FCC Record United States. Federal Communications Commission, 2017 Online Communication in the Context of Personal, Virtual and

Corporate Identity Formation Lutz Peschke, Can Gürmeric, 2018-09-17 The implementation of digital media in our today's communication has a strong impact on the media behaviours in the society. In the last decades great importance is given to the protection of the personality rights in the context of the new media. Since our communication is a media based communication its impact on the construction of reality affects the normative value pattern of societies. To understand new media as a central aspect of our mediatised world it has to be located and analysed both in the communicative and normative system. Today social media is not anymore based on user generated content but is now turned to a platform for business makers with and in the context of Big Data. This book will discuss the formation of different identities as a result of different ways of new media usage. It includes on the one hand online communication between personal and virtual identities. It discusses researches about online identity and online anonymity. Self presentation strategies by using online dating platforms the phenomenon of Internet Mothers as well as the potential of cyberbullying of Snapchat. On the other hand online communication between corporate and new business strategies. It describes and discusses the evolution of television changes of music consumer habits caused by music on demand trends and the impact of social media operations in maintaining brand reputation. This book is located between user generated content and professional applications and regards itself as a contribution to a media discourse in a mediatized and globalized world. Amazon Fire HD 10 User Manual Peter A.
