigns based in popular assemblies solidarity economies and independent political organizations fighting for racial gender and economic justice in cities such as Jackson Vancouver and Newcastle This volume also studies the lessons learned from the Pink Tide in Latin America as well as the social movements of racialized and gendered workers transforming human rights across the United States Finally the book offers case studies from around the world surveying the role of state workers and public sector unions in radically democratizing public administration through coalitions between the providers and users of public services Organizational Innovation in Public Services P. Valkama,S. Bailey,A. Anttiroiko,2013-08-22 In the wake of the economic crisis many public services are facing a challenging environment in which they receive less funding but are expected to deliver better services Organisational Innovation in Public Services develops new theoretical models and analyses case studies to provide an important insight into how to modernise public services Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective Marcel Paret,Carin Runciman,Luke Sinwell,2017-03-27 From the Arab Uprising to anti austerity protests in Europe and the US Occupy Movement to uprisings in Brazil and Turkey resistance from below is flourishing Whereas analysts have tended to look North in their analysis of the recent global protest wave this volume develops a Southern perspective through a deep engagement with the case of South Africa which has experienced widespread popular resistance for more than a decade Combining critical theoretical perspectives with extensive qualitative fieldwork and rich case studies Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective situates South Africa s contentious democracy in relation to both the economic insecurity of contemporary global capitalism and the constantly shifting political terrain of post apartheid nationalism The analysis integrates worker community and political party organizing into a broader narrative of resistance bridging historical divisions between social movement studies labor studies and political sociology The Politics of Solidarity Carmen Ludwig,2020-04-08 Politische Transformation und dann 25 Jahre nach dem Ende der Apartheid sieht sich die s dafrikanische Gesellschaft nach wie vor mit drastischen Ungleichheiten konfrontiert Carmen Ludwig nimmt den Wandel ffentlicher Dienstleistungen im Post Apartheid S dafrika und die Auswirkungen der kommunalen Privatisierungen in den Blick Sie zeigt anhand dreier Gro st dte politische Konfliktlinien und lokale Gewerkschaftsstrategien im Spannungsfeld von in und exklusiver Solidarit t auf Zudem stellt sie die Frage wie es Gewerkschaften gelingen kann Solidarit t in fragmentierten Belegschaften herzustellen Privatization in Turkey Ahmet Zaifer,2022-06-27 In Privatization in Turkey Power Bloc Capital Accumulation and State Ahmet Zaifer offers a rare look on privatization in Turkey that involves all three historical periods of Turkish privatization process 1980s and 1990s 2000s and 2010s and covers different forms of privatization from divestiture to public private partnership Benefiting from theoretically informed qualitative research spanning nearly a decade that has involved several interviews with key informant groups extensive review of newspaper articles and detailed analysis of annual reports of businesses Ahmet Zaifer convincingly proves that the acceleration of privatization in Turkey has not only provided advantages to so called favourable capital groups and the government elites but also consolidated the position of Capital in General at the expense of labouring popular classes and the natural environment of the entire country Openings and Closures: Socialist Strategy at a Crossroads Greg Albo,Stephen Maher,2025-03-02 Since the 2016 upsurge in enthusiasm for electoral organizing and party building the terrain has shifted It was not so long ago that a new wave of democratic socialist organizing exploded onto the scene. Quickly the defeat of candidates such as Bernie Sanders and Jeremy Corbyn had a deflating effect. This followed on the crumbling of the new parties in Europe. In Greece Syriza buckled in the face of the iron straitjacket imposed by EU institutions. In Spain Podemos fractured under the weight of its ideological and institutional weaknesses and Bloco fared no better in Portugal. Meanwhile the Chavez inspired Bolivarian revolutions in Latin America hit an impasse barely stumbling along. We find socialist strategy again at a crossroads pressed by the urgent need to find new directions forward amidst mounting crises. Some on the left searching for new paths forward saw little alternative but to support authoritarian neoliberal states in their coercive response to a rising tide of hard right forces as if the repressive and bloody campaigns launched by powerful states could constitute junior components of anti fascist popular fronts. Others in the left turned to the workplace taking new approaches to union organizing seeking to build a working