daughter's marriage to her penniless cousin and Eugenie's determination to follow her heart leads her into direct conflict with her father Eugénie Grandet Honoré de Balzac, 2011 Monsieur Grandet is a very rich man whose chief care is his gold. He runs his household with exacting miserly attention and his wife and daughter suffer a Spartan existence. On the evening of his daughter Eugenie's 23rd birthday his foppish nephew Charles suddenly arrives from Paris. Eugenie has never known passion but now in an instant she falls in love. Monsieur Grandet will not countenance his daughter's marriage to her penniless cousin First Light G.R. Evans, 2013-11-19 Did the universe start with a bang or has it existed always? Was there a supernatural being behind it all or just mindless forces? The beginning of things has forever tested the limits of curiosity and such questions have both challenged atheists and inspired believers. Ancient cultures resorted to myth and symbolism to tell vibrant stories about human origins. Later civilizations added philosophical and scientific explanations but these are not definitive. The nature and meaning of existence, the why as much as the how questions, are in the end mysterious. In this lively and wide-ranging book G. R. Evans explores the world's myriad creation stories against the background of the biggest question there is: what are we doing here? Discussing Swahili legends that resemble the Book of Genesis, Greek tales about the Titans, Native American, Inca, and Mesopotamian mythologies, and Vedic creation cycles that begin with a cosmic egg or seed, the author surveys polytheist, monotheist, and dualist ideas about supernatural power. Tracing the history of humanity as it has struggled over many millennia to make sense of itself, The Creation Myth will attract students of religion, history, and philosophy and general readers alike.
