Retailing has changed rapidly in recent years with the pandemic accelerating the long term growth of e-commerce. Drawing on a unique data set drawn from hundreds of thousands of interviews over almost two decades, this book takes a close look at changes in consumers' shopping preferences, behaviors and influences. Across a range of topics the authors argue that the rise of e-commerce has coincided with a decline in consumer preferences: what people buy and where they buy it. This presents challenges for both retailers and manufacturers. The authors propose that the answer lies with consumers. A focus on consumers is fundamental to designing effective marketing strategies and campaigns. However, retailers and brands often have different perspectives about consumers. This book bridges that gap. The broad scope of topics and longitudinal data give retailers and brand marketers a roadmap for building and maintaining consumer preference in a rapidly changing and challenging environment. Technology and Domestic and Family Violence Bridget Harris, Delanie Woodlock, 2023-01-30

This book brings together academics and advocates to explore an emerging issue: the use of technology by perpetrators of domestic and family violence. Of interest too is critique of government and non-government activities in this arena and how technology can be harnessed to respond to harm. Domestic and family violence (DFV) is widely recognised as an important social issue impacting the safety and wellbeing of victim survivors and their children and on a broader scale threatening risk and security on global levels. This book provides insights drawn from research and practice in the Global South and Global North to provide an evidence base and real world solutions and initiatives to understand, address and ultimately prevent technology facilitated domestic and family violence and how technology can be used to effect positive change and empower victim survivors and communities. Technology and Domestic and Family Violence will be of great interest to students and scholars on victimology, criminology, social work, law, women's studies, sociology and media studies. It will also be a valuable reference for practitioners government and non government advocates working on issues around domestic violence A Practical Guide to Community Social Work Practice in the UK Colin Turbett,2024-09-03 There has been a rebirth of interest in bringing community back into social work but what does community social work mean when applied to practice What are the opportunities in a landscape dominated by shrinking budgets with their attendant procedural and risk obsessed assessment and care management models In this accessibly written book Colin Turbett explores the erratic history of community social work He goes on to demonstrate through contemporary examples how this preventative and relationship based model can work for the individuals and communities served and also provide an answer to the recruitment and retention issues adversely affecting mainstream settings