class base for radical politics whose absence seemed directly responsible for another round of defeats. At this new conjuncture what was left of the strategy tactics and organizations that had seemed so promising. Was the new socialist left starting over or moving on. This year's Socialist Register 2025 engages with the openings and closures of at the crossroads of Socialist strategy with case studies from Britain US Pakistan Argentina Germany Bolivia Barcelona and Turkey engaging with topics such as social struggles over climate change Palestine solidarity public banks re municipalization of utilities and unions. Polarizing Development Lucia Pradella, Thomas Marois, 2014-11-20. The global economic crisis has exposed the limits of neoliberalism and dramatically deepened social polarization. Yet despite increasing social resistance and opposition neoliberalism prevails globally. Radical alternatives moreover are only rarely debated. And if they are such alternatives are reduced to new Keynesian and new developmental agendas which fail to address existing class divisions and imperialist relations of domination. This collection of essays polarizes the debate between radical and reformist alternatives by exploring head on the antagonistic structure of capitalist development. The contributors ground their proposals in an international non Eurocentric and Marxian inspired analysis of capitalism and its crises. From Latin America to Asia Africa to the Middle East and Europe to the US social and labour movements have emerged as the protagonists behind creating alternatives. This book's new generation of scholars has written accessible yet theoretically informed and empirically rich chapters elaborating radical worldwide strategies for moving beyond neoliberalism and beyond capitalism. The intent is to provoke critical reflection and positive action towards substantive change. Human Rights in Africa Eunice N. Sahle, 2019-02-01. This edited collection explores key human rights themes and situates them in the context of developments on the African continent. It examines critical debates in human rights bringing together conceptually and empirically rich contributions from leading thinkers in human rights and African studies. Drawing on scholarly insights from the fields of constitutional law human rights development feminist studies public health and media studies the volume contributes to scholarly debates on constitutionalism the right to water securitization of development environmental and transitional justice sexual rights conflict and gender based violence the right to development and China's deepening role in Africa Consequently it makes an important scholarly intervention on timely issues pertaining to the African continent and beyond

The Education of Radical Democracy Sarah S. Amsler, 2015-04-10 The Education of Radical Democracy explores why radical democracy is so necessary difficult and possible and why it is important to understand it as an educative activity The book draws on critical social theory and critical pedagogy to explain what enables and sustains work for radical democratization and considers how we can begin such work in neoliberal societies today Exploring examples of projects from the nineteenth century to the present day the book sheds light on a wealth of critical tools research studies theoretical concepts and practical methods It offers a critical reading of the crisis of hope in neoliberal capitalist societies focusing on the problem of the contraction of possibilities for democratic agency resistance to domination and practices of freedom It argues that radically democratic thinking practice and forms of social organization are vital for countering and overcoming systemic hegemonies and that these can be learned and cultivated This book will be of interest to academics practitioners researchers and students in education and critical theory and to those interested in the sociology philosophy and politics of hope It also invites new dialogues between theorists of neoliberal power and political possibility those engaged in projects for radical democratization and teachers in formal and informal educational settings

Disruptions in Economic and Social Polity Arup Baisya, 2019-11-25 Capitalism is in crisis today while the neoliberal economic model that has been pursued in order to move out of the crisis has also not succeeded There are also major disruptions in both economic and social polity and uncertainties due to change and conflict within social relations This book analyses these issues from a global perspective with particular reference to India in order to determine what can be done to provide this transitory situation with a direction of change The essays gathered here counter the neo liberal myth built on the premise that this is an era free of ideology and reconstruct the concept of ideology and its various ramifications The book also delves into how the dynamics of the overall economic situation today give rise to various possibilities for change and details holistic plans of possible future actions
